LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 23.—(Special)—Hard hitting by Los Angeles, woody errors, poor decisions by Perrine and Delmas' home run, that McCredie pulled back from under the right-field fence to hold Delmas for a triple, were the features of an exciting game here today and the champions won, because the Beavers went to pieces in the fifth and sixth innings. About 2000 fans were present and the play was continually punctuated by loud howls of disgust from the fans over Perrine's rulings.

The Beavers made their four runs on two singles, a pass, hit by pitcher, sacrifice and two fielder's choices that Perrine called safe. Score: LOS ANGELES, 4; Beavers, 0.

FAST TENNIS SETS

Snow Defeats Ames in Ladd Tourney.

GOSS AND M'ALPIN LOSE

Veteran Players Defeated by McMillan and Farrell, Experts at Lobbing, and Bait Opponents Into Taking High Ones.

Yesterday's play in the Ladd cup tennis tournament on the Multnomah Club courts developed close matches all through the schedule.

The best doubles match of the day was that of McMillan and Farrell vs. Goss and McAlpin. Both of the first-named team are experts at lobbing, and they baited their opponents into trying to kill the high ones.

Morrison (receive 5-2-6), beat Nunn (receive 5), 6-1, 6-4; Wilder (owe 15 3-6) beat Dole (receive 4-6), 6-4, 6-4; Snow (receive 4-6) beat Ames (owe 4-6, 5-4, 4-6, 7-5); Ladd (receive 15 2-6) beat Hubbell (receive 15 4-6), 7-5, 7-5; Bellinger (owe 15 1-6) beat Katz (receive 15 2-6), 7-5, 6-4; Andrews (owe 4-6) beat Brewer (receive 15 3-6), 7-5, 8-5; Humphrey and Plummer (receive 15) beat Prohman and McKenzie 6-1, 5-7, 7-5; Farrell and McMillan (receive 3-6) beat Goss and McAlpin (owe 30), 6-4, 3-6, 6-4.

Today's schedule is as follows: At 4 o'clock, Morrison vs. McKenzie, Ladd vs. Black, Rohr vs. McAlpin. At 5 o'clock, winner of Ladd-Black match vs. Snow, Bellinger vs. Warriner, Dole and Ames vs. Wilder and Andrews, Humphrey and Plummer vs. Farrell and McMillan.

LACK OF CLASS AT MEADOWS. Owners Waiting for One Another to Make a Start.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 23.—(Special)—One favorite, Convent Belle, made good today at the Meadows. Lack of class, due largely to the fact that owners are waiting on one another to start, is complemented with lack of form even this early.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 23.—(Special)—The third game between Baker and Pendleton teams, of the Inland Empire League, was played here today, and resulted in a victory for Baker by a score of 5 to 0.

OLYMPIC TEAM LOSES THREE MEN. NEW YORK, June 23.—Manager Mathew P. Halpin, of the American Olympic team, states that when the team starts for London Saturday it will be minus three of its first strong performers. They are W. R. Dray, of Yale, the crack pole-vaulter; J. D. Whitman, the Pennsylvania sprinter, and Rowe, of Michigan, the distance runner.

MEETING OF DRIVING CLUB. A special meeting of the Riverside Driving club will be held tonight at the office of the Rural Spirit in the Hamilton building. Matters of importance to horsemen and drivers are to be discussed and all are urged to be in attendance.

NEW DEAN CHOSEN FOR YALE. NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 23.—In the course of its annual report, submitted today to the governing body of Yale University, President Hadley announced as an event of the "highest information" the selection of Professor Frederick Scholts Jones, of the University of Minnesota, to succeed Professor Wright as dean of the college.

ALCO CLUB 14; CHEMAWA 11. ALBANY, Or., June 23.—(Special)—In a smashing hit and run game in this city this afternoon, the Alco Club of Albany won from the Chemawa Indians, by a score of 14 to 11.

WAIT ALL NIGHT FOR FIGHT. Cullen Disappoints 400 Men Because He Finds Purse Too Small.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 23.—(Special)—It was an angry and disgusted crowd that landed from the steamboat Yosemite at 6:30 this morning after spending the whole night on the Sound, and at Langley on Whidby Island. Some 400 men boarded the steamer last night to see the 20-round fight between Dick Cullen, of Australia, and Kid Scaler, of Spokane.

WILL CHASE STUFFED RABBIT. Salt Lake Men Plan to Eliminate Cruelty From Coursing.

SALT LAKE CITY, June 23.—Coursing will become a sport that the most tender-hearted can approve if the plans of a Salt Lake syndicate are carried out. A substitute for the live rabbits used in contests of this character has been perfected. It is a stuffed bunny, which runs the length of the field on an underground trolley, finally to disappear through a hole like the ordinary escape. The slot used is so narrow that it will not embarrass the running greyhounds, and the speed of the rabbit will be regulated at will.

INLAND EMPIRE LEAGUE. Baker City 5; Pendleton 0. BAKER CITY, Or., June 23.—(Special)—The third game between Baker and Pendleton teams, of the Inland Empire League, was played here today, and resulted in a victory for Baker by a score of 5 to 0.
