Injunction Plank Remodeled to Accord With Views of Nominee.

Declaration of Principles Adopted by Convention All but Identical in Most Respects With Wade Ellis' Draft.

TEXT OF INJUNCTION PLANK ADOPTED

The Republican party will uphold at all times the authority and in tegrity of the courts, state and Federal, and will ever insist that their powers to enforce their process and to protect life, liberty and property shall be preserved inviolate. We believe, however, that the rule of procedure in the Federal courts procedure in the Federal courts with respect to the issuance of the writ of injunction should be more accurately defined by statute, and that no injunction or temporary re-straining order should be issued without notice, except irrreparable injury would result from delay, in which case a speedy hearing thereafter should be granted.

CHICAGO, June 18,-The debate on the anti-injunction plank of the Republican platform was begun by the committee on resolutions after 1 A. M. While discusresolutions after 1 A. M. While discussion on other topics was carried on in comparatively low tones the intensity of faciling which has marked all debates on this subject since the convention began was evidenced in raised voices and earger attention, and attemps at secrecy were forgotten. At the same time the debate never reached the point of personal heat or exchange of invective. change of invective change of invective.

Mr. McCarter, of New Jersey, opened the fight against adoption of the plank. Mr. McCarter, whose resonant tones filled the hall, declared that such a plank would be a reflection upon the integrity of the courts and was entirely unmeasury. He saked and was entirely unnecessary. He asked those in favor of it to show a single in-stance where the power of injunction stance where the power of injunction had been abused by any court, and emphasized his remarks by denunciations of the Democrats and of the labor people, Mr. McCarter's remarks occupied nearly is minutes, and during that time the committee sat apparently unmoved, and there was no response in the way of applause or audible dissent as he concluded.

Long Speaks for Taft's Plank.

Senator Long, of Kansas, then took up the cudgels in behalf of the plank submitted by the sub-committee. He also was very emphatic in his remarks. He said the wording of the plank, while not so radical as was proposed by Mr. Gompers and several of the labor leaders, was nevertheless not a dedge or straddle, but a step forward by the Republican party. He declared that an issue confronted the party, and that there would be universal. party, and that there would be universal criticism if something was not done. He agreed that while the issuance of injunctions by the courts was as a rule in strict consonance with the laws as they appear on the statute books, the plank proposed by the committee would serve to make the seneral practice regular.

to make the general practice regular.

Representative Payne of New York, who is chairman of the ways and means committee, was strongly in favor of the proposed plank. He said the party was about to nominate a man who believed in such a measure and that he had de-clared himself in his speeches of the last two years and especially in his recent one in Cooper Union, New York, as strongly in favor of such action by Congress. Mr. Payne dwelt at considerable length on the attitude of Mr. Taft in this connection and said that while he himself had been pledged to vote for Governor Hughes for the Presidential nomination, he had no doubt the Ohio candidate would be the choice. He be-lieved the adoption of this plank in the Republican platform would insure Mr.

Frank B. Kellogg, of Minnesota, fol-lowed with an equally spirited and ve-hement speech in support of the plank. Telegram From Taft Read.

Wade H. Ellis, of Ohio, surprised his hearers by quoting a telegram from President Roosevelt and a letter and a telegram from Mr. Taft. The President called attention to a telegram sent on the previous day on the support of the injunction plank, "and I hope very mach," the much," the telegram continued, "that it will be adopted." The President said he stood for a "square deal" and was "not in accord with the extremists of the manufacturers on the one hand or of the trades unionists on the other hand."

Vain Effort to Conceal Rollcall.

The method of taking the vote occa-sioned a brief discussion, some of the members of the committee desiring a simple division without record of individual votes. This was met with cries of "No! No!" Roil call! Roll call!" and one committeeman said:

"There is no harm in going on recrod on this question, for the vote will never be made public."

