Triumph Over Race-Track Gamblers Brings Governor to Front.

Woodford Says He is a Fighter and Would Surely Carry New York.

His State Said to

CHICAGO, June 12.-Outside of the con clusion of the contests before the Na tional committee the most important de volopment of the day was the issuance by the "Allies" of a statement in which they declared their intention of "stick-ing to the finish" and in which they as-merted that it was certain that "there will be no nomination on the first ballot."

The attitude of the "allies" as out-

The attitude of the "allies" as out-lined in this statement was generally strengthened by the arrival during the day of General Stewart L. Woodford. of New York, who is in charge of the interests of Governor Hughes. One of the first things encountered by Woodford on his arrival in Chicago was the strong sentiment developing to couple the names of Taft and Hughes. Tals however, General Woodford met with the statement that the New York delegation would come here instructed to support Mr. Hughes for the Presidency and until the convention had made its e there would be no consideration Governor Hughes' name for any place except at the head of the ticket.

No Time for Vice-Presidency.

When shown the authoritative statement made at Albany that the Governor "cannot and will not under any cir-cumstances accept a nomination for the Vice-Presidency," General Woodford

"That is exactly what I expected, I have been attending National conventions since 1860, and have never known a wise selection for the Vice-Presidency to be made until after the candidate for President had been chosen."

Asked if Mr. Hughes' success in win-ning the contest over the racetrack bills had strengthened his candidacy, General Woodford said:
"It has proved that Hughes is a fighter and that he never quits."

Sure to Carry New York.

Instead of continuing the discussion of he Vice-Presidency, General Woodford ook up the availability of Mr. Hughes for the Presidency and said:

"I know one thing, namely: If Hughes is nominated for the Presidency, he will be certain to carry New York. I do not say no one else can carry New York. But I say with Highes nominated New York is certain and with same one else nominated New York is doubtful." When Taft's strength was mentioned General Woodford paid high tribute to the Secretary of War, but said that Republican chances were greater with Mr. Hughes at the head of the ticket, WANTS NO SECOND PLACE Vice-Presidency Without Attraction for Hughes.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 12 .- Copies of ALBANY, N. Y., June 12.—Copies of the following telegram, signed by Robert H. Fuller, secretary to Gov-ernor Hughes, replying to a telegram received from a New York newspaper regarding Governor Hughes' position toward the nomination for the Vice-Presidency, were given out at the ex-ecutive chamber today;

"Governor Hughes directs me to ac-knowledge receipt of your telegram. He cently stated his position in his letter General Woodford, which has been While he appreciates the distinction of the office, and the honor which the nomination would confer, the Governor directs me to say that he eannot and will not under any circum stances accept a nomination for the Vice-Presidency."

The telegram was as follows: There is now a strong feeling in icago following the anti-betting tory, that you should announce victory, that you should announce yourself as willing to accept the Vice-Presidential candidacy in case it is of-fered to you. Have you changed your attitude on this point, as expressed by you recently to the effect that hould not accept second place on the ticket?"

To all his friends who have called to see him preparatory to making the trip to Chicago, Mr. Hughes made his post tion clear on this question. While he appreciates the importance and dignity the office, he has unvaryingly said that he would not accept the Vice-Presidential nomination, should it be offered him.

The Governor refused today to comment upon the statement of A. B. Humphrey, manager of the Hughes head quarters in Chicago, that in view of the bills, there was nothing now remaining to make the Governor desire another term

JAPANESE IMMIGRATION SHUT OFF FOR YEAR.

Notice Served on Tokio That Limit Fixed Has Been Reached Many Must Be Turned Back.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 12 - (Spe cial.)—The Canadian government today notified the government of Japan that the limit of immigrants allowed for one year had been reached and that no more Japanese laborers can be sent to Canada before January I of next year. This is in accordance with the understanding reached between the Laurier administration and Tokio last January, which pro-vided that not more than 400 each year should be sent. Six hundred and eight had come up to the end of May and more are arriving by every boat. It looks like a barefaced evasion of the arrangement on the part of Japan.

Japanese Censul Yada said tonight that even the 400 had not yet arrived, when the number of students and tourists was taken into consideration. As a matter of fact, Canadian officials assert. more than 5 per cent of the new arrivals are exempt from the arrangement.

Mrs. Eddy Tells Why She Omitted Executive Committee Meeting.

