

SCARE MORMONS WITH DYNAMITE

House Occupied by Traveling Elders at Eugene Torn by Explosion.

DOZEN LIVES ENDANGERED

Woman Prostrated by Shock, Requiring Hours to Resuscitate Her.

EUGENE, Or., June 18.—(Special.)—Dynamite wrecked the front porch of a small residence at the corner of First and Washington streets this city, at an early hour this morning, breaking the front windows of the building and endangering the lives of a dozen persons.

Posted on the porch was the following notice: This is a warning to your tribe. You have tormented the public enough. Move on. The next shot will be more. We mean the Mormon tribe.

Other persons occupying the building besides the Mormon elders were W. F. Buchanan and his five children and his sister, Mrs. E. E. Howell and her three children. Mrs. Howell was prostrated by the shock and did not regain consciousness for several hours after the explosion.

Stone Strikes Head of Bed. Buchanan and one of his children were asleep in the basement of the house. That they were not killed or severely injured is remarkable, as a huge rock, hurled from the basement of the porch by the explosion struck the head of the iron bed in which father and child were sleeping.

The explosion, which occurred at 1:40 A. M., demolished the front steps of the residence and broke all the glass in the windows in the front of the house. Articles were jarred from shelves inside the house. A large hole was blown in the ground in front of the house.

Noise of the explosion was heard for blocks, and soon a crowd of spectators was gathered on the scene. The police immediately began a search of the town for suspects, but so far no arrests have been made. The officers claim to have an important clue.

Members of Household Well Liked. Buchanan is a laborer in the Skinner's butte stone quarry and is well liked by men who know him. Mrs. Howell knows of no one who bears the initials toward any member of the family. The Mormon elders board and room at the Buchanan home, where they have recently been holding meetings. They have also held street meetings.

From the position of the charge, it would seem that the intention was to frighten the people, rather than to kill anyone, for the latter would begin the intention the explosive would have been put next the house, instead of six or eight feet from it. Hurry, however, might have caused the placing of the charge in front of the porch.

LINGENFELTER GOT FEE, SAYS BENDER

Took $200 From Land-Fraud Defendants, Declares Former Partner.

IDAHO WAR RAGES HOTLY

Bender Avers Federal Appointee Approached Him for Affidavit to Show That This Money Came From Another Source.

LEWISTON, Idaho, June 18.—(Special.)—Allegations of irregular dealings against Attorney C. H. Lingenfelter, recently appointed to the office of United States Attorney for Idaho, were made today by Attorney John O. Bender, law partner of Mr. Lingenfelter at the time the action against Kettenschick and Kester was instituted. The utterance of these charges marks the latest development in the Republican war of factions here.

Mr. Bender states positively that the firm of Bender & Lingenfelter was retained by the land-fraud defendants, and that fees amounting to $200, for services rendered, were collected by Mr. Lingenfelter. Mr. Bender further states that an affidavit secured by himself and for his own protection in the case of Ralph Chapman vs. Mary J. Harris, was taken from Mr. Lingenfelter's safe and a photographic copy used in the defense of Kester and Kettenschick.

Locked in Combination Safe. This charge is only by implication, but it is explained by irregular dealings against Attorney C. H. Lingenfelter. The affidavit was placed in the safe to be preserved and that only himself and Mr. Lingenfelter possessed knowledge of the combination. Bender says he did not deliver the affidavit in question. The affidavit was given by Mrs. Harris, and was for the purpose of showing the defendant did not believe Kester and Kettenschick implicated in the alleged conspiracy to defraud her of a timber claim located in the Clearwater country.

Why Affidavit Was Secured. Mr. Bender states this affidavit was secured from Mrs. Harris because during the progress of the trial before the local Land Office he was informed by Mr. Lingenfelter the firm had been retained by the Kester and Kettenschick cases, and that he would not consent to engaging in the defense of those men unless it could be shown they were not identified with the conspiracy against his client. Because of the nature of the affidavit, it was deemed of particular value in the defense of Kester and Kettenschick.

Refuses Favors to Lingenfelter. It is further stated by Mr. Bender that Lingenfelter approached him yesterday and asked him to sign an affidavit to the effect that the $200 attorney's fees were paid for securing the Harris affidavit, but this Mr. Bender declined to do. It is also definitely stated tonight that an investigation of Mr. Lingenfelter's conduct while a member of the Lewiston School Board is threatened by his enemies.

Lingenfelter is charged with holding the office of attorney for the School Board while occupying the office of School Director and for the services of attorney received a monthly salary of $25. It is alleged such action is in violation of the state law.

HAWLEY BLOCKED AGAIN Oregon City Manufacturing Company Asks Restraining Order.

