

ELECTORS DEFEAT MANY MEASURES

Country Districts Pile Up Big Majority Against Single Tax Amendment.

OPEN-TOWN BILL ALSO HIT

Official Returns From Many Counties Show That Army and Woman Suffrage Legislation Go Down—Fish Bills Pass.

Practically complete returns from 21 counties on six important amendments and initiative measures which were at issue in the election of June 1 were compiled yesterday by the Oregonian and do not materially alter the earlier forecasts made on the less complete count. Latest figures confirm beyond doubt earlier indications that the army bill, woman suffrage, single tax and the Reddy or open-town bill have been defeated by overwhelming majorities. The lower river fish bill, on the other hand, has been carried by a wide margin. The vote for the upper river fish bill was not so heavy, but it also has been enacted by the electors.

The majority against single tax will probably be larger than against any other of the amendments. On the returns at hand for 23 counties, which in nearly all cases are the official count, the bill is defeated 24,559 to 46,258, a margin against the bill of 21,700, which will be greatly increased by returns from counties as yet not heard from. The heaviest majorities against single tax were cast in the more agricultural districts, and this was true in both Eastern and Western Oregon. For instance, in Linn County, the vote was 865 for and 3,477 against, while in Union County 723 votes were cast for the measure and 1,294 against.

Although supporters of the army bill were slow to give up hope of its enactment, that amendment has also been badly beaten. Present figures show that 25,831 voters favored the bill, while 40,885 contributed to its defeat. On woman suffrage the unfavorable majority is even larger. In the 21 counties at hand 25,760 citizens voted for the bill and 43,925 against it, an unfavorable majority of 17,215.

The Reddy open-town bill was also severely dealt with. The vote now stands 25,340 for and 37,233 against, a majority of 8,963.

On the upper river fish bill the vote was 32,321 for and 33,283 against, a favorable majority of only 472. The vote on the lower river bill was 41,194 for and 23,621 against, a majority of 17,573.

All of these majorities will be largely increased by the counties still to be heard from. In several of the counties no count was kept on the amendments and the results will not be known until the official canvass is completed.

ALBANY, Or., June 5.—(Special).—Thomas Brandon, Democrat, elected to the State Legislature from Linn County instead of F. M. Brown, Republican, whose name was shown on the unofficial returns. Official Vote for the People's Choice for United States Senator.

Most assuredly I shall vote for Governor Chamberlain. The choice of a majority of the people of the state," said Mr. Jaeger yesterday. "I have been engaged in business in Portland for a great many years and aside from my business interests I have a reputation at stake. I certainly cannot afford to violate my agreement with the people of Oregon by voting for a majority. There is no influence that can dissuade me from carrying out the wishes of my constituents. I never have and never will be swayed in the slightest way from my determination to support the popular choice for Senator."

In a letter to The Oregonian, W. J. Representative-elect, explains his position as follows: "I am pledged to vote for the people's choice for United States Senator,

As may be shown by the returns of the recent June election, I am a life-long Republican and my name should have appeared on the primary ballot for nomination by the Republican party. But some error occurred in the filing of my petition, making it necessary for me to run at the regular election as an Independent. In name, but not in fact, I am a Republican.

State Senator I. H. Bingham, of Lane, another holdover Statement No. 1 member of the Senate, yesterday said that he would vote for Chamberlain for United States Senator. When asked to say what his position would be, Senator Bingham replied:

"I am in the Legislature next January. I shall certainly vote for the man that received the majority at the hands of the people."

Senator Bingham's colleague probably will not support the Democratic nominee, Allen Eaton, Statement No. 1 member of the House in the 1907 session, has been re-elected on the same pledge, but when asked if he would support Governor Chamberlain, declined to make any statement. Lane County's other two Representatives, however, I. E. Bean and W. C. Calkins, both Republicans, were elected as anti-Statement men.

"You may classify me as non-committal on the election of United States Senator," said State Senator A. A. Bailey yesterday. "In the words of a local Democratic office-holder, 'Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.' That defines my position, and I shall have no statement to make. When it comes time to elect a Senator, I expect to cast my vote as I may decide between now and the time the Legislature convenes."

Other Statement No. 1 Republican Legislators-elect made the following statements: A. W. Orton, of Multnomah, subscribed to Statement No. 1 and shall vote for Chamberlain. Charles J. McDonald, of Multnomah, I promised the people of Multnomah County that I would support the popular choice for Senator. That was the platform on which I was elected. Certainly I shall vote for Chamberlain.
