

THE BOATS 20 MINUTES LATE

Schooner Ida Schnauer Goes Ashore on Sands of Tillamook Spit.

WILL BE A TOTAL LOSS

Starts to Drift in Shore and Anchor-Chain Breaks—Had Been Waiting Week for Tug—Owned by the Miami Lumber Company.

RAY CITY, Or., June 17.—(Special.)—After waiting outside the mouth of the harbor for a week to get a tug to bring her in, the lumber schooner Ida Schnauer, Captain Ben Henderson, owned by the Miami Lumber Company, went ashore on Tillamook Spit at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and is now pounding to pieces on the sands. The tug Vosburg came from Nehalem Bay this afternoon, just 20 minutes too late to save the schooner.

The schooner was bound from Redondo to load lumber at the Miami Lumber Company's wharves at Hobsonville. There was no tug off the harbor and she has been drifting about for a week, waiting for one. This afternoon the captain found she was getting too close in shore, and let down an anchor. The anchor chain snapped immediately. Then another was let down, but was too small to hold in the face of the strong wind from the west. The schooner continued to drift upon the sands, and struck opposite Bay City at Bryan's Park, three miles south of the Tillamook bar, on the outside of the spit.

A heavy sea was running at the time and she began to break up at once. The tug Vosburg went to the life-saving station and brought the crew, who took off the captain of the Ida Schnauer, together with her crew. The weather is fine and the Vosburg tried to take off the schooner, but she was wedged so tightly that it was impossible, and Captain Henderson has authority for the statement that he does not think she can be saved.

The Ida Schnauer is a three-masted schooner, whose value is estimated at $30,000. She is owned by the Miami Lumber Company and was built at Port Ludlow, Wash., in 1872. She is 215 gross tons, 112 feet long, 22 feet beam and a depth of 8.4 feet. She carries a crew of seven.

PAY THEIR OWN TEACHER

Prairie City School Children Want a High School Grade.

PRAIRIE CITY, Or., June 17.—(Special.)—At the school meeting, held here today, Charles Flock was elected director to succeed the late J. A. Bell, and V. C. Belknap was elected director to succeed himself for the full term of three years. J. I. Stalker was re-elected clerk. A 10-mill school tax was voted.

The school here is one of the largest in the state, with about 300 pupils, four teachers, ten grades and eight months. A petition of tenth-grade students was read, asking for the addition of the eleventh and twelfth grades, and offering to pay for the cost of an additional teacher for this worthy purpose. No action could be taken on this petition at this meeting, but a meeting will be called for that purpose in the near future, and undoubtedly will be adopted, which would make this a high school course for the first time, without additional cost to the taxpayers of the district.

ENJOINS COUNTY JUDGE

Hillsboro Saloonman to Contest Recent Election.

HILLSBORO, Or., June 17.—W. V. Wiley, saloonman in South Hillsboro Precinct, has sued out an injunction against County Judge Goodin and the Board of Commissioners, restraining them from declaring the recent prohibition vote operative. South Hillsboro was in a subdivision of four precincts, all the others going wet. This precinct went dry, and the contention is that the charter of Hillsboro gives the city the exclusive power to regulate the liquor question. The bond has been filed and the court has signed the order, making it an appeal question until the case has been determined. Attorney Bagley of Bagley & Hare, says that it does not come within the scope of cases which have hitherto gone to the Supreme Court.

LEAVES, MAY NOT RETURN

Chester Thompson on Way to Portland En Route to Florida.

TACOMA, Wash., June 17.—(Special.)—Chester Thompson left Tacoma this morning, perhaps never to return. The youth accompanied by his sister Olympia, where he will remain several days, and from there will proceed to Portland, where his grandmother, Mrs. Letitia M. Lee, a witness in the murder trial of over a year ago, and his uncles, Frank and Richard Henry Lee, reside. Young Thompson may remain with the Lees for a number of months before determining where he will go to take up the life work he says he is ready to enter. It is possible that he will proceed almost immediately to Florida, where he has relatives, or that a few months may be spent in Eastern Washington, where his father has farming lands.

Mrs. Currin lived on the donation land claim taken by herself and her husband until her death. She was a woman of many notable qualities and was highly esteemed.

GRANGES IN JOINT SESSION

ALL DAY AND EVENING SESSION HELD AT GRESHAM.

Two Hundred Members of Pomona and Pleasant Valley Lodges Take Part.

