

IS KAY FLIRTING WITH DEMOCRATS?

Candidate for President of the Senate Said to Be Looking to Opposition Party.

LAIID CAMPAIGN IN 1907

Espousal of Statement No. 1 Taken as Evidence That He Will Seek Democratic Votes in Support of Ambition.

Is Senator T. B. Kay, of Marion, flirting with the Democrats for support in his candidacy for President of the Senate? That is the question being asked in political circles, where it is recalled that ex-State Senator E. W. Haines, of Washington, found a similar course profitable business at a session of 1907. The attitude of Senator Kay on the Senatorial situation and the open breach between him and his colleague, Senator J. N. Smith, of Marion, are accepted as evidence that Democratic votes would be welcome in his efforts to become the presiding officer of the Upper House.

At the 1907 session, Senator Kay is known to have played his cards well in the interest of his candidacy for the Presidency of the Senate next Winter. He did not make a move that was not calculated to strengthen himself for the contest two years later. To what extent his efforts in that direction will avail him in the pending contest remains to be seen. Already Senator Smith, of Marion, has renounced any pledge he may have made to support Kay for presiding officer of the Senate, as Kay allies his colleague did two years ago in return for chairmanship of the Senate committee on ways and means, which Kay declares he secured for Smith.

Why Smith Deserted Kay. Smith's repudiation of Kay followed the published declaration of the latter that he would vote for Governor Chamberlain for Senator. This step, it is asserted by those who have been watching the contest for President of the Senate, has been taken by Kay solely to bolster up his candidacy. It is asserted by them that Kay had insisted all along that a string was tied to the pledge regarding the election of United States Senators on which he was elected to the Senate two years ago. For that reason those opposed to Chamberlain that he was prompted by a selfish motive in coming out unqualifiedly for the election of Chamberlain as the popular choice. The motive, it is asserted, is the capture of Democratic support for President.

Of the 14 hold-over Senators, in addition to Senator Kay, five are Anti-Statement Republicans, four are Statement Republicans, and the other five are Democrats. Of the five hold-over Anti-Statements, Republicans, S. C. Beach, of Multnomah, is understood to be a candidate for President, while Jay Bowerman, Senator-elect from Gilliam-Sherman-Wheeler, is also aspiring for the honor. Of the hold-over Statement Republicans—J. H. Bingham, of Lane; A. J. Johnson, of Benton; A. A. Bailey, of Multnomah; and W. T. Schofield, of Clatsop—Senator Bailey is scanning the field and is quietly working for support of himself for election as presiding officer of the Senate. Senator Schofield, while elected as a Statement Republican, has refused to declare himself since the June election, and in the organization of the Senate, may join with the Anti-Statement Republicans. Senator Beach, of Clatsop, is understood to be in the organization of the Senate, and the probable endorsement of Senator-elect Ben Selling for the same office on the Statement side. Members of the Multnomah delegation, would still further divide the strength of the rival candidates.

AUDITOR PURPOSES TO ENFORCE COLLECTION.

Will Cause Arrests of Persons Who Are Taking Advantage of City in Matter.

City Auditor Barbur announced yesterday morning that he will issue an order within a few days instructing that complaints be lodged and arrests made of all persons in Portland who have failed to pay the license tax, and make payment of their occupation taxes or licenses. It has been the custom to allow much leeway on these matters, but Mr. Barbur declares that office is being imposed upon and that he will no longer permit it. This order will be in line with a general aggressive policy put into operation since Mr. Barbur assumed the duties of Auditor. He has virtually reorganized the entire office, and has increased its efficiency. It is said that the volume of city business has become so great that it is almost impossible to keep abreast of the work with the limited number of deputies and stenographers. With the system in force, however, it is a fact that no committee of the Council, Executive Board or any of the municipal bodies are ever delayed because of the Auditor's staff.

