

BORAH BREAKS WITH HEYBURN Rupture in Idaho Delegation Over Appointment of C. H. Lingenfelter.

SENIOR SENATOR'S STORY Declares Federal Appointees Were Selected by Representative of President After Personal Investigation in Idaho.

LEWISTON, Idaho, June 19.—(Special.)—A rupture in the relations of United States Senators W. B. Heyburn and W. E. Borah, of Idaho, is told by telegrams received today from the two Senators. The messages also suggest that Mr. Heyburn has been kept in the dark while Mr. Borah has been busy with the administration in securing the appointment of his friends for the offices of United States Attorney and United States Marshal for Idaho.

Will Hold Job, Says Borah. As just recognition of the efforts of Senator Borah to do something for Lewiston, the Commercial Club of this city sent him a telegram bearing the thanks of that body for the position of Senator Borah. The Commercial Club last night received the following telegram from Senator Borah, in which he assumes the position of sponsor for Mr. Lingenfelter and states the appointment will stand: "Thank you, Lingenfelter is District Attorney and will remain so."

Heyburn Gives New Version. "Neither myself or colleague recommended or were consulted in regard to appointment. Special representative of President made selection after personal visit to Idaho. Representative was assistant Attorney-General, who notified myself and colleague of action only after it had been taken. This refers to both offices. President's representative personally investigated all applications, also present assistant. Selections said to be reflection on none as to qualifications or fitness, but represent only judgment of administration's representative. Reason given for not consulting self and colleague said to be because removals were at personal instance of colleague and independent selection made to avoid any semblance of disagreement between Senators." Clash is imminent.

The situation is interpreted by prominent Republicans here that a clash between the two Senators cannot now be avoided, and that while Senator Borah is endeavoring to protect his appointees for the President, Senator Heyburn will arm himself with all possible ammunition in Idaho and go before the President and request that the Lingenfelter appointment be recalled.

TROOPS LEAVE TRANSPORT Members of First Infantry Transported by Steamer to Vancouver.

ASTORIA, Or., June 19.—(Special.)—The steamer E. J. Hendon arrived down this morning and took Vancouver Barracks about 600 soldiers and officers of the First Infantry, who have been held in quarantine on board the transport Sherman for several days. First Swanson, who brought the vessel in, was also released. As soon as the troops were taken off the transport this morning Dr. Holt began fumigating the vessel, which is being done by sections, and this work will be completed tomorrow afternoon. If nothing unforeseen occurs the Sherman will be permitted to leave up the river on Sunday morning with her crew and the other people detained at the station, with the exception of the patient who is ill with smallpox and 15 others on whom the vaccination has not worked or who have no recent vaccination marks.

MEDFORD WILL STAY WET Judge Hanna Decides City Law Supersedes State Statute.

MEDFORD, Or., June 19.—Judge H. K. Hanna this morning sustained the former order of the Oregon State Court of Jackson County from declaring the City of Medford dry under the state law as a result of the county having cast a majority in favor of prohibition at the recent election. In his decision the court practically decided that the late election was nullified, as far as this county is concerned, and that the County Court will be sustained in authorizing the licensing of saloons in all precincts which voted in favor of saloons two years ago, regardless of the last election.

GIVEN ANTI-TOXINE; DIES Eugene Youth Succumbs While Receiving Treatment by Doctor.

EUGENE, Or., June 19.—(Special.)—Clifford Vickers, the 17-year-old son of E. T. Vickers, a new arrival in Eugene, from Denver, died suddenly here today in Dr. George O. DeBar's office, immediately after receiving a treatment for asthma. The treatment was a hypodermic injection of anti-toxine. Soon after the injection, the boy began to weaken and died within a few minutes. Other physicians were summoned, but they could do nothing. The physicians state that the cause of the death was a condition of the lymphatic system, which, when the hypodermic injection was made, caused the lymphatic glands to empty themselves into the patient's lungs.

TIDAL WAVE SWEEPS DECKS British Ship Lord Shaftesbury Reports Thrilling Experience.

VICTORIA, B. C., June 19.—The British ship Lord Shaftesbury, which arrived yesterday morning from Port Talbot via Louisa, reported that when 300 miles west of Cape Horn a tidal wave was encountered which swept the decks, taking all her boats and houses, starting the hull and partially wrecking the ship. Hundreds of tons of water broke over the ship, which was thrown over on her beam end and her cargo shifted, one man being washed overboard and drowned. This man, John Sylvester, a seaman, was the only one on deck. Had others been there they could not have escaped. On her beam the crew resisted the sea, cargo, working for five days without bread and cold water as food. Eighteen days later they worked the vessel into Montevideo, where she was repaired.

