BY WILL G. MAC RAE. Portland came from behind yesterday, tied up the game in the sixth, only to lose it in the ninth. Jesse Garrett and the red Mr. Wright nixed the curves and the Auburn-haired had the better of the Texas lad, for he was able to keep the hits scattered, while the visitors clustered them in the second and ninth innings.

Winning Run in Ninth.

After the second inning Garrett pitched grand ball. He wiffed five and played the part of the undertaker seven times. There was a good sharp fielding behind him and it looked as if we would have a few extra runs, until a couple of singles and a short in the ninth blasted our hopes.

FINALS TODAY IN CLUB TOURNAMENT

Last Day of Play at Irvington Tennis Club for Cups and Other Prizes.

MORNING LADIES' DOUBLES

In Afternoon Finals in Men's Singles and Men's Doubles, Ladies' Singles and Mixed Doubles Will Be Played.

The finals in the handicap tournament of the Irvington Club start this morning at 10 o'clock, with the ladies' doubles. Commencing at 2 P. M. sharp the finals in the men's singles, men's doubles and the ladies' singles will be started. B. H. Wickersham, owe 15-3-6, and E. E. Black, scratch, are the finalists in the men's singles, which carries with it the handsome challenge cup presented two years ago by Ralph W. Wilbur. This cup was won in 1906 by W. A. Goss, and last year R. R. Benham secured possession of it. In reaching the finals Mr. Wickersham has defeated J. W. Wilder, and Goss and D. Bellinger, and certainly has earned his place by hard and consistent play. R. E. Black is a comparative stranger here, but not to tennis, as he held the intercollegiate championship of Michigan in 1905 and 1906. Mr. Black defeated O. L. Ferris, F. H. W. Andrews, E. Shives and R. Warinner in this tournament and the match between Mr. Wickersham and he ought to bring out tennis of high order. Mr. Wickersham plays with brilliant and hard-hitting game, and Mr. Black plays a steady game that is hard to win over.

Semi-Finals in Men's Doubles.

The semi-finals in the men's doubles resulted in Andrews and Wilder, owe 30, beating Rohr and de Schweinitz, scratch. The latter took the first set comparatively easily and looked like sure winners, but with steady play and improving all the time, Wilder and Andrews took the second, thus setting a tie which gave them the match. Wilder and Andrews, owe 30, play Cawston and Shives, scratch, in the finals today, and if both teams are on their best game this match should prove a hard-fought and close contest and Andrews and Wilder, owing 30, will be worked to their utmost.

The courts will be occupied by Mrs. Irwin, Mrs. Judge and Miss Moore, has qualified for the finals in the ladies' singles and will meet Miss Mary Schaefer, receive 3-6, for possession of the beautiful Lockwood challenge cup. Miss Schaefer defeated Mrs. W. Cook, Miss Fording and Miss Goss, and has well earned her place by consistent play. Her improvement in the game has been marked.

While the number of entries in the ladies' doubles was a trifle disappointing, the matches have been most interesting and the finals this morning between Miss Fox and Miss Leadbetter, scratch, and Northrup and Miss Schaefer, receive 15, will be well worth seeing.

Courts in Fine Condition.

The finals in the mixed doubles will start at 4 P. M. and this event is between Miss Fording and J. Shives and Miss Fox and E. Black, scratch. The courts could not be in better condition than they are today, as the surface is hard and very fast, the warm weather of this week being just what was needed. Ample accommodations have been made to handle a big crowd this afternoon, as the final day in tournaments at Irvington is always a special event, and with the picturesque surroundings of the courts and the large attendance of ladies it is a very attractive scene. This evening the prizes will be presented by President Jay S. Hamilton at the informal dance in the club house.

The Irvington Club tennis courts are located at East Twenty-first and Thompson streets and can be reached by taking the "1" or "B" car.

Yesterdays' Scores.

