DODGES THE NOOSE

Billek's Reprieve Causes Wild Scenes in Chicago.

PRISONERS JOIN IN CHEERS

When Murderer's Neck is Bared for Noose, Judge Landis Grants Appeal—Enthusiasm on Streets Infects Those in Jail.

CHICAGO, June 12.—(Special.)—Herman Billek was saved from a murderer's death on the scaffold today by the granting of an appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States just as he had bared his neck in the death chamber in preparation for the hangman's noose.

Dramatic intensity marked the day's proceedings in the sensational fight made for the man's life. Judge Landis, of the United States District Court, who yesterday denied the condemned man a writ of habeas corpus, today made possible the appeal to the Nation's highest tribunal, and ordered the execution stayed.

Scenes of wild disorder occurred at the County Jail, when a vast throng of morbidly curious persons, crowding the streets around the building, learned the news. The crowd cheered madly, waving hats and handkerchiefs in the air. The excited mob pressed around the jail entrance so that a score of police stationed there to keep order had to fight the most enthusiastic back with clubs drawn.

The cries of those in the street were heard by the prisoners in the jail, who instantly and instinctively divined the cause. Then pandemonium broke loose within the structure as well as without. Tier after tier of prisoners took up the cheering and continued it for more than 30 minutes, as did those in the street.

Judge Landis decided that the prisoner had the right to appeal from the decision denying the writ of habeas corpus. The case will now be carried to the higher Federal tribunal, and Billek will be given a respite until that body has passed upon the constitutionality of the question involved.

BILLEK'S MOTHER OVERCOME Aged Parent Faints When She Hears Good News.

CLEVELAND, June 12.—Mrs. Barbara Billek, mother of Herman Billek, when told of the appeal granted by Judge Landis, which will mean a new lease of life for the fortune-teller, exclaimed: "Oh, my God! God be praised. He saved my boy."

The mother, who has been ill for several months, and near death, during the strain of the last few days, fainted. She is said to be in a precarious condition.

CUTS OFF THREE LIVES

JEALOUS MAN MURDERS TWO PERSONS, THEN HIMSELF.

Triple Tragedy Follows Lodger's Charge Against Landlady and His Chum.

DENVER, Colo., June 12.—In a jealous rage tonight Charles E. Byers shot and killed Mrs. May E. Boren, landlady of a lodging-house, followed this by murdering Edward Smith and then killed himself.

Byers and Smith were lodgers at Mrs. Boren's house. Smith was a recent arrival, having come at the solicitation of his friend Byers. Last night he made accusations against Mrs. Boren and Smith and as a result was ordered from the house by the woman. Tonight he was granted an interview with Mrs. Boren and the shooting followed.

Mrs. Boren came here two years ago from Howard, Kan. A year ago she was divorced from her husband, J. P. Boren, who still resides with two of their children at Howard.

Byers had been at Roseburg's.
