

COLUMBIA RIVER SURVEY COMPLETE

Official Maps of Engineers Show Effect of Jetty on Bar.

CHANNEL IS MUCH WIDER

Current Has Cut Out Ridges and One Broad Channel Exists—Jetty Has Not Been Extended, but Greatly Strengthened.

Survey maps of the Columbia River bar, compiled by the United States Engineers, were completed yesterday and the result of the soundings made show a channel with a maximum depth of 25 1/2 feet and not less than 24 feet for a width of 600 feet. The channel has in-wreck of the schooner Ida Schnauer, which ran ashore recently near Tillamook, and pronounced the vessel a total loss.

New Exemption Law in Effect.

Copies of the new navigation laws have been received at the local Customs-house. The portion which is interesting to shippers and masters is the section which provides for the exemption from entrance and clearance fees for vessels sailing between American and foreign ports on a tri-weekly schedule or less. This will greatly benefit vessels plying between American and Canadian ports on Puget Sound.

Leon Blum Chartered for Wheat.

The French ship Leon Blum has been chartered to carry outward wheat from Portland to Europe. The Leon Blum is now en route from Cherbourg to San Francisco. Charter rates are high at the present time and owners are asking more than shippers are willing to pay. The cause is probably due to the fact that there is an active demand for nitrate ships for the West Coast and rates are well up for that trade. As a result owners are standing for better rates for wheat.

