CALLS OFF CONFERENCES

Attack Comes Upon Him at Cleveland and Delays Departure for Utica-Starts This Morning and Will Have Welcome.

CLEVELAND, June 22.-James S. Sherman, Republican nominee for Vice-President, has been ill here for two days. His Hiness will necessitate his remaining here

Mr. Sherman, on his way from Cincinnati to Cleveland Saturday night, was seized by a billious attack. On arrival here he went to the home of Myron T. Herrick, ex-Governor of Ohio, whose guest he was to be over Sunday, He was compelled to go immediately to his room. the was unable to see any one either yesterday or today. He had a large number of important conferences scheduled to take place in this city, and was compelled to break them all. The physician who was summoned to attend him said that no one should be admitted to the room and that Mr. Sherman should not be

There was nothing to alarm at any time in the patient's condition. His lilness is believed to have been the result of hard work at the Republican National Conven-tion, the forced keeping of unusual hours and the heat at Chicago and Cincinnati, where he went with the sibcommittee of the National committee Friday night to meet Secretary Taft.

His physician tonight had no doubt that Mr. Sherman would be able to continue his journey to Utica tomorrow morning, as the attack is at an end. The present plan is for him to leave Cleveland at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning for his home in Utica, N. Y., accompanied by his secretary and one or two friends. A welcome home demonstration was planned for him tonight at Utica, but it had to be declared off.

Adams' Lawyers Object to Special Counsel for State.

BARTNETT FOUND GUILTY

(Continued From First Page.) with a plea for leniency. Bartnett received the verdict coolly, showing little emotion. The courtroom had been thronged all day and many spectators lingered to await the action of the jury.

Judge Conley asked Mr. Cook to agree to the deferring of sentence until such time as action should be taken in the other indictments pending against Bart-nett. Mr. Cook replied that, as Assistant District Attorney, he had no intestion of further prosecuting Bartnett and, un-less he received instructions to the conress he received instructions to the con-trary from the District Attorney the in-dictments would take the same course as those against J. Dalzell Brown. There is no intention of proceeding with any other charges against Brown. As Judge Couley is called away Friday to try a case out of town, he set Tuesday as the time for passing sentence.

time for passing sentence:

Bartnett, who has been out on $200.000 bonds was allowed to continue his liberty. He left the courtroom in the company of one of his sureties.

In his closing argument Mr. Cook said that owing to rulings of the court the charge against Bartnett had been limited to one fact of the general allegation, the sale of a portion of the bonds belonging to the Colton estate, to the value of $31,-700, to Hutton & Company, of New York, through the instrumentality of Dr. Alian Griffith, a brother-in-law of Bartnett, on May 13, 1967. Mr. Cook implicated two other bankers,

J. Dalzell Brown, ex-manager of the bank, and James Tredwell, in the crime, saying that all three were equally guilty; that Brown had plended guilty and been that Brown had pleaded guilty and been sentenced, and that Tredwell will soon be placed on trial.

Mr. Geary made an eloquent plea for his client, and argued that no evidence had been brought out to connect Bartnett with the crime of embezzlement, as it had been shown that he was in another part of the country when the alleged crime of selling the Colton securities had been committed. He asked the ties had been committed. He asked the jurors to narrow their minds to one point; "Did not Barinett aid and abet Brown in this particular transaction?

PETITION OF SALOONKEEPER RICE IS DENIED.

Retail Liquor-Dealers Oppose Before Council Attempt of Alleged "Bad" Resort to Move.

Representatives of the Retail Liquor Dealers' Mutual Protective Association yesterday afternoon succeeded in closing business career in this city "Teddy" Rice, proprietor of the Signal saloon, 148 Sixth street, by inducing the license committee of the City Council to refuse a transfer of license to Rice. The committee's action practically puts Rice out of the saloon business in Portland, for the place he now occupies is soon to be torn down to make room for the big an-nex to the Meler & Frank store. Representatives of the Liquor Dealers' Association appeared before the Council committee and urged its members to re-fuse Rice the transfer. They declared he is not the kind of man they want in the saloon business in this city.

While discussing saloons, the Pullman was revived, and in discussing the Pullman the name of its propretor, John Con-rad, was injected. It was alleged at the meeting that Conrad still owns the Pull-man and that he has violated his promise to keep women out of the place.

The place is supposed to be owned by P. C. O'Mara, who asked for a transfer of his license to a new place just fitted up in the old Commercial Club building, Sixth and Alder streets. Instead of granting the transfer, a motion to revoke the li-cense was introduced. Councilmen Ben-nett and Rushlight urged the revocation of the license, while Councilmen Cottel and Driscoll voted against it. Conse-quently it was a tle, as was the vote to transfer the license.

According to the provisions of an ordinance yesterday recommended for passage by the City Council by the judiciary committee of that body, women will not be permitted to enter or loiter in a saloon in this city. The ordinance was proposed by Councilman Driscoll and will be introduced before the Council tomorrow, when, it is said the ordinance will likely be. it is said, the ordinance will likely be-

BARTENDER GETS FIGHTERS

Holds Up Occupants of Saloon After Stabbing Till Police Come.

In response to a hurry-up call last night which aroused the police station telephone operator into activity, De-tective Price was sent on the run at a late hour to the saloon of Larsson Brothers, at 32 North Third street, almost exclusively patronized by Swedes and Norweglans, where he found that a stabbing affray had occurred and that the bartender had cornered all of the men in the place, with their hands in the air, and was standing guard over them with an enormous revolver. Standing against the side wall were Frank Lind and Nels Nelson. Blood was streaming from a five-inch gash in the side of Lind's face. He had been cut by Nelson with a pocket knife. Blood was also flowing from Nelson's countenance, which had been battered by Lind's fists. Against the rear wall were eight or nine Ways and Means Committee Recom mends Appropriation of $31,000.

The ways and means committee of the City Council, at its meeting yesterday afternoon, recommended the appro-priation of $31,000 for the purchase of 500 fire hydrants. The matter will come up for action at the session of the Council tomorrow. Whether it will pass is a question, as the majority faction of the body may oppose it on the ground that it is a big concession to Mayor Lane, their political enemy. There has been an interesting fight on between Mayor Lane and the members of the Water Board and the Council, as to the purchase of fire hydrants. At the beginning of the year, the Council appropriated $42,900 for the purchase of hydrants, which could not be expended for any other purpose, but Mayor Lane and the members of the COUNCIL ASKED TO PROVIDE Water Board refused pointblank to spend the money out of the water funds for that purpose, and until this date has bought none.

Mayor Lane and the members of the Water Board have held that it is an injustice to the residents in the outly-ing districts to buy fire hydrants with water funds, instead of extending the mains and furnishing better water supply to housekeepers. It is on this ground that they have refused to use the water funds for fire hydrants.

Fire Chief Campbell has called the attention of the various branches of the city government to the need for hydrants in many sections of the city, and has made strong efforts, by writ-ten reports, to secure action. Recently Councilman Rushlight announced that he recognized the fact that fire hy-drants must be secured at once, and yesterday he urged the members of the ways and means committee to recom-mend the purchase of 500 of them. Just what will be done relative to the $42,000 first appropriated is un known, but it is believed that later the Council will release the money and permit its use for the extension of mains and a more abundant supply of water to various suburban points now not served at all or, if at all, not ade-quately. This is the hope of Mayor Lane and the members of the Water Board, who declare that there never was so great need for funds with which to extend the service.
