BRYAN'S TASK IS

Cannot Control at Denver as Roosevelt Did at Chicago.

WHIP NOT LONG ENOUGH

Republican Leader Had Office-Holders to Deal With-Democratic Leaders Hint Nebraskan May Encounter Snags.

CHICAGO, June 23 .- (Special.)-Lo cal Democratic leaders see a parallel between the late Republican National Convention and the coming Democratic convention. In the former, President Roosevelt nominated the candidate for President, captured practically all of the platform and permitted the conservatives in his party to name the Vice-Presidential candidate. If there has been any criticism among Republican politicians against the work of the Republican convention, as a whole, it has been that President Roosevelt did not carry out his programme to a finish and name the Vice-Presidential candi-

They are not officeholders, and, as such, Mr. Bryan has no control over them, so long as they carry out their personal pleage

May Produce Surprises.

That there is a "hen on" in the Democratic party based on this assumption, which may produce some surprises at Denver, is well known. There is not as much interest among Democrats of National reputation on the geographical location of the Vice-Presilent as there is over the contents of the platform. The anti-injunction plank at Denver promises to produce one of the hardest battles, just as it did at Chicago, in the opinion of delegates to the convention. There will be little division of sentiment over the anti-trust plank, the interstate commerce plank or the tariff plank, but there will be a hard clash over the proposition to include a National temperance plank in some mod ified form. The effect of the latter plank will be felt in Illinels, where the candidates for the Governorship expect to be called upon to state their individual positions with respect to it immediately after the Denver convention.

Bryan Discreetly Silent.

Mr. Bryan has kept discreetly gulet or the subject of the Vice-Presidency. If he has made up his mind to put through his own programme, entire, he has not yet publicly intimated as much. Ex-Senator Charles A. Towne, of Minnesota, and New York, who was nominated for Vice-President on the People's party and Silver Republican tickets in 1900 and declined both, had a heart-to-heart talk with Mr. Bryan on this subject within publication about his visit. Mr. Towne is a candidate and merely awaits the #### Crowd Rises and Cheers.

As the class of '78 swung through the entrance of Yale field, headed by 'Big Bill' the crowd of 11,000 rose to its feet, and under the leadership of the yell and song directors, began the thrilling cry with its added snapper of nine 'Tafts.' "Wasn't it great," commented the Secretary on the game. "It was one of the best games I ever saw. Do you know, Mrs. Tatt is inclined to think a poor game of ball is really more interesting than a scientific game, and I do not know that she may not be right."

to the residence of President Hadley. Secretary Taft marched at the head of the class through the streets without a sign of fatigue. From the veranda of his residence, President Hadley delivered a brief address to the members of '78. From President Hadley's residence the class marched to its headquarters at the Edwards House, where the Secretary was given informal greetings by several of the uniformed classes. He delivered no addresses, merely acknowledging the greetings and band serenades. The class of 1502 interpolated in its greeting a distinctive yell, as follows:

"Everybody takes off his hat to Taft, to Taft, to Taft, Ohio, Ohio, Ohio,"

Genuine Yale Ring.

The yell had a genuine Yale ring to it and Secretary Taft thanked the members of the class for calling on him.

About 7 o'clock the class headed by Secretary Taft was conveyed to the New Haven Country Club where the class dinner was held. The function was purely executive. Nobody but members of the class and the attendants were present. Secretary Taft announced this evening that he would visit his brother, Horace D. Faft, at Watertown, Conn., on Thursday It is likely that he will proceed directly from Waterlown to New York on Fri-day as he has an engagement to meet General Luke Wright there that day. Worries Over Sherman.

Throughout the day the Secretary has expressed great concern of his running mate, Representative Sherman, who is critically ill in Cleveland. Up to a late hour tonight Secretary Taft had received no information of the condition of Mr. Sherman beyond that contained in the dispatches of the Associated Press.

Secretary Taft Roots for Old Eli at Baseball Game.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 23 .- As wild a scene of jubilation and as picturesque a mass of humanity as ever had a setting on a baseball dlamond was that which the alumni of Yale University presented as a greeting to Secretary William H. Taft this afternoon, as he sat with the class of '78 in the stand on Yale Field, to see the annual game between the Blue and the Crimson. His cup of happiness was filled to overflowing, for not only was the crowd a record-breaker in his honor, and the classes the noisiest ever known in their dances upon the green sward, but Yale whipped her rival by the score of 3 to 0, in a game which was full of better playing than either team has shown this season

Omen of Good Luck.

As an omen of good luck, Secretary Taft, with Judge Hollister, was in the front rank of his class, and immediately following a band which constantly played the stirring Yale airs. Flanked on either side by the Stars and Stripes and the class banner, the class of '78 marched twice around the ball field in full view of more than 14,000 wildlycheering men and women, followed by the reunion classes, numbering several hundred young men, in their fantastic and striking garb, such as only schemers can devise, and which have made Yale class reunions so notable.

Loyal to His Class.

The Secretary was loyal to his class, as he said he would be, and disdained to leave it when finally it was ushered into one of the stands on the westerly side of the field, under the towering

Secretary Taft and his class, at the head of all reunion classes, made their appearance on the ball field at 3 o'clock. As the familiar figure of the Secretary came in view thousands of people rose to their feet and gave lusty yells and bands massed behind the stands waiting for them to come into view burst out into music. # STUMP FOR TAFT

Expected to Swing Negro Voters of Ohio Into Line for Ticket.

LOOKS FOR RETURN FAVOR

Leaders Believe Full Negro Vote in Ohio Necessary to Success. Foraker Wants Taft's Ald in Re-Election.

WASHINGTON, June 23.-That Senator Foraker will go on the stump in Ohio and make the effort of his life to carry that state for the Republican ticket is confidently believed by Republicans high in the councils of their party. There have been recent conferences among influential Republicans on National affairs and they have strongly tended to bring about this result. On the other hand it is hoped by his friends that Mr. Foraker is to have the support of Mr. Taft and other leaders in Ohio for the Senatorship.

As soon as the convention had nomin-ated Mr. Taft and Mr. Sherman the problem involved was that Mr. Foraker's rogramme in behalf of the negro soldiers of the Twenty-fifth Infantry matter of special interest to the Repub lican leaders and was one of the first things to receive attention. It was recog-nized that unless the negro voters of Ohio would turn out and give their full coting strength to the Republican ticket the state might be endangered. Even if 50 to 75 per cent of them remained at home and did not vote at all. Republican supremacy in that state would be jeopardized. For that reason it was insisted upon that Mr. Foraker should activally a proper that the state of the tively go upon the stump and make one or two speeches in which he would di-rect his remarks toward the interests of the negro voters.

Mr. Foraker is making an automobile trip from Washington to Gettysburg and return. He is expected to be back here in a day or two, and will soon procee to his home in Ohio, preliminary to Summer vacation.

This disagreeable element emanates chiefly from the Cellulose Tissue or chaff which, if boiled by it-the Cellulose Tissue or chaff which, if boiled by itself, is as bitter as gall.

A chemical change takes place in boiling coffee, bringing out the Tannic Acid to such an extent that it destroys the Caffeine, Caffeol and essential oils, robbing the beverage of these most desirable elements, creating practically a Tannic Acid infusion, which you have often distinguished when making coffee, by that bitter acid taste.

By special machinery we eliminate this herbal element and leave only the original wholesome berry and give to you a coffee which is richer by over 14% in Caffeine, Caffeol and Fat than is actually required by the government standard for coffees.