GRESHAM, Or., June 17.—(Special.)—Multnomah County Pomona Grange met today with Pleasant Valley Grange in an all-day-and-evening session. About 200 members were present. The matter of a Grange County Fair this year was discussed, with much animation, the sentiment being in favor of proceeding with the solicitation of stock subscriptions to the incorporation now in existence. It was shown that subscriptions are slow and that there is danger of the corporation lapsing by limitation if the work is not pushed forward more rapidly. The amount needed to organize is $12,500, of which less than one-half has been subscribed. Each subordinate grange in the county was instructed to secure subscriptions for the balance needed in order that the association may organize for a fair the coming fall.

CAMP IN THE PINE FOREST

Eminent Tragedian Ordered by His Physicians to the Heart of the North Woods.

When Richard Mansfield, the great American actor, returned to this country after a vain effort to regain his health through extensive European travel, he was taken into the heart of the North woods, among the mighty pines of the Adirondack Mountains. The camp in the pine woods was chosen by Mansfield's physicians because there is no other place which will aid Nature so well in healing consumptive lungs. Thousands of our people suffering from throat, lung and bronchial affections, but who can not leave their work to live among the pines, can obtain the beneficial effect of the forest air by using Virgin Oil of Pine, which possesses all the healing, health-giving properties of the tree itself. A half ounce of the Virgin Oil of Pine mixed with two ounces of Coca-Cola and a half pint of good whiskey, a teaspoonful every four hours, will break up a cold quickly and cure any cough that is curable.

The genuine Virgin Oil of Pine is put up only in half-ounce vials for druggists to dispense. Each vial is securely sealed in a round wooden case. Be sure to get the genuine—Virgin Oil of Pine compound pure, guaranteed under Serial No. 451, prepared only by Leach Chemical Co., Cincinnati. Virgin Oil of Pine is always carried in stock by the following wholesale druggists: Langley & Michaels Co., San Francisco, Calif.; Coffin & Redington Co., San Francisco, Calif.; Geo. E. Green, Co., Sacramento, Calif.; The Idaho Drug Co., Lewiston, Idaho.

ENTERING RIVER OF PARTY ROW

Appointment of Linginfelter Brings Charges Against Administration.

SLURS AT SENATOR BORAH

G. W. Thompson, Republican Leader, Says Appointee Was Connected With Land-Fraud Cases. Linginfelter Denies Charge.

LEWISTON, Idaho, June 17.—(Special.)—Charging bad faith upon the part of United States Senator W. E. Borah in recommending G. W. Linginfelter for the position of United States Attorney of Idaho and either inconsistency or lack of full information on the part of President Roosevelt in making the appointment, G. W. Thompson, a prominent Republican leader of Idaho, today made public the slur as it will be presented at Washington. The statement Mr. Thompson is in answer to an interview appearing in a local newspaper, where Mr. Linginfelter denies charges made with the Kester and Kettenschlag land-fraud trials.

"It is not a fight against Attorney Linginfelter, but the policy his appointment would suggest," said Mr. Thompson today. "There is absolute proof to show that Mr. Linginfelter was retained as counsel for Messrs. Kester and Kettenschlag and at the time Senator W. E. Borah was his chief attorney. His appointment now, accomplished as it was during the Senate recess, would suggest that Mr. Borah has forgotten the high position to which the people of Idaho have elected him and allowed his influence to be used in furthering the interests of his former clients. We do not believe President Roosevelt was familiar with these conditions when the appointment was made, as such an appointment, with full knowledge of Mr. Linginfelter's identity with the land-fraud cases would be inconsistent with the policies that have characterized Roosevelt's administration."

GRADUATE AT NEWBURG

BOTH COLLEGE AND ACADEMIC EXERCISES HELD.

Given From Academic Department and Six From College Receive Their Diplomas.

NEWBURG, Or., June 17.—(Special.)—On Tuesday afternoon occurred the graduating exercises of the new academic class of Pacific College, when five young men and two young ladies delivered orations and were granted diplomas. A Newburg address on "Our Country's Progress"; Mabel Haworth, "Unknown Heroes"; Claude Calkins, "Education a Factor of Progress"; Victor E. Rees, "The Unstrife Citizen"; Florence Rees, "To Every Cause Its Champion"; Claude E. Lewis, "Every Man Has a Place"; Chris Smith, "Newspapers and Their Influences."

In the evening occurred the annual meeting of the alumni association, the principal address being delivered by Attorney C. J. S. McAllister, of Portland, his theme being "Some Problems of Present Day Civilization." Tom Richardson, of the Portland Commercial Club, followed with a short talk.