All hands seemed to take this comfortable assurance for granted, and the roll call by states was begun. The actual test vote was taken on a motion by Mr. McCarter to eliminate reference to the courts from the text of Owing to the confusion of excited conversation, shuffling chairs and weary committeemen, stretching into comfortable attitudes after the long session, the first vote, that of J. H. Montgomery, of Alabama, was not heard. The chairman, Senator Hopkins, of Illinois, rapped loudly Tor order, but still there was continued confusion, especially as some were in doubt as to the precise question upon which the compatitoe. which the committee was to vote. Chairman Hopkins explained the situation and the clerk again began the rollcall. Mr. Montgomery, of Alahama, voted "No" on the motion to strike out, thus recording himself in favor of the injunction plank. He was followed by H. M. Rem-mel, of Arkansas, also in the negative, but Henry A. Melvin, of California, and William A. Drake, of Colorado, voted "Yes." Then came Connecticut, Dela-ware, Florida and Georgia in the nega-tive and from that time on the cretive and from that time on the oppo-nents to the amendment gained steadily.

How the States Voted.

This rollcall put the injunction plank in the platform, and without further di-vision the report of the sub-committee was adopted

FILIPINOS HUGELY PLEASED

Look Upon Him as Firm Friend of the Islands.

MANILA, June 19 .- An Associated Press culletin conveyed to the people of the Philippines the first news of the nom-nation of Secretary of War Taft for President by the Republican National convention. The news, which was rapidly irculated early this morning in the news paper extras, was generally received with intense gratification and scores of cable-grams of congratulation were started toward Washington.

There is a strong personal note in the feeling of sentiment of Americans and Filipinos because of the wide acquaintance and personal popularity of Secretary Taft and the belief that his political career had its beginning here. A leading American expressed the general attitude when he said: titude when he said:

The hope of the Filipinos rests largely Taft. No other American statesman knows the islands of the Orient as well as he. Our strongest hope of ultimate justice lies through Taft."

WAR SECRETARY PLANS TO LEAVE CABINET JULY 1.

Wishes to Leave a Clean Slate for His Successor-Confers With President.

WASHINGTON, June 18 .- Secretary Taft's resignation as a Cabinet officer will be received by President Roosevelt tomorrow. It will take effect July 1. This was learned tonight following a conference of several hours at the White House, at which Mr. Roosevelt, Secretary Talt, Secretary Root and Assistant Secretary of State Bacon were present. After the conference Secre-tary Taft was greeted by a dozen newstary Taft was greeted by a dozen news-paper correspondents who desired to learn of his plans.

"The President wants me to leave a clean slate for my successor," said the War Secretary, "and it will take me at least ten days to settle all pending matters in the War Department. I have no definite plans tonight as to when I will leave Washington."

Mr. Taft intimated that it would be within a few days. He will attend the 30th anniversary of the Yale class of within a few days. He will attend the 30th anniversary of the Yale class of 7s with which he graduated. He will be in New Haven Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of the coming week.

Asked as to his views on the vice-presidential question, the nominee for the presidency was non-committal. He asked for the latest news from Chicago as to who would be his probable run-ning mate. Upon being told that there was a movement in favor of Fairbanks. e remarked: "Things seem to be in a chaotic state in Chicago with regard to the vice-

During the conference at the White House several telegrams were sent to Thicago and Mr. Taft intimated that he was expecting responses from these which would materially affect his plans for the immediate future.

work of the day started, therefore, with everybody in had humor, which was not at all relieved by the commonplace and altogether too lengthy speeches of most of the nominating orators.

After the troublesome and unnecessary battle over the Wisconsin propositions had ended the delegates supposed they were going to be released for luncheon. But they were not. The Taft managers, had got up full steam and were ready had got up full steam and were ready to railroad things and they did. Chair-man Lodge immediately called for nomi-nations for President, and the rollcall of states began Wearied With Oratory.

