MOUNT TABOR WANTS FIRE PROTECmount range waxes First Photec-tron.-Mount Tabor, Center Addition and Montavilla want fire protection. Chief Campbell, of course, is favorable to the establishment of a fire station at some point from which the entire district can be covered. The Sunnyside engine-house is four miles from Montaville and it is is four miles from Montavilla, and it is out of the question for an engine com-pany to make a run of that distance, especially as it is practically uphill the entire distance. Chief Campbell believes that a fire station placed high enough on Mount Tabor would command that whole settlement from all directions, as the run would be down bill to Conter whole settlement from an directions, as the run would be down hill to Center Addition, westward toward Sunnyside, east to Montavilla and south to South Mount Tabor. It will be necessary to secure a lot well up toward Tabor Heights. One has been offered in the Jonesmore tract, on the Bass Line road, but it is too for down on the east slope. but it is too far down on the east slope, and a lot must be secured further up to give the engine full sweep in all direc-tions. Need of this engine is thought very great. New homes are springing up all over Mount Tabor for which there is now no fire protection of any sort.

ba pleased to hear of the return of M. R. Mihran, of Constantinople, the oldest noted rug expert and collector. He is well known to the rugbuyers of Portland having made annual visits to this city from 1888 to 1903. He has consigned to Messra. George Baker & Co., the auc-tioneers a grand collection of Antique ruga, direct from the various provinces of Persia, such beauties which eclipse all previous consignments. This valuable collection will be on view at Baker's auction-house, 152 Park street, on Saturday next, and will be sold by auction on Monday and Tuesday, June 15 and 16, at 2 P. M. each day.

Those who have been awarded prizes are requested by the officers of the Portland Rose Society to officers of the Porliand Rose Society to call at the office of E. B. The prizes offered were displayed in the Meler & Frank Company's windows and will be assembled at Mr. McFarland's office for distribution.

INSPECT EASTERN BUILDINGS .- Sigmund INSPECT EASTERN BUILDINGS.—Sigmund Frank, of the firm of Meler & Frank Company, and Alfred Doyle, of the firm of Doyle & Patterson, the architects who have the new ten-story building for the firm in hand, have left for Eastern cities on a tour of inspection of the lead-ing department stores of the country. The tries will extend to object by machine The trip will extend to about six weeks. Bids for the excavaling of the basement and sub-basement are being received by the architects. Tenants of the frame buildings on the site are making ready to move out by the first of the month, when work of tearing down the old buildings will begin.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING .- The regular meeting of the Woman's Club will be held Friday at Women of Woodcraft Hall. At 2 o'clock there will be an im-The City Council will hold its first reg-The City Council will hold its first reg-ular bi-weekly session under the new rule, at 9:30 o'clock this morning, at the City Hall, and it is probable the session will continue over until this afternoon. The accumulation of business, however, is not quite so large as has been the rule of late, but the members usually see up a good deal of time taiking in sup-port of their pet measures or against a colleague's. Mayor Lane has not writ-ten any letters this week, either to the Council or to the public. Some even portant business meeting which members are urged to attend promptly. At 3 o'clock a "Rose" programme will be given. Mrs. W. E. Thomas is in charge At 3 of the musical part. The full programme of which will appear in Friday's paper. WOMAN'S CLUB DEPARTMENT.-The current literature department of the Port-land Woman's Club will hold its final meeting for the year, at the residence of Mrs. James Tift, 351 West Park street, ten any letters this week, either to the Council or to the public. Some even say that there is a sort of agreement between the Executive and his political opponents in the Council, to call off hos-tillities for a time. However, this is de-nied in other quarters. The nearest approach to the old custom of the Mayor in sending in a grist of let-ters to the Council for each meeting, is a veto of the ordinance changing the names of certain streets. He "referred for further action" this measure, because this afternoon.

for further action" this measure, because it contained some names of which he did not approve. Among them were "Claude" and "Emilia" streets, at which he balked. From present indications the Weather Councilman Cottel's famous spirtualist ordinance will be up for discussion this morning. It has created more comment than any recently proposed measure, and it is expected that those who oppose its passage will be on hand this morning to

From present indications the Weather Bureau predicts 17.2 feet above zero for the Willamette River at Portland. This stage will be reached Thursday and what will follow is only a matter of conjec-ture. It is safe to say, however, that the river will reach a 19-foot stage by Saturday. The rise was steady yesterday, and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon the gauge registered 16 feet at Portland. This was an advance of six inches over yesterday's readings. The rise at Lewiston was 5 feet and at Wenatchee on the Upper Co-lumbia, it was 1.3 feet. This condition shows a rapid melting of snow in British Columbia. The temperature at Kamioops yesterday was 90 degrees and no pros-pects of cooler weather. The warm weather north of the American line is responsible for the rise in the Columbia and as long as the hot spell continues there will be high water in both the Wil-iamette and Columbia Rivers. A table of hourly temperatures at Port-ind yesterday follows: Deg Deg make a fight against it. It is most drastic as drafted, as it prohibits the giving of spiritualistic advice or con-solation for money, and if it becomes a law, will absolutely drive out of bushlaw, will absolutely drive out of busi-ness many mediums. A recent report to Chief Gritzmacher by Captain of Police Moore, urging im-provement of City Jall conditions, or the establishment of a workhouse, will come up for action today. It may be referred to a committee. This is an old subject in the Council, as several months ago an effort was made to accomplish some-thing toward the construction of a joint City and County Jail, but the plans failed.