The regular graduating exercises of the college were held today, the Friends' Church being beautifully decorated for the occasion. The class numbered six, with an equal division between the sexes. They were Harry Maxfield, Arthur Wilson, Harold J. Vickrey, and the Misses Alice Hayes, Edna Forsyth and Lena Spangle.

The class oration was delivered by Harry Maxfield, his subject being "Reason's Revelation." The valedictory address was by Dr. Benjamin Young, of Portland. Music—an instrumental solo by Miss Bess Le Verne Vickrey, of Lafayette, and vocal solos by W. Carlton Smith, of Salem. The conferring of degrees was by President W. Irving Kelsey.

The reports from various subordinate societies showed the following membership in the 19 grades of the county: Columbia Grange, 96; Evening Star, 216; Fairview, 66; Grassham, 77; Lentz, 143; Pleasant Valley, 74; Russellville, 178; Rockwood, 80; Woodlawn, 86. Total, 1212.

The question of consolidation of the two official grange papers of Oregon and Washington was discussed thoroughly, the question having been submitted to a referendum by the Oregon State Grange. A motion to consolidate was adopted by a very small majority.

Acting upon an invitation from Columbia Grange, the next session of Pomona will be held at Corbett, in September.

Among the announcements made and one that aroused considerable enthusiasm, was that of the proposed Fourth of July celebration of Rockwood Grange, at Rockwood.

At the evening session, a class of 30 was initiated in the fifth degree by the officers of the grange.

THREE ONLY NOT THERE

PACIFIC'S GRADUATES OF '60'S AT COMMENCEMENT.

Deliver Addresses at Alumni Meeting—Class Day Exercises Held Under the Oaks.

PACIFIC UNIVERSITY, Forest Grove, Or., June 17.—(Special.)—All the graduates of the university before the year 1870, except three, were present at the meeting of the associates alumni last evening. Hon. J. Q. A. Bowley, of the class of '67, presided and gave the speech of welcome. Dr. J. E. Walker, of the class of '67, who for over 30 years has been a missionary to China, gave a very interesting address upon "Then and Now in Far Cathay," in which he spoke of the peculiar customs of the people, and portrayed the difficult tasks of the missionaries.

Dr. Walker then sang a few verses of a Chinese song. Hon. H. W. Scott, the first graduate of the institution, of the class of '63, recalled the early days that he spent at Pacific. Mr. Scott spoke of Mr. Lyman as a patient and devoted teacher. His glowing tribute to Dr. Harper Marsh, the first president of the school, as a man with an iron character. Mr. Scott dwelt upon the importance of the study of the classics in our colleges. He said, after all, how to make a living was highly necessary for our well being, and in order to do this the educational system must meet the increased demand for practical men.

Judge E. B. Watson, of the class of '66, spoke briefly of the value of a college education. He said it was necessary as a basis for any technical training.

Dr. David Rafferty, of the class of '67, called to mind some of his early experiences in the practice of medicine in this state.

Three solos were rendered by Misses Maud Shannon, Kate Shannon and Miss Glance.

After the meeting in the parlors of Herrick Hall refreshments were served.

Under the beautiful oaks which adorn the college campus the senior class this morning held its class day exercises. Robert A. Emley, president of the class, opened the exercises by an appropriate speech of introduction. G. A. Clapp followed with the class history. He recited the deeds and the part in the class history since its sojourn at the university. Besides the members of the class winning four gold "P's" in forensics and journalism, the class has been prominent in all student activities. The class last year staged the "Bride of Gods" at the Helig Theater, Portland, contributed $75 to the gymnasium fund and presented a stone seat to the university.

The prophecy, as was told by D. I. Aller, portrayed the future greatness of the various members. The class poem, written by Miss Frances B. Clapp, was a fine literary production.

Miss Esther M. Silverman, in her presentation speech of the stone seat, spoke of attachment and the love one naturally learns in the four years that a person is connected with a school. Claude Mason, in a neat dedication address, planted a gooseberry bush in the memory of the junior class. Samuel Lawrence gave the closing address for the class.

The General Demand

of the Well-Informed of the World has always been for a simple, pleasant and efficient liquid laxative remedy of known value; a laxative which physicians could sanction for family use because its component parts are known to them to be wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, acceptable to the system and gentle, yet prompt, in action.

In supplying that demand with its excellent combination of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, the California Fig Syrup Co. proceeds along ethical lines and relies on the merits of the laxative for its remarkable success.

That is one of many reasons why Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is given the preference by the Well-Informed. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by all leading druggists. Price fifty cents per bottle.