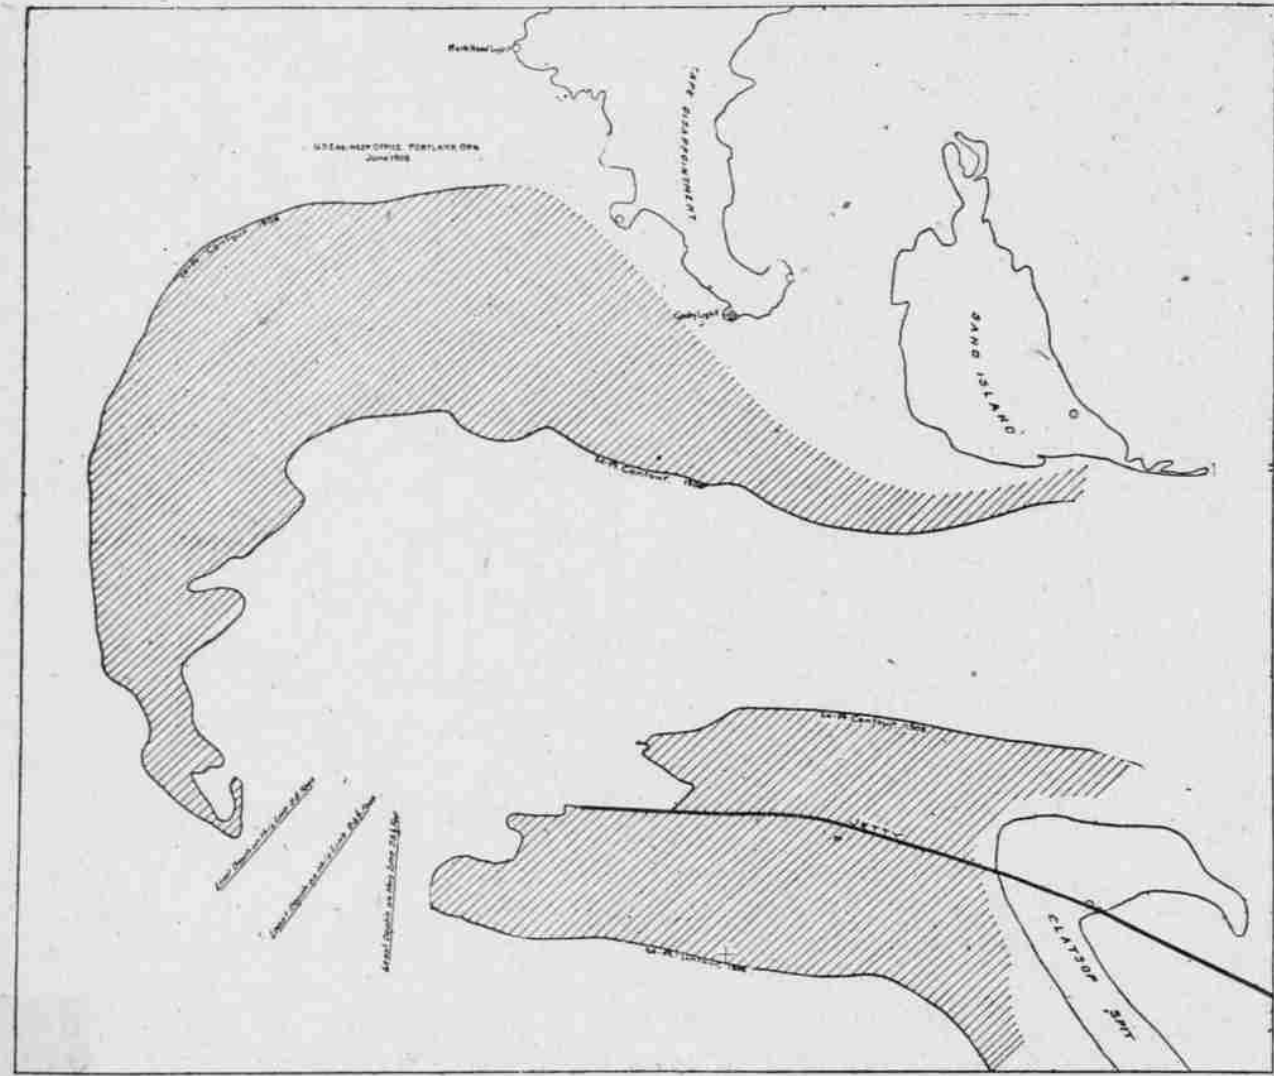

Open Office in Astoria.

ASTORIA, Or., June 25.—(Special).—Captain J. McCabe and Mr. Scott, of the steaming firm of Scott & McCabe, were here today to establish an office in this city. Captain W. E. Johnston will have charge of the company's local office.

creased in width from three narrow cuts to an open channel of more than a mile in width, showing the tremendous accretion by the current during the past year. In the opinion of the engineers the depth will be greatly increased during the ensuing year. The jetty has not been extended during the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1907, but close to 400,000 tons of rock have been used in building up and strengthening that portion which had been built the previous year. Deliveries of rock have been increased to such an extent that there is now a daily delivery of 2500 tons at the Fort Stevens dock. All this rock is being used to lighten the jetty already in position. It will not be until next year that an attempt will be made to extend the structure seaward. From results obtained during the past year it shows that the best effects are obtained by a jetty which stands well out of the water and permits the ebb tide to exercise a full scouring effect. With the widening of the channel the Government has been careful to secure the most accurate survey and has made the soundings less rather than over the mark. In the entire channel, 600 feet in width, there are but three points which show less than 25 feet. The center line on this map shows these points.

Courses for steamships and sailing craft entering the Columbia River and the Columbia River bar at all stages of the tide and none has experienced the slightest difficulty. With all the water of the Columbia River confined to one channel and the heightening of the jetty there is no reason why the channel should not be deepened to 20 feet in another year and Portland placed at the very front among deep water ports.

CITY OF PANAMA CHARTERED

Steamship Engaged to Take Place of Breakwater.

William Baker, local agent of the Portland and Coos Bay Steamship Company, has received advices from San Francisco to the effect that the City of Panama, belonging to the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, has been chartered to take the place of the steamship Breakwater on the run between Portland and Coos Bay during the time the latter steamship is undergoing repairs. The City of Panama will arrive in Portland early next week and will be ready to sail for Coos Bay on regular schedule. The Breakwater left for San Francisco last night. The City of Panama is well known in Portland, having operated between Portland and San Francisco in the service of the San Francisco & Portland Steamship Company, running opposite the Costa Rica. She was larger than the Breakwater and has first-class passenger accommodations for a large number.