Miss Schaefer beat Miss Goss, 6-4, 6-2. Miss Fording and J. Shives beat Miss Moore and W. M. Miller, 6-3, 2-6, 6-4. Andrews and Wilder beat Rohr and de Schweinitz, 3-6, 6-3, 6-3, 6-4. Mrs. Northrup and Miss Schaefer beat Miss Fording and Mrs. Judge, 6-3, 6-2. Miss Fording and J. Shives beat Mrs. W. Cook and D. Bellinger, 6-3, 6-2. Miss Fox and E. Black beat Mrs. Northrup and Andrews, 3-6, 6-3, 7-5. Mrs. Northrup and Miss Schaefer beat Mrs. Judge and Miss Fording, 6-3, 6-2.

Today's Schedule.

The schedule of today's matches is as follows: 10 A. M. finals in ladies' doubles, Miss Fox and Miss Leadbetter vs. Mrs. Northrup and Miss Schaefer; 2 P. M. finals in men's singles, B. H. Wickersham, owe 15-3-6, vs. E. E. Black, scratch; 2 P. M. finals in men's doubles, Andrews and Wilder vs. Rohr and de Schweinitz; 4 P. JOE GANS PLANS TO RETIRE

Wants to Fight Only Two More Ring Battles.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—Joe Gans has returned from a short Eastern trip and is out with the statement that he will retire in September, or earlier, in case the winner of the "redie Welsh-Packey McFarland fight in Los Angeles does not agree to a speedy meeting. The champion says this is his last trip to California for the purpose of boxing, and that his fight with Eastling Nelson on the Fourth of July, and perhaps one more, will wind him up. "Of course this depends on my beating Nelson," said Gans, "but I don't think there's any doubt about that. I will be glad to fight McFarland or Welsh, but must be in September, and there must be a guarantee."

NORTHWEST LEAGUE.

Seattle 2; Butte 0.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 12.—(Special.)—It was pitched here today and both Rush and Clavin pitched shutout ball. Seattle won by some daring work on the bases, assisted by some errors, committed by Seattle. The first run came in the sixth, when, with two down, Bennett stole second and Frisk was walked. Then the two pulled off a double steal after the ball. Clavin covered the plate and when Kretz threw to him he muffed it, again allowing McKune to score. Butte got men on first and third in the fifth with none out, but McKune started a double play that killed off the man on first, and the batter meanwhile holding the runner at third. Score: Seattle 2; Butte 0.

Vancouver 7; Aberdeen 3.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 12.—(Special.)—Vancouver defeated the Black Cats today, 7 to 3.

No Game at Spokane.

SPOKANE, Wash., June 12.—(Special.)—No game today. Tacoma will play here tomorrow.

Hush, there's a new style ball afloat, and when its delivery is perfected, good-bye to the splitter and knuckle ball. A pitcher named Ralph Savidge, of the Memphis Southern league, has invented the "finger nail ball." He gouges his thumb nail and the nail on his index digit into the ball, and then lets her go. Pitchers without finger nails needn't try it.

indicating that the state intends to sit in bad Ryan—Know, you are mistaken. The fact that one of our big ocean liners is fitted up with a dental parlor does not mean that it will help any when the ship is running in the "teeth of a gale." We have always held a pretty fair idea of the sportsmanship of the members of the United States Senate. We have changed our mind since they made a tool of a blind man by taking advantage of his physical infirmities. This was done when they smashed the filibuster started by La Follette. KAY CLOSES DISCUSSION MAKES THREATS TO KILL

John Karman, of Grays River, Held on Complaint of Neighbor. SALEM, Ore., June 12.—(Special.)—In a statement given to the press today State Senator Kay closed, so far as he is concerned, the discussion that has been waged between himself and State Senator Smith over the refusal of the latter to support him for president of the Senate in pursuance of what Kay says was an agreement. Kay declares that at the session of 1906 he procured for Smith the chairmanship of the ways and means committee, and that it was agreed that Smith would support him for president in 1908. He now condemns Smith for refusing to carry out his part of the agreement after he, Kay, had "delivered the goods." He also asserts that his intention to vote for Chamberlain furnishes no reason for the refusal of support for Smith knew, as everybody else did.
