PIONEERS ELECT OFFICERS

Washington Association Selects Robert Hill for President.

coming year. Edgar Bryan was re-elected Secretary for his fifth term. William M. Calhoun succeeds C. B. Bagley as treasurer. Judge T. H. Cann the retiring president. Major W. P. Reinhardt, M. R. Maddock, Leader Miller and George F. Frye were elected trustees.

The proposition to make those who settled in the state prior to January 1, 1875, instead of prior to January 1, 1870, as at present eligible for membership in the association provoked a spirited discussion before the 26th annual convention which assembled this morning. The opposition was led by Joe Kohn, of Port Townsend and it was finally decided to make no change in the existing rule. Thomas Prosch offered an amendment to the resolution which provides that applicants for membership prove 42 years residence. This was referred to a committee to be reported on at the next annual meeting.

The secretary in his annual report called attention to the fact that in the past year 26 pioneers have passed away, among them Rev. G. F. Whitworth, one of the best-known pioneer ministers in the county. State Veterinarian Kornick, who has been here for a couple of days in conference with Dr. S. W. McClure, head of the Federal Bureau of Animal Industry in the Northwest. In order to eradicate the mange, which is so prevalent among the hundreds of Indian horses on the reservation, the Government inspectors stationed here have just completed arrangements for dipping every cayuse on the Umatilla reservation, whether infected or not.

A great vat has been constructed near the site of the old agency, and for several days the reds have been engaged in the task of rounding up their ponies. County Inspector Bryant started out today to make a tour of the county, and every white man's horse found to be infected will be taken to the reservation dipping vat and given a bath, the owner being charged the nominal sum of 50 cents.

The order on the part of the State Veterinarian was issued at the instance of Dr. McClure, who insisted that it was little short of folly to clean up the reservation horses when those of the adjoining ranchers were in many cases just as bad.

NEW YORK, June 9.—The recounting of votes in the disputed Mayoralty election of 1905 proceeded rapidly today, 83 ballot-boxes being opened and the votes examined before Justice Lambert. Hearst gained 19 votes on the day's count. Two hundred and ninety-one boxes have been opened so far, and the recount shows a gain for Hearst of 135 votes.

There remain 1657 boxes to be reopened.

REDUCE PRICES OF STEEL

MANUFACTURERS AGREE ON CUT, EXCEPT IN RAILS.

Conference Headed by Trust Adopts New Scale, but Gives Railroads No Comfort.

NEW YORK, June 9.—Announcement was made tonight by Judge Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel Corporation, that a general reduction in the price of finished steel products has been agreed upon by representatives of the large steel interests after an all-day conference. The reduction affects billets, structural iron, merchant pipe and wire nails.

The conference was attended by leading steel manufacturers of this country, including the heads of various subsidiary companies of the United States Steel Corporation and the representatives of the large independent manufacturers. After the decision to reduce the present prices on all finished steel products, with the exception of steel rails, it was decided to cut the prices as follows:

Billets, from $28 per ton to $25; Pittsburgh sheet bars, from $29 per ton to $27; Pittsburgh plates from $1.70 per 100 pounds to $1.50; structural iron, $1.70 per 100 pounds to $1.60; merchant pipe, a reduction of two points, or 84 per cent; wire nails, from $2.05 per 100 pounds to $1.95. Sheet and tin plates were reduced early in the year; therefore no changes were considered in the prices of these products.

Judge Gary stated tonight that the conference had been attended by 50 of the leading steel manufacturers of the country and that there would be no further meeting on the subject of reduction of prices.

TELLS OF CROOKED FIGHT

REFEREE MARK SHAUGHNESSY BACK FROM TACOMA.

Called Off Bets When Second Gave Ammonia to McLaglen in Bout With Schlossberry.

Mark Shaughnessy, the well-known California referee, arrived yesterday from Tacoma, where he went to referee the fight between Victor McLaglen and a sailor named Schlossberry. The battle was suddenly terminated in the fourth round, when one of McLaglen's seconds poured a bottle of ammonia down his throat. When Referee Shaughnessy saw that McLaglen had been jobbed he very promptly declared the fight no contest and declared all bets off, and by doing so, saved McLaglen's friends a pot of money.

Just who put up the job, Referee Shaughnessy said last night that he did not know. Before the fight some men began backing the sailor and when they had taken about all the McLaglen money in sight, went around the building offering 3 to 2. The juicy odds caught the McLaglen supporters and a world of money was bet at these odds. The battle as far as it went was all in McLaglen's favor. After finishing the fourth round and while he was in his chair during the minute rest, McLaglen was seen to sprig suddenly from his chair and run to the center of the ring, where he fell. He did not regain consciousness until nearly midnight. The worst part of the job was that the fellow who did the trick admitted that he had given McLaglen ammonia. In speaking of the fight Referee Shaughnessy said: "I never was more surprised in my life. McLaglen went to his corner unhurt and seemed to be winning up to that stage. The moment I saw the froth on his mouth I knew that he had been jobbed and declared all the bets off. I was sorry to see the battle end the way it did, for it looked as if the game would be opened at Tacoma here. He will battle there and the fighting game would get good support."

Mr. Shaughnessy is well known in Portland and has refereed here. He has been Oregon and before he leaves for San Francisco he is going to look at some farm property, with a view of making his home here. He will leave this morning for a trip into the Willamette Valley.

"I like Portland and I like Oregon," he said last night, "and I have saved up a little money and before it slips away from me I'm going to invest it in a farm, one that I can work myself. I've had all the city life I want and I'm going to answer the call to the soil."