Breakwater was Recently Refused a License by the United States Inspectors until certain repairs should be made to her hull. The vessel has been ordered to San Francisco where the demands of the Government officials will be met with.

Find Schooner Total Wreck.

ASTORIA, Or., June 25.—(Special).—Captain A. F. Pillsbury, surveyor for the San Francisco Board of Marine Underwriters, made an inspection today of the launch Ocia for the use of Engineer Lockwood. The launch is 30 feet long and 5 1/2 feet beam and is considered as fast as any in her class. She will be used by the engineer to make trips between the dredges and the dry-dock.

DOG SAVES EIGHT LIVES

Awakes Charles Foster and Family When Flames Start.

Fire destroyed a portion of the house of Charles Foster, a fireman, living at 1200 Hoyt street, early yesterday morning. Eight persons, including four children, were asleep in the house when the fire started and were only saved from probable death by the dog, which barked and barked until the door was opened, when the four children were gotten out of the house by Mrs. Foster, who was badly injured by falling from a porch in the second floor. The lower floor was practically destroyed by the flames. Trunk 3 and engine 3 responded to a telephone call and succeeded in suppressing the flames before they reached the top floor of the dwelling.

Sues to Obtain Clear Title.

The suit of Ella Talbot against Vincent Cook to obtain a clear title to 10 1/2 acres of land in Clatsop county was on trial yesterday before Judge O'Day in the Circuit Court. Cook contends that on November 19, 1892, Mrs. Talbot gave a mortgage to S. G. Bunting for $2500. This was foreclosed April 20, 1895, and the Sheriff's deed delivered to Frank L. Bunting July 11, 1901. Cook obtained his deed from Bunting.

Another Claimant for Dog.

The dog is claimed by E. J. Davey, formerly a fireman at the station at Second and Oak streets, later employed by the Western Union Telegraph Company. Davey said that the dog was born at the firehouse and that he raised him from a pup. He was sure it was the same dog because of his general appearance, his habits and a scar on his nose which was the result of an accident.

Various Estimates of Dog's Value.

Some estimates of the dog's worth run up as high as $150, others stop at 15 cents. Thomas McGregor, for several years employed as J. Pierpont Morgan's kennel manager, said suggestively that the new breed of dog like this, "It's a Pommeranian Spitz, all right," he said, "and a mighty poor one at that."

Captain of Police Bailey said that this particular dog has a miserable disposition, and will bite upon the slightest provocation. "Will you please demonstrate for the benefit of the Court?" asked Attorney John Ditchburn, for Mrs. McKern. "No, I will not, for he is vicious," was the reply.

Mrs. Edward Davey told of a visit she paid to the McKern home in search for the canine. "Mrs. McKern told me first," said Mrs. Davey, "that this dog was born in St. Louis. Then she said it was born in Sellwood, and that the man who gave it to her was in Paris. She expected that he would return the following Friday. It was last March that I paid the visit, shortly before Mr. Wagner took the dog."

"Mrs. McKern said that this was a pedigreed dog, and that she had kept his pedigree. She would not say where she got the dog, explaining that she was a respectable married lady, and did not want her husband to know that she received a present from a man, but she said that if the worst came she would tell all about it. "You call it your dog, but in reality it is your husband's dog, is it not?" interrogated counsel. "No, indeed, it's my dog. What belongs to one belongs to the other, and what belongs to the other belongs to both. It's all in the family, you know."

Expert on Acid Burns.

Miss W. G. Hicks, Davey's niece, created considerable merriment by volunteering the information that she had an acid burn on her hand just like the one on the dog's nose. "Did you get it from the dog?" was asked. "No, from sulphuric acid at the high school."

Well, what has that to do with the dog?"

"Well, the acid burned clear to the bone, and I suppose it burned to the bone on the dog's nose." After a large portion of the Western Union force had testified that this is the particular dog which Davey had had for five years Judge Cleland took the case under advisement.

DRAKE SUES FOR ACCOUNTING

Partner Alleges M. B. Rankin Converted $70,000 to His Own Use.