BOSTON, Mass., June 12.—Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, head of the Christian Science Church, tonight issued a state-ment in explanation of the omission this year of the annual meeting of the executive committee of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, usually held on the Saturday before the June com-munion service, and which was to have been held tomorrow. The statement is inscribed "A Word to the Wise" and

My Beloved Brethren-When I asked you to dispense with the system of the system.

My Beloved Brethren—When I asked you to dispense with the executive members' meeting, the purpose of my request was sacred. It was to turn your sense of worship from the material to the spiritual, the personal to the impersonal, the denominational to the doctrinal; yea, from the human to the divine.

Already you have advanced from the audible to the inaudible prayers; from the material to the epiricual communion; from drugs to delty, and you have been richly recompensed. Rejoice and be exceedingly glad, for so doth the divine love redeem your hody from disease, your being from sensuality, your soul from sense, your life from death. Of this abounding and abiding spiritual understanding the prophet Isainh said: "And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not: I will lead them in paths they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them and not forsake them."

Party of Workingmen Celebrate the Birthday of One of Their Numher_He Objects to Their Going Home, Pulls Gun and Fires.

One man was shot and mortally younded and another was stabled in the face last night between 10 and 11 o'clock at the house of Frank Rior-monti, an Italian, situated on the Patton road about a mile south of where this road turns into Seventh and Grand streets at the foot of the hill. The affair was the result of a party given by Riormonti's cousin, Toni Petarsso, on his 23d birthday to some other Italian laborets, in which all hands be-came intoxicated.

Jim Vengezo Desantes, aged 40, was taken to the St. Vincent's Hospital in a dying condition as a result of a bul-let wound just beneath the heart. The let wound just beneath the heart. The surgeons said that they expected his death before morning. Joe Desantes, his 15-year-old son, and Luigi Martina, 15 years of age, his pephew, were locked up at the police station charged with being drunk and disorderly, while Toni Petarsso, with a stab wound in his chin, was held on a charge of felonious assault, which will be changed to murder in case of the elder Desantes' death. death.

None of the people mixed up in the affair is able to talk intelligible English so the accounts furnished the police of the affair were somewhat garbled. From what could be gathered it appears that Desantes and his son had started home when the father bethought himself of Luigi, who had remained behind. The boy's parents are in Italy and Desantes, pater, was responsible for the boy. He went back to the Riormonti house and catching the youngster by the sleeve tried to get him to accompany him to his home. at 658 Sixth Street. The boy demurred and Petarsso, the host, also objected on the ground that it was breaking up his party. Desantes picked up a little stick of wood and advanced admonishingly on the boy, who drew a dagger. In a scuffle which ensued Petarsso was stabbed in the face and he in turn draw as a sculpture of the state of the sta ne in turn drew a revolver and fired. The bullet almost pierced Desantes' body entering below the heart and stopping at the skin in his back. As he did not bleed externally and had been drinking heavily, it was not thought he had been hit. He walked down the road for 200 yards before he fell to the ground. A little after midnight some one living in the neighborhood who had heard the shot, telephoned the police and the patrol wagon, in charge of Sergeant Wen-dorf, was rushed to the scene. Desantes' son and nephew were weeping hysteri-ically over his prestrate form and Pe-tarsso was found hiding under a bed in Riormonti's house, 'ne admitted having done the shooting when questioned at the Senator Scott repeated his question and Major Bryan again failed to give a direct answer. Mr. Scott then said:

"I want to know whether you have affidavits to support what you have said?"

"Well, Senator," said Major Bryan, "I must confess that I have not."
"Well, Major Bryan," said the Senator,
"I must say that you have presented some very poor cases in this state, and in other states."

I have presented all that I had," said Major Bryan Senator Heyburn, of Idaho, who is not an enthusiastic Taft supporter, added to Mr. Scott's comment by saying: "I must say that in general the Taft cases have been admirably presented, while some pitiful spectacles have been made by some of the gentlemen on the other side."

Foraker Gets Two Delegates.

The contest in the Fifth Virginia Dis-trict resulted in the scating of an anti-Taft delegation, the first since the hearing of the contests began. Compromises had been reached in two other cases, but the result in this district was a defeat for Taft. This district includes Danville and, when the call was issued for the convention at that place, it read: "For white Republicans." On this one point the Taft delegation was overthrown. The motion to seat the Wilson-Russell delegates, who are for Senator Foraker, was carried by a vote of 19 to 16. The committee decided in favor of the Taft delegates from the First, Second. Third, Fourth, Sixth, Seventh and Eighth is. A motion to divide the seats in the opposing parties in the Second and Third districts was districts.

