H. K. Tackleson Must Stand Trial for Selling Liquor to Minors.

OREGON CITY, Or., June 9.-(Special.) -H, K. Tackleson, of Canby, was an angry man this morning when he was arrested, charged with selling whisky to a minor, and placed under $600 bonds to appear at the November term of the Circuit Court for trial. Tackleson was arrested last Fall, along with James Jeass, Peter Holberg and Ben Bermosher, for selling beer to minors, and the jury Jesse, Peter Holberg and Ben Bermosher, for selling beer to minors, and the jury failed to reach an agreement. Holberg and Bermosher pleaded guilty and escaped with light fines, while Jesse fought the case and was convicted and sentenced to serve a term in jail and pay a fine, but he was finally paroled by Judge McBride upon petition of nearly every tesident of Canby, which is the home of the four men, whose arrest grew out of the death of young Charles t Kinsel, who was strangled after a drunken debauch with a lot of young companions last Fall. Tackleson was ex-pected to plead guilty at the April term of court, but he changed his mind and as a result District Attorney Hedges sur-prised him with a second and stronger indictment and increased his ball.

cessful campaign in that direction there had first to be ascertained the atti-tude that Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Taft would assume toward Mr. Cortelyou's candidacy. The Secretary himself has declined to make any move in the matter, but his friends have not feit restrained by that fact, and already they feel that they have received encouragement and are pre-pared to move in force upon the con-vention delegates at Chicago. One rea-pared to move in force upon the con-vention delegates at Chicago. One rea-son for their confidence is asserted to be their belief that by strenuous oppo-sition offered by the Fairbanks con-tingent to the recognition of Southern. I Taft delegates in the battle before the committee now in progress, the coup-ling of the names of Taft and Fair-banks or of Roosevelt and Fairbanks on one ticket has become impossible. Therefore tomorrow Mr. Cortelyou's advance guard starts for Chicago, led by Assistant Scoretary Louis Coolidge, a Bostonian of long experi-ence in public affairs and of wide ac-quaintance with the various boom