Congressman Boutell, of Illinois, for Cannon, made a really pleasing speech for his candidate. But he was too long getting through and the convention plain-ly indicated its desire for him to "name his man." Governor Hanly, who has his man." Governor Hanly, who has something more than an Indiana reputa-tion as an orator, wandered pretty much all over the United States before he got down to business and was treated with great disrespect by his auditors. Congressman Burton, for Taft, was listened to because he spoke with great spidlity. Ex-Lieutenant Governor Murphy had the same rapid-fire methods and contrived to finish without provoking a riot. A colored orator named from Macon, attention beca nanded attention because he had wonderful voice and was not too rhetorical, but it remained for Wis-consin again to break the last straw of the convention's patience. The speaker's name was Cochems, and his oration was of the college-debatingsociety style. Cochems was repeatedly interrupted and was barely heard, though he had a powerful voice, but he was persistent and he said all he had to say.

Forlorn Hope of Stampeders.

succeeding demonstration for La Follette was a noisy affair, for the Wisconsin delegates are trained rooters and have a system all their own; but the third-termers soon took the convention away from them and tried hard to start the long-advertised stam-pede. If Senator Burrows was there I did not see him. The demonstration finally ended and Taft was easily nom-inated, as everybody except the irra-tional third-term faddists knew he would be. Then Senator Fulton, the Taft floor leader, moved to adjourn till tomorrow and the great day was at an end.

Taft Men Want Fairbanks.

The Taft people wanted to take a lit tle time to see what to do about the Vice-President. Unquestionably the Vice-President. Unquestionably comination will be Fairbanks, if he only indicate that he will accept. Pairnanks' letter, printed this morning, said that his (Fairbanks') decision not to be a candidate for the Vice-Presidency is irrevocable. This would appear to take the Indiana statesman out of the running, but there are many who read between the lines that Fairbanks did not say he did not want the nomination or would got accept it. He said only that he was not and would not be a candi-

But the Taft people are embarrassed n insisting that Fairbanks be a candidate against his will by their previous attitude that Reosevelt should not be made a candidate against his will. There can hardly be one rule for Roosevelt and another for Fairbanks. But they want him, or at least the Taft delegates for the most part want him, and the Taft management will acquiesce if the way is made clear. The talk for Dolliver has been revived and the boom for Cummins is being pushed Laboring to Boom Sherman.

Tonight the New York delegates started up a vociferous Sherman movement. They are parading the streets with bands and gles clubs and are using every device known to experienced political promoters to impress the delegates with the merits of their candidate and the earnestness of their purpose to have him nominated. If New York really wants him and says so. it may get him and likely enough will, if Third may get him and heely enough with it Fairbanks persists in staying out. However, the whole matter may be settled before this letter is printed.

An interesting and pleasing incident occurred in the convention this morning just after the call to order. Senaton

Fulton then said: Honor to Judge Williams.

"Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Convention: The delegation from Ore-gon is proud of the fact and deems it in honor to state to this convention that among its members is the last surviving member of President Grant's Cabinet, in the person of Hon. George H. Williams, who was elected to the United States Senate in 1864. He was a member of the reconstruction committee of the Senate, the author of the reconstruction bill and the tenure of of-fice act and framed the exact language in which now appears the fourteenth amendment. He is now in his clear and strong that looks back from

HOBOKEN PASTOR SHOCKED

NEW YORK, June 18 .- Rev. M. V. Dickson, pastor of the Second Baptist Thurch of Hoboken, in a letter to the newspapers of Hudson County relative to women's dress, says:

"A few years ago it was the low neck. More recently it has been the peek-a-boo waist-the subject of coarse jokes and low conversation. Fashion this year has her slaves, shortening the dress from the other end, making them the object of side glances and unclean talk on the part of low-minded everywhere. "And now, to cap the climax, fashion immodest an exposure the wearer's form that any respectable woman ought to be most heartily ashamed to be seen wearing it. In the name of God, I ask—yes, in the name of purity and morality-what are our omen coming to?