The centest in Arizona was between two Taft men. Both delegations were headed by R. E. Sloan, but L. W. Powell and Hoval Smith were anxious to be the second delegates and both were seated. Henry B. McCoy, the member of the committee from the Philippine Islands, appeared in the committee-room today for the first time since the hearing of setts, who had up to today used the proxy of Mr. McCoy, received the proxy of North Dakota, held by Charles G. Phelps, and continued as a member of the committee, Mr. Phelps retiring. It was against the latter gentleman that the protest was made at the first meeting of the committee in common with those directed against A. F. Statter and and ascertain whether Frank H. The contest from Alaska resulted in a defeat for the delegation emanating from defeat for the delegation emanating from the faction which heretofore has been recognized as "regular." There were three sets of delegates, all of them for Taft. They were chosen before it had been announced that the jerritory should have only two delegates in the convention. The contest for recognition was really a fight for control of the organization in the territory.

Senator Charles W. Fulton, holding the Callfornia proxy, moved that all three California proxy, moved that all three delegates be seated, with one-third of a vote for each delegate. Arthur F. Statter, holding the proxy for Alaska, moved as a substitute that the faction headed by John G. Heid, the present committee-man from Alaska, be seated. This was lost by a vote of 17 to 27. Chairman New then moved that the Hoggatt delegates, L. P. Shackleford, of Juneau, and George Shea, of Neme, be seated. Mr. Fulton withdrew his motion and the Hoggatt delegates were seated. The result of this contest terminated for the time a sharp fight which has been waged between Hoggatt and Held for the control of the territory.

In pressing his motion Mr. New de-clared that he was opposed to dividing the delegations in territories which had elected more than their legal representa-tion, because of the precedent which might be established.

The seating of Shea and Shackleford settled the selection of the Alaskan mem-ber for the National committee from Alaska. There are only two votes to be cast and Mr. Shea announced that he would vote for his colleague as National ommitteeman. With the disposal of the New Mexico case the work of the full committee in making the temporary roll of the convention was concluded. WANT FREE-FOR-ALL FIGHT

There is doubt whether the Vice-President will permit the use of his name, but it is strongly asserted that, if he is nominated, he will not decline. There were a number of arrivals from Indiana during the day, all of whom expressed the opinion that the addition of Vice-President's name to the ticket would add to its strength in that its strength in that state.

The suggestion was freely made that, in the event of the selection of Secretary Taft for first place, the naming of the second man would be left to the "allies," and it also was generally believed that, all other things being equal, the choice should fall upon a man from the East. Another element believes that it will be of great benefit to the party at large Vice-Presidential nomination i mude the prize of a free fight on the floor of the convention. It has been long since a contest of that description has been witnessed in a Republican conven-tion and the advocates of this method of selection believe that it would tend greatly to heal some existing differences.

NEW YORK, June 12 - Harry K. Colonel Bartlett contended that Thaw could be legally transferred to any other state hospital for the insane and in the argument for the transfer counsel asserted that Thaw would personally rather be in the Tombs or Poughkeepsle prison than in Matteawan. District Atprison than in Matteawan. District At-torney Jerome said he personally had no objection to the transfer of Thaw to some other hospital if he were convinced that it was for Thaw's good and that there was no danger of his escape. Justice Morchauser stated that he could not go back of Justice Dowling's order sending Thaw to Matteawan, but in view of the statements that Thaw might not recover there because of the feeling he has toward the head of the institution he would stay the execution of the order recommitting him until such time as Thaw's counsel could ask Justice Dowling for a change of the original order.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 12 .- The first meeting between Harry K. Thaw and his wife Evelyn since his attempt to secure his release from Matteawan Asy lum, took place today in Thaw's quarters in the Dutchess County Jail. The visit was evidently prearranged, for Thaw was waiting to greet his wife when her name was announced. The meeting between them was private. Mrs. Thaw expected to take luncheon with her husband and pass the day with him.

Mrs. Thaw said she was dissatisfied with the turn matters have taken and said it was not her fault that she was not called as a witness in the habeas corpus case for her husband. Matteawan, she said, is the fast place on earth to which Thaw should be sent. Mrs. Thaw declared that her husband was same.