Van Horn, of Seattle. N. B. Coffman will present the diplomas on behalf of the Board. Immediately following, the reception to the graduates will be held in Pythian hall. The graduates are: George Bickford, Ralph Camp, Angus Clippinger, Robert Coffman, Daniel Coffman, Edna Dow, Bertha Foster, Bertha Hansen, Eva Harmon, Phil Henderson, Ellis Hager, Helen Kibben, Jessie Kooz, Lizzie Scott, Frances Stewart, Lizzie Summerson and Mair Viquarth.

SHE ASKS $5000 DAMAGES Woman Forcibly Ejected From Saloon, Brings Suit.

OREGON CITY, Or., June 19.—(Special.)—Mrs. Rose Nehren, wife of Peter Nehren, for many years janitor of the Courthouse, this afternoon brought suit against Ernest Matthes, a well-known saloonkeeper, for $5000 damages, alleging that Matthes had thrown her out of his saloon, when she went into the place to get her husband. Mrs. Nehren says Matthes cursed her and violently ejected her from the place. She complains that Nehren is a habitual user of intoxicants, and in the last ten years has given her only $20, though he has paid the grocery bills and the house rent. She notified Matthes in writing not to sell liquor to her husband, but he paid no attention to the notice. The complaint, following closely on the heels of the action of the Council in revoking the liquor license of Roy Stewart for selling liquor to intoxicated persons in violation of the city ordinance, has aroused much interest.

BIG ALASKA STEEL ORDER Copper River Road Will Use 7000 Tons in Building Bridges.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 19.—(Special.)—Seven thousand tons of steel will be ordered immediately for big bridges which the Copper River and Northwestern Railroad will construct across the Copper River in Alaska, according to B. C. Hawkins, Chief Engineer of the road who has just arrived from Cordova. Rails have been laid for a distance of 90 miles from Cordova, and by the end of the present year the road will be open as far as Abercrombie Canyon, the head of navigation. Rush orders have been received from New York for work on the two bridges. Nearly 900,000 pounds of steel will be required for the cantilever between Miles and Childs glaciers. The bridge at Flagpoint, two miles above Tide Water, will be 300 feet long with three miles of trestle approaches.

WILLIAMS BUILT IN SECOND DEGREE

Slayer of E. F. Zaspell Must Serve Life Sentence in Penitentiary.

CONFESSED TO THE CRIME

Chain of Evidence Complete, But Jury Is Swayed by Eloquence of Attorney Van Vactor—Robbery Murderer's Motive.

HEPPNER, Or., June 19.—(Special.)—Convicted of murder in the second degree and sentenced to the penitentiary for life is the fate of Webb McCaslin, who killed E. F. Zaspell in Morrow County last September. The case has been one of unusual interest here and has been the theme of much comment during the trial. Owing to the well-known circumstances surrounding the case, public sentiment was strongly against the defendant. McCaslin was indicted for murder in the first degree and the verdict was a surprise and is considered as a victory for the defense, which was conducted by Sam E. Van Vactor, a Heppner attorney. Mr. Van Vactor's address for the defendant was a masterpiece of oratory and undoubtedly saved the stretching of the defendant's neck. Three days were occupied in securing the jury and 27 men were examined before the 13 were secured. McCaslin, who confessed to killing Zaspell, practically had no case to work upon. The chain of circumstances which was without a break in showing that McCaslin drove out of town with Zaspell, that he shot him in the back of the head, took his money and made a fast get-away. The case of Dan Doherty, convicted of the killing of Oscar Allen, will be continued until July 7, when the motion for a new trial will be argued. Charley Barhart, who was charged with assault with a dangerous weapon, was convicted and today sentenced to two years in the penitentiary by Judge Bean.

PREPARE FOR ENCAMPMENT Troops at Vancouver Barracks Ordered to Get Ready for March.

VANCOUVER BARRACKS, Wash., June 19.—(Special.)—Preparations are already under way at the Barracks for the big encampment at American Lake during the month of August. The regular troops assigned for this camp will be there on or before August 1. The camp will be known as Camp William Clark, named probably after the famous explorer of the Northwest, though the official orders made no reference to the reason for the name. According to general orders which have just been received at the Barracks, the names of officers and the number of men who will participate in the encampment will be mailed to the various headquarters not later than July 1. The orders further provide that two or three days before starting for the encampment the troops should be carefully examined for the presence of contagious diseases. It is further ordered concerning the total distance to be marched, that general orders which have just been commanding officers. If the required distance is not marched in going to camp, it will be covered immediately after the start of the encampment.

DEAD OF THE NORTHWEST Joseph E. Kirkland, Who Fought Indians in Rogue River Valley.

MILTON, Or., June 19.—(Special.)—Joseph E. Kirkland, a pioneer in the West, died at his home here yesterday of old age. He was born in Illinois 76 years ago and came to the Willamette Valley in 1861, and took part in the Indian War in the Rogue River Valley. In 1867 he married May Standifer, who with two boys and two girls, came to Oregon. In 1885 Mr. Kirkland came to Umatilla County, where he engaged in the practice of law. For a time he was a local preacher in the Methodist Episcopal Church, and was a member of that denomination from boyhood.