OREGON CITY, Or., June 18.—(Special.)—Today the Hawley Pulp & Paper Company was made defendant in a suit brought by the Oregon City Manufacturing Company to restrain the Hawley interests from proceeding with the work of constructing its main building north of the basin on the east side of Williams Falls. It is stated that Daniel Harvey, one of the McLoughlin heirs, deeded the site of the Imperial mill to George Larouque, reserving 40 feet north, 20 feet west and four feet south of the land for the benefit of the Imperial mill and adjacent property. Harvey also provided that the tail race north of the mill should be kept open, and the Oregon City Manufacturing Company, which operates a woolen mill, just north of the tail-race, is understood that this action may follow. In the event that Judge McBride dissolves the restraining order granted to the Crown-Columbia Pulp & Paper Company last week in its suit against the Hawley Pulp & Paper Company, based on grounds very similar to those stated in the suit brought today. HURLS BABE TO SAFETY Woman Cut Down by Train, Saves Her Little Child.

TACOMA, Wash., June 18.—(Special.)—Tearing down the curved grade on the east side of the Puyallup river bridge early this morning, the last out-bound interurban train from Tacoma to Seattle passed over the prostrate form of Mrs. George Sloan, an Indian woman about 30 years old, who lay asleep on the track with her five-months' old baby by her side.

Both of the woman's legs were severed near the hips, but the baby was not bruised or hurt. It is believed the babe will die from exposure. Mrs. Sloan was hastened to the hospital, dying a few hours later from the shock and loss of blood.

As the train bore down upon the woman, she was roused from the deep fatigue and raising herself to a sitting posture, frantically grabbed at the sleeping baby and tossed it from the rails. Barely had the tiny bundle been hurled away than the train passed over the woman's limbs and with a shriek she fell back unconscious.

BANKERS MEET AT YAKIMA Washington Association Convenes in Thirteenth Annual Session.

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., June 18.—(Special.)—The Washington State Bankers' Association met here this morning in 13th annual convention. President W. D. Vincent, of Spokane, presiding. One hundred and fifty delegates are in attendance. Mayor H. H. Lombard, of North Yakima, welcomed the delegates to the city.

President Vincent, in his address, spoke of the excellent manner in which the banks of the state met the crisis last Fall and the resultant efforts on the part of legislators to meet the situation by providing an increase of the currency. He regarded most of these efforts as old "cure-alls" revived. He expressed the opinion that a central bank without Government ownership, but with Government control, was the only practical cure for currency troubles, as proved by the experience of other nations.

Secretary P. C. Kaufman, of Tacoma, in his annual report dealt with the work of the year and congratulated State Bank Examiner Engle on the splendid GAS ON THE STOMACH OFTEN THE CAUSE OF GREAT BODILY DISTRESS.

It indicates a Feeble Stomach in Which the Food Lies Undigested and Shows Need of Tonic Treatment.

When the stomach is feeble the food lies in it undigested, decays and throws off poisonous gases that distend the walls of the stomach, and cause interference with other organs, especially with the action of the heart and lungs. These gases have other ill effects. They are absorbed by the blood and corrupt it and so cause aches in remote parts of the body and the formation of unhealthy tissue everywhere. General bodily weakness and loss of weight result. The nervous system is disturbed and discomforts such as dizziness, hot flashes, sleeplessness irritableness and despondency originate from this source.

Experience shows that these troubles vanish just as soon as the stomach is made strong enough to digest the food. In other words, it needs a tonic that will rouse it to the work of changing the food into nourishment. The tonic used ought to be one that will agree with the most delicate stomach.

Mrs. Amelia Gwinn, a nurse by occupation, lives at 8139 Vernon avenue, Chicago, Ill. She said recently: "When I was living in Terre Haute, Ind., some years ago, I was in bad health for some months and did not know what ailed me, only that I did not feel like myself. My doctor said I was suffering with indigestion but he did not cure me.

"I had severe pains in the stomach and could not digest any solid food. I had to diet all of the time and had so much gas on the stomach that it seemed at times as though my breath was leaving me. I was greatly run down in health and lost in weight.

"I decided one day to drop the doctor's medicine and take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The first few boxes helped me and I took them until cured. I gained in weight, my digestion became good and I have been in splendid health since. I am glad to recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as they are worth their weight in gold."

The remedy which gave Mrs. Gwinn complete health can be obtained at any drug store or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., at 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50. Every dyspeptic should read "What to Eat and How to Eat." Write for a free copy today.

DATA FOR RATE CHANGES OREGON RAILROAD COMMISSION BACK FROM OLYMPIA.

Result of Investigation Will Mean Lower Freight Rates in Oregon or Higher Railroad Taxes. SALEM, Or., June 18.—(Special.)—On his visit to Olympia, yesterday, the Oregon Railroad Commission laid the foundation for a movement which should result either in lower freight rates or in higher railroad taxes. On their return today the Commissioners said that the purpose of their visit was to confer with the Washington Commission regarding the matter of ascertaining values of railroad property.

This is a work the Oregon Commission must undertake, for in fixing rates the value of the railroad property must be taken into consideration. The Washington Commission has gone to great expense in determining the cost and value of railroads in that state and has just completed the work. At Olympia the Oregon Commissioners were given an opportunity to learn how the work was done in Washington and what the figures show. The Oregon Commission will be able to profit by the experience of the Washington Commission.
