PROTECTED BY CONSTITUTION—Mayor Lane gave out a statement yesterday in which he declared that he has received but one complaint against the Tongues of Fire sect, now camped at Mount Labor. Owing to the fact that this sect claims to be a religious body, the Mayor said, the law does not reach them, so far as he can ascertain.

REY. MR. SHAFER MUST REST—Rev. H. C. Shaffer, pastor of the First United Brethren Church, who has been very sick for several weeks, is not improving, and has been ordered by his physician that he must cease all work. He will leave at once for Hood River, and may extend his trip to Montana.

SWEET GIRLS GRADUATE COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES AT ST. HELEN'S HALL. Diplomas conferred upon 12 graduates by Bishop Paddock, of Eastern Oregon.

REPORT ON CHARTER REVISION—The North East Side Improvement Association will hold a regular meeting tomorrow night in the Woodmen hall, on Russell street, to hear a report of the committee appointed on revision of the charter. This committee was appointed to hear the sentiments of the Mayor and city officials and ask that a committee on revision of the charter be undertaken at once.

MINIATURES AT ART MUSEUM—A case of miniatures by Miss Sally Cross, of Boston, is now exhibited at the Museum of Art. Miss Cross is well known as a painter of miniatures and portraits and the collection shown is representative of her best work. The exhibitions of drawing and manual training work of the grade schools will remain in place the rest of this week.

FUNERAL OF OLD RESIDENT—The funeral of Mrs. Mary K. Arnold, widow of the late F. L. Arnold, was held from the family residence, 365 Front street, yesterday afternoon, and was largely attended by friends and acquaintances. She is survived by her sons, John and George Arnold, and her daughter, Mrs. Edward E. Kingsley, Mary and Alvin Arnold.