That M. B. Rankin converted $70,000 to his own use from the real estate firm in which J. Francis Drake is said to be a partner is the allegation which was made in the suit filed yesterday in the Circuit Court. The suit was brought by Drake to have the partnership dissolved, an account had, a receiver appointed and the property sold and cash divided. In the meantime Drake sought an injunction to prevent Rankin from disposing of the property.

Drake said yesterday that he went into business with Rankin June 12, 1895. He said he has paid $3000 into the firm, and that the profits have amounted to $200,000. In addition to the firm's interest in land, land scrip and securities, Drake says that the value of the latter exceeds $100,000. He says he would not let him see the books, nor will he account for the funds. Judge Cleland took the case under advisement.

St. John Saloonman to Appeal.

Preliminary to an appeal to the Supreme Court from Judge Gantenben's decision in the St. John prohibition case, Ed Magoon's attorneys will argue on the demurrer of the County Commissioners this morning. Magoon, a St. John saloonkeeper, brought the suit in the Circuit Court to have the Commissioners enjoined from declaring St. John dry. The argument before Judge Gantenben on the demurrer is merely formal, and when the decision of the court is returned, will place the suit in shape so it can be appealed to the higher court.

Suit Over Violation of Building Law.

The suit of the city against James P. Jensen, on appeal from the Municipal Court, brought because Jensen is alleged to have violated an ordinance in enlarging a wood-frame building at 231 Madison street, was heard by Judge Bronaugh in the Circuit Court yesterday. The addition was made to the building last December. It is within the fire limits.

TRIXY COLE AGAIN FREED

Woman Is Twice Released After Being Found Guilty.

For the second time in less than a year, Trixy Cole, charged with being a disorderly person, has been allowed to depart from the police station without punishment, after having been found guilty by Municipal Court Judge Cameron. After a hearing, three times continued, the woman, recently arrested by Patrolman Harms while lounging and drinking in a saloon at Seventh and Burnside streets, was allowed her liberty yesterday morning for the reason, according to the court officers, that there are hundreds of others like her who are allowed to defy the law unmolested.

The Cole woman was first arrested last November, shortly after her arrival in Portland. She was arrested in the Richelieu Hotel, at Sixth and Couch streets, for making an assault on Mrs. T. J. McColligan, proprietress of the house. After a hearing in the Police Court, the woman was allowed to depart, being warned that she would be sent to jail or fined should she again cause the police trouble. When she was arrested last week and brought before Judge Cameron no mention of her past difficulty was made and she was given a partial hearing on three different days. After the evidence was all in, Judge Cameron decided that she was guilty, but again allowed her to go.

Contagious Blood Poison

BY

Dr. Taylor, the Leading Specialist

On account of its frightful hideousness Syphilis or Contagious Blood Poison is commonly called the king of all venereal diseases. It may be either hereditary or contracted. Once the system is tainted with it, the disease may manifest itself in the form of scrofula, eczema, rheumatic pains, stiff or swollen joints, eruptions or copper-colored spots on face or body, little ulcers in the mouth or on the tongue, sore throat, swollen tonsils, falling out of the hair or eyebrows, and, finally, a leprosy-like decay of the flesh and bones. If you have any of these or similar symptoms, you are cordially invited to consult me immediately. If I find your fears unfounded, I will quickly unburden your mind. But if your constitution is infected with poisonous virus I will tell you so frankly and show you how to get rid of it. My special treatment for Contagious Blood Poison is practically the result of my life-work, and is endorsed by the best physicians of America and Europe. It contains no dangerous drugs or injurious medicines of any kind. It goes to the very bottom of the disease and forces out every particle of impurity. Soon every sign and symptom of Contagious Blood Poison disappear completely and forever. The blood, the tissue, the flesh, the bones and the whole system are cleansed, purified and restored to perfect health, and the patient prepared anew for duties and pleasures of life.

Don't throw this announcement away. Cut it out; put it where you can find it, and if what I have to say to you today is not of GREAT interest, watch for another talk. I will, if you live out of the city, send you a valuable treatise; and if you can call I will give you in addition a beautifully engraved chart of the generative organs in three colors.
