

TEAMS MADE UP

Seventy-six Athletes Chosen to Represent United States.

THREE MEN FROM OREGON

Smithson, Kelly and Gilbert Among Those Picked to Compete in the Olympic Games—American Aggregation Is Very Strong.

OREGON MEN WHO WILL COMPETE IN LONDON.

Forrest Smithson, Multnomah Club, champion hurdler of A. U. and the only man on the team directly representing Oregon.
C. Gilbert, Yale, world's champion pole vaulter.
Dan Kelly, Irish-American Athletic Club, New York, world's champion in 100-yard dash.

NEW YORK, June 8.—To represent the United States in the Olympic games, which will be held in London next month, 76 men, the pick of the country's athletes, were tonight selected as the American team by the American Olympic team committee at the meeting in the Astor House. The committee, with its unlimited range of selection, picked what is believed will be a team of track and field men that will bear the American colors worthily. Dearborn, McGrath, Rose, Sheridan and Cox are some of those selected to compete in the heavy weight and discus events. Shepard at middle distance, Hillman for the hurdles, and Ewry in the high and broad jumps, are some of the other selections, which are regarded as safe event-winners for the team. While the team selected tonight will be the main reliance of America in the various events to be contested, the committee has also formulated a supplementary list of athletes, including the more promising of the younger element, which may be drawn upon to complete the entry list in some of the events. Tonight's list, however, is likely to be the one to be presented in making up the entries for the various events which will be announced in detail tomorrow. Following is the selected list:

Knights of Columbus Give Play

Present the "Jail of Folly," With Good Show of Dramatic Ability, at the Helix.

THE "Jail of Folly," a three-act comedy-drama, was given at the Helix Theater last night, under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus, before a good-sized audience. The plot centers around Philip Sharpe, an unscrupulous Wall-street financier; John Fairplay, a young merchant, and his wife, who is a victim of his schemes. The play has several well-developed scenes and much excellent characterization. Several of the players enacted their roles with full appreciation of their dramatic possibilities. Fred Weber, as John Fairplay, acted with intelligence and reserve. James E. Bannon, as Montague Pyramus, did some excellent comedy work. The acting of Miss Frances Gallagher, as Evelyn Nicklebury, also showed more than ordinary dramatic ability.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

New York 6; Cleveland 1.

CLEVELAND, June 8.—Cleveland outplayed New York today, but failed to buck its hits and had 15 men left on bases. New York winning 6 to 1. Score:

Batteries	R.H.E.	R.H.E.
Cleveland 1	1	1
New York 6	15	1
Batteries—Thielman, Chech and Bemis; Orth, Kleinow and Blair.

Chicago 2; Washington 1.

CHICAGO, June 8.—At's hit, scoring Davis from second base with the run, put Chicago in the lead of the American League race. Score:

Pantages.

BOR FITZSIMMONS is practically the whole show at Pantages this week, where he is appearing with his wife in a one-act sketch entitled "A Man for That." His crowded theater at each of the performances yesterday and from the applause that greeted his appearance it is evident that the ex-master of the pugilistic art has lost none of his old-time popularity.

The sketch in which "Fit" is appearing was written especially for him by W. J. McCowan. It brings out considerable pugilistic conversation and gives the ex-prizefighter plenty of room to spread himself. The patrons of the the-

What the Press Agency Say.

"Lovers' Lane," by Clyde Finch.

The Baker Stock Company is presenting Clyde Finch's celebrated comedy, "Lovers' Lane," this week, and this is long and will be one of the most successful stock plays on the stage. It contains more laughable fun than any other of this well-known author's pieces.

Musical Comedy at Star.

The musical farce at the Star Theater this week is "Brown's Vacation," and it is the very best Summer entertainment that the Armstrong people have presented. Three acts are necessary to tell the strange adventures of Dill, and an old-time favorite with the Johnnies at the former Fletcher's Theater, of San Francisco, came in for an unusual share of attention with her original imitations. While possessing a serio-comic voice of doubtful range, Georgie, with her winning personality, immediately makes a telling hit.

Interesting Pathe films complete the excellent programme.

Your stomach can digest "FORCE"

when it can't digest any other food. That's because the crisp flakes of whole wheat are thoroughly mixed with the saliva and other digestive fluids, and because the starch in the wheat is converted into dextrine by barley-malt, thereby relieving your intestines of the hardest part of their work.

"FORCE" is made of the best white wheat, steam-cooked, rolled into thin flakes, combined with the purest barley-malt, and baked. Always "crisp" before serving it by pouring into a pan and warming it over. Then serve in large dish with cream, piling the flakes in one side of the dish and pouring the cream in the other side, dipping the flakes as eaten.

Your grocer sells it. No other Flaked Food is "just as good."