The Auditor's staff is frequently commended. Owing to the fact that the city business has grown so rapidly as to swamp the office of the Auditor, Mr. Barbur has decided that he must demand more promptness from those who are in arrears, and therefore he will soon issue the order to compel every person owing money to the city to make payment when the amount is due. It has been the practice to allow a good deal of leeway on payments of licenses and occupation taxes, said Mr. Barbur, "but I cannot permit this in future. The volume of business has grown to such an extent that it is necessary to take steps to force everyone to pay the city's claims promptly. I will therefore issue an order authorizing the license collectors to go before the City Attorney and file complaints against every person in Portland who is owing sums of money for occupation taxes or licenses. Hereafter we have been sending notices, and in some instances have even gone so far as to make personal calls upon some, but this will not again be done while I hold office. No notice will be given in future to any one, and if taxes are not paid when due, arrests will certainly follow."

This order will affect thousands of persons throughout the city, and is one of the most sweeping yet to be issued. It is strictly within the law, as no where is it made the duty of any city official to notify persons when licenses or occupation taxes are due. CONVICT PAYS PENALTY
G. J. Rock Hanged at Deer Lodge for Murder of Guard.
BITTE, Mont., June 15.—George J. Rock was hanged this afternoon in the penitentiary at Deer Lodge for the murder of John A. Robinson, head guard at the prison on March 8 last. Rock was chief in a conspiracy to kill Robinson and Warden Frank Conley and escape from prison. They killed Robinson and badly wounded Conley, who shot and wounded two of the convicts, including Rock.
Of Rock's companions, one is under sentence of death and the other is sentenced to life imprisonment.

SAYS BANKS SHOULD ACT

A. L. MILLS ADVOCATES OREGON CLEARING-HOUSE.

With Such an Institution, He Says, Asset Currency Could Be Issued When Needed.

That the National banks in Oregon should get together without delay and organize a National Clearing-house Association in accordance with the provisions of the Aldrich law, is the suggestion of A. L. Mills, president of the First National Bank. He believes that the latitude allowed National banks to form such an organization and take advantage of the opportunity to issue emergency currency whenever necessary should not be overlooked for he believes it is best to be prepared for any contingency. "Now that the privilege is given National banks to issue emergency currency whenever such action is needed," said Mr. Mills, "I have no reason to think that the need will ever arise, but as a matter of precaution, I think steps should be taken at once to safeguard the institutions of the state and their depositors. Prevention is better than cure any time.

"Had we had such an organization when the financial stringency struck us last Fall, it would have been a great help and emergency currency could have been issued much more conveniently than by the plan that was followed. In case such a condition should ever arise again, it would take time to get the National banks of the state together and organize a National Clearing-house Association. Time and money would be saved by having such an organization already formed. In a matter of this kind, it is best to be prepared for any emergency. "National banks of this city cannot well form such an association for the Aldrich law requires that only such institutions having a paid up capital stock amounting to $5,000,000 can combine themselves into a National Clearing-house Association."

You can go to either of Smith's markets and pick out beef to cook in almost any style for only 5c per pound.

For 5c per pound you can get a fine piece of Plate Beef which, when rolled and boiled with celery seed or other herbs, will give you as fine a dinner dish as a nabob can put on his table. It's delicious sliced cold. For 5c per pound you can have Brisket Beef, which, when parboiled and then roasted in the oven with potatoes and other vegetables, is fine. Beef Liver at 5c per pound, when fried with Smith's Bacon, 17c, or Ham, 15c, is the right thing for breakfast. Necks of Beef at 5c per pound, cut up and made into a stew with vegetables to suit the taste—why, the very odor of it will make the family ravenously hungry. For 5c per pound get a Beef Heart. Make the same stuffing as for chicken, roast and make a rich gravy. At Smith's for 5c per pound you can get our own sweet pickle Corned Beef. There's many a customer of ours who takes home about ten pounds at a time. They cook it with cabbage or kale, and pronounce it the feast of the week. Our Shoulder Roast Beef at 7c and 8c per pound—well, any Beef Trust market will charge about 15c for it. You can get all the genuine Spring Lamb you want at Smith's from 6c to 15c. Fancy Oregon milk-fed Veal from the farms at 6c to 15c. Oregon Pork from 5c to 15c. All kinds of fresh Fish will be found at Smith's.
