TAKE CARE OF AGED MEMBERS

Knights of Pythias Take Initial Steps to Provide Home for Them.

ADOPT NEW CONSTITUTION

Will Be Discussed Clause for Clause Today, as Will Also Plans for the Pythian Home—Knights of Khorassan Tomorrow Night.

Initial steps were taken yesterday at the 27th annual convention of the grand lodge, Knights of Pythias, to care for aged members and provide for them a home in their declining years. The movement was started by Judge W. M. Cake, supreme representative of the order, who made a brief address during the afternoon session, outlining the idea.

A committee of three was at once appointed for the purpose of preparing plans for raising funds for the home. It consists of W. M. Cake, M. T. Davis and D. C. Herren, and a report of its plans will be submitted to the grand lodge at today's session.

Probably as interesting and as important as any convention in its history, is the session of the grand lodge, Knights of Pythias, which opened in Pythian Castle, Eleventh and Alder streets, yesterday morning. It will continue in session until Thursday. Practically a complete list of delegates is in attendance and many high officials of the order from this and other states are here.

Adopt New Constitution.

Deeply important to the order is the subject of a home for its aged members which was suggested yesterday. Equally as important is the adoption of a new constitution and by-laws, which will be the principal topic of discussion today. These new documents are to be discussed clause by clause and sentence by sentence and it was stated by members of the press committee last night that steps would be taken, in order to prevent unnecessary loss of time, to prohibit as much loose talk as possible.

An unfortunate feature of the convention is the absence of Grand Chancellor Commander John M. Wall, who was unable to attend on account of illness. During the forenoon session Gus C. Moser presided, but at the afternoon session he was a candidate and Judge W. M. Cake occupied the chair.

Officer Elected "From Floor."

Entirely at variance from the custom previously followed in the election of officers and establishing an unusual precedent was the election of a certain grand lodge officer "from the floor." Heretofore, it is said, it has been customary for officers of the grand lodge, Knights of Pythias, to be elected by rotation, or rather by promotion. However, at yesterday's election Frank Menifee, of The Dalles, who held no office, was elected to the exalted position of grand vice-chancellor.

For a majority of the offices there was no contest, but in the selection of grand master-at-arms, grand inner guard and grand outer guard sharp contests arose. When the smoke blew away, however, it was discovered that officers of the grand lodge had been elected, as follows:

Grand chancellor, Gus C. Moser, Portland; grand vice-chancellor, Frank Menifee, The Dalles; grand prelate, W. W. Meacham, Baker City; grand keeper of records and seals, L. R. Stinson, Salem; grand master of the exchequer, J. W. Maloney, Pendleton; grand master-at-arms, J. R. Kerr, St. John; grand inner guard, I. T. Nicklin, Eugene; grand outer guard, C. T. Farriss, North Bend; grand trustee, G. W. Jett, Baker City.

Committees Are Appointed.

In electing Mr. Stinson as grand keeper of records and seals the lodge took occasion to congratulate itself and the official also. Yesterday's election was the 12th consecutive time Mr. Stinson has been elected to that position. It was shown that during the past year he has traveled more than 5000 miles throughout the state in the interest of the order.

At the forenoon session committees were appointed by the grand chancellor, as follows:

STARTED BY ORATORY

Independence Party Elects State Central Committee.

Born last night in suite 509, Perkins Hotel, the Oregon State central committee of the Independence Party—not league, as its founder, William Randolph Hearst, christened its parent. It is now a lusty youngster and knows already how to crow.

It was born amid the sounding of many orators and skyrocket addresses predicted a quick supremacy in this state. Though weak by lack of age, a vigorous and stalwart campaign has already been mapped out for it.

At the head of the state central committee, as chairman, is M. J. Malley, an ex-member of the City Council, elected as a Democrat, an ex-member of the state and county Democratic central committee and once a candidate for Sheriff on the ticket of that party. Tom Word, who also had the candidate habit, defeated him for the Democratic nomination for Sheriff.

Boasting of the name of the new party as the embodiment of all that is good in politics, the Independence party met and organized last night very much as the old machine parties do. And a cruel critic might say that a decidedly pre-arranged slate was run through the convention cleverly enough to make any of the Republican manipulators in Chicago turn green.

The suite was filled with enthusiastic Independents and was called to order by Hugh J. McIsaac. Mr. McIsaac is an important and effective representative of his party in the West and tours the entire country arousing interest in the Independence movement. He is a pleasing speaker and a capable organizer. In presiding last night, he outlined the purposes of the meeting. It was held, he explained, in order to effect temporary organization. It was held further, he stated, for the purpose of organizing a provisional state central committee, and nearly every person who attended last night was a member of the committee. It will be composed of 50 members, the remaining members to be selected from the state at large by those already chosen.

The committee will meet informally between this time and July 1 for the purpose of electing delegates to the National convention in Chicago. Immediately after the meeting electors are to be selected to the number of eight.

When the time for electing officers of the provisional state central committee arrived, Mr. McIsaac announced that nominations were in order. The name of Mr. Malley was promptly proposed and his election followed immediately. He spoke briefly, thanking the convention for the honor and declared that, when approached on the subject during the afternoon, he felt disposed to refuse it. However, since he was thoroughly in sympathy with the movement and earnestly hoped for its success, he would accept the chairmanship, provided no one else desired it. There was no stampede for the job, so Mr. Malley was declared elected.

The election of a secretary resulted in the selection of Nelson Hughes. Mr. Hughes also spoke briefly, expressing his sincere belief in the ultimate triumph of the Independence movement. Other speakers followed and at the conclusion of the regular order of business a tumult of oratory was turned loose. Each of the speakers congratulated the committee in its selection of officers and pledged himself to unwavering loyalty. Headquarters for the approaching campaign will be opened in this city within a short time and a vigorous campaign is promised.

"We have large hopes from the State of Oregon," said Mr. McIsaac, "and have every reason to believe that within a brief time our party will be supreme here."

Mr. McIsaac left for the South last night at the conclusion of the meeting, but will return shortly.

A partial list of the committeemen follows:

M. E. Gibson, A. J. Jones, C. A. Foster, N. Hughes, M. J. Molley, W. R. Lake, T. J. Byrne, E. A. Gessell, R. A. Willison, I. J. Stock, N. Hare, M. D. White, W. H. Fitzgerald, V. C. Wells, C. W. Dilg, W. Hayes, H. G. Parsons, J. E. Ledwidge, P. McDonald.

Lengthy Reply to Those Who Accuse Him of Misconduct.

NEW YORK, June 16.—District Attorney Jerome's answer to three additional specifications in the charges filed against him by a committee headed by William F. Thomas, while under indictment in the banking cases, to get another lawyer in place of the one who was representing him, and that he offered immunity to William R. Montgomery, a banker under, certain considerations.

Mr. Jerome's answer is very lengthy.

W. H. Haddock, living at 91½ Grand avenue, has been missing since June 6. Mr. Haddock is 82 years old and lived with his father, William Haddock. No reason can be offered for his disappearance. His bank account has not been drawn since he went away. His father is as much puzzled over the disappearance of his son as any one, and the police have been notified.
