Friction Among Marion Coun ty's Members of the Upper House.

INVOLVES THE PRESIDENCY

Smith Had Promised His Support for This Position, but Recedes Because Kay Will Vote for Chamberlain.

SALEM, Or., June 6—(Special.)—Apparently there is a big split in the Marion County delegation in the State Senate, and it seems certain that as a result of differences over the election of United States Senator, T. B. Kay will lose the support of Dr. J. N. Smith in his candidacy for President of the Senate, it has been understood ever since the last session of the Legislature that Senator Kay would be a candidate for President at the session of 1908, and that he would have the support of his colleague—Senator Smith. It has been supposed that Kay and Smith had an SALEM, Or., June 0.-(Special.)-Ap

But the last few days have wrought radical changes. Kay has indicated his intention to vote for Chamberlain for Senator and it is declared in political charges that it with it. Kay's intention circles that if such is Kuy's intention Smith won't support him for President,

When asked about his position on the Senatorial question a few days ago, Kay said that in his campaign two years ago he declared that he expected to support the people's choice for Senator. This was not an absolute piedge and left him free to vote for some one else if in his opinion the conditions justified. Kay still maintains the same attitude. Both Kay and Smith declined today to discuss the subject of the Presidency of the benate, but it is apparent that they are at outs. Mutual friends of the two senators know that the difference has arisen between them and believe that Kay's candidacy has been greatly weakened by the loss of the support of his

RUST HURTS WHEAT CROP

Weston Farmers Fear Yield This Year Will Be Cut Down.

WESTON, Or., June 9.—(Special.)— Farmers in the Weston neighborhood are puzzled and somewhat uneasy over the appearance of what is feared to be rust, heretofore unknown here. Red-dish spots have discolored the blades of the growing wheat, and seem to be rapidly spreading. Dale Glory wheat a new variety here, largely planted last Fall, is affected the most, Red Chaff being troubled very little or not at In some instances, a field of Da Glory will be tinted red by the rust, while there is no indication of its pres-ence in a field of Red Chaff adjoining. A young Weston farmer, who was in Kings County. California, four years ago, says he saw a very promising crop cut down fully 75 per cent by rust throughout a large district, and that the mysterious pest here has every ap-pearance of being identical. He fears that it will soon spread to the stalk and cut off the sap, as it quickly did in California. Another farmer was familiar with rust in North Carolina, and may join Dr. Coleman, the noted geologist of the University of Toronto, in an attempt this Summer to scale Mount Robson, the highest mountain in Canada. The rust seems to range along the footbills, and has not appeared in the Helix and Cold Spring districts. The Weston country is weedler than ever and a virgin peak. Mr. Kinney made the trip to the foot of the mountain last year in order to make the attempt, but owing to climatic conditions found it impossible to do so. It is proposed to start from Edmonton about August 1 and go in by way of the Athabasca. known before, grain is backward be-cause of the prolonged cold weather just now becoming warmer, and it is likely that 35 bushels an acre will be considered a large crop this year, in-stead of the 50 and 60-bushel yields common in bumper seasons.

CIRCUIT COURT AFFIRMS RAIL-ROAD COMMISSION'S ORDER.

Railway Company Will Take Appeal to Supreme Court-Judge Galloway Explains His Decision.

SALEM. Or., June 3 .- (Special.) - Circuit Judge Galloway today affirmed the ruling of the Railroad Commission in the Milwaukie carfare case and dismissed the injunction suit brought by the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company. The case will be appealed to the Supreme Court.

The commission ordered present fares on the Milwaukie line reduced from 10 cents to 5 cents and from 15 cents to 10 cents to a cents and from is cents to be cents. Judge Galloway held that as compared with the rates charged on the Lents line for the same distance the rates are discriminatory. Incidentally, he held that the contract by which the company is bound to charge not more than 5 cents on the Lents line is invalid. as against public policy, and the fact that the company can charge only that amount on that line does not affect the right of the Commission to regulate rates on the Milwaukie line. He also re-marked, in giving his decision, that dif-ference in original cost could not justify a difference of rates on the two lines, for a difference of rates on the two lines, for it appeared that much of the money spent on the Milwaukle line was ex-pended injudiciously.

The formal decree will be signed in Portland at 10 A. M. Friday, in the of-fice of Commissioner Aitchison, and then Attorney Griffith will take an appeal on babel of his company. behalf of his company.

C. N. McArthur, Chairman.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Or., June 7.—(Special)—Students and friends of the University are busy singing the praises of the members of the alumni who managed the successful campaign in behalf of the appropriation bill. The alumni campaign committee consisted of C. N. McArthur and Dr. Homer ... Keeney, of Portland; Alier H. Eaton, L. R. Alderman and A. R. Tiffany, of Eugene. Members of the committee have worked hard for the past six months in order to carry the appropriation bill at the polic, and their efforts are appreciated by all friends of the University. Several members of the committee gave their entire time to the work of the campaign, neglecting their own private business for the sake of their aima mater. Mr. McArthur organized the campaign among the newspapers of the state, with the result that 80 per cent of the papers supported the bill. He also directed the campaign in Multnomah County, where a majority of 9480 votes was secured. Mr. Eaton managed the campaign in Lane County and organized the friends of the University in the state, while Mr. Alderman worked among the high school people and took the stump on more than 50 occasions. Mr. Tiffany attended to the bulk of the correspondence of the committee. Dr. Keeney did good work for the bill in Multnomah County. Other alumni whose work was effective are D. V. Kuykendall, of Klamath Falls: Homer Billings, of Ashland; W. C. Winslow, C. M. Bishop and C. V. Galloway, of Salem; A. A. Anderson, Fred Stelwer, B. F. Wagner, O. P. Beck and Dr. F. J. Ziegler, of Portland; E. D. Jasper, of La Grande, and Henry McKinney, of Baker City.
