

SPIRITUALISTS ON TRIAL IN OREGON

Effort to Suspend State Association Results in Heated All-Day Session.

LONG COMPLAINT IS FILED

Charges and Counter-Charges Are Made When Issues Are Presented Before Dr. G. C. Warne, National President.

Spiritualistic eyes of the world are centered on Portland during the trial of the Oregon State Spiritualist Association which began at 9 o'clock yesterday morning and continued until late in the evening.

Women Take Active Part.

It was with great difficulty that the presiding officer succeeded in quelling the riot of feminine expostulation when a witness for one faction said something which the other faction disagreed.

The trial is before the National Spiritualist Association on charges preferred by G. C. Love, missionary of the National association, residing at Lewis, for the dissolution of the Oregon State Spiritualist Association.

Another charge is that the state association permitted Mrs. Sophia B. Seip, through the Oregonian, to write a newspaper of this state, to threaten to drive Harrison D. Barrett from the city of Portland, without offering any compensation.

Dr. George C. Warne, president of the National Association of Spiritualists, is conducting the trial. He came from his home in Chicago especially for this purpose.

However, there is no doubt but that Dr. Warne favors the Cottell ordinance, recently passed by the city council, which prohibits certain clairvoyants and spiritualists from certain practices in which they formerly indulged.

Love Tries Own Case. Attorney John F. Watts is representing the defendant state organization, while Mr. J. H. Cottell is conducting the prosecution.

Forced to Take Law of Silence. Heartless Doctor Condemns Accomplished Linguist and Noted Talker to Indefinite Dumbness, so Dr. Galvani Uses Pad.

By ARTHUR A. GREENE. If you see a distinguished-looking man on the street today, a mild-mannered, pleasant-spoken, bookish-looking man, who is frantically endeavoring to master the sign language and weakly gasping at all out of turn with any language, you may be sure it is none other than the eminent Dr. Galvani, suddenly stricken dumb.

The story back of this catastrophe runs to a certain physician's door, who prescribed for Mr. Galvani's ailments, whatever they may be, absolute silence.

police and prepared to invade the house to capture White.

Before the arrival of the police, however, White started in pursuit of the woman and appeared in the doorway with revolver in hand.

On the arrival of the police the house was entered and White was found lying upon the bed with deep gash in his throat.

Friends of the two people living in the neighborhood said last night that White's residence at the Travis house had attracted considerable attention.

districted for the purpose of giving each supervisor, as near as possible, an equal area to oversee.

The name of the Heppner National forest that part of the Blue Mountain reserve which was attached to the Heppner territory last fall for administrative purposes will now be made permanent.

By taking this big slice from the Blue Mountain reserve, which has its headquarters at Heppner, and adding it to the Heppner territory the two reserves will be made nearer of a size.

The name of the Heppner National forest has been changed by the department, and after July 1 will be officially known as the Umatilla National forest.

Supervisor Childay states that there are many sheep and cowboys on the range, but owing to the increased territory and extra amount of work, it will be necessary to increase the force.

The Heppner National forest for the Heppner forest is filled and many applications were turned down because of insufficient range.

There are now in this reserve 10,000 sheep and 2,000 head of horses and cattle. The stock are being ranged on the lower mountains on good bunchgrass and will not be allowed to enter the high range until fall.

Superintendent Childay now has a crew of men fencing in favored spots of the reserve for the pasturing of the horses of the rangers and other Government employees.

An appropriation of $4000 has been asked for to carry out this work.

MEETING CALLED TO BEGIN WORK FOR APPROPRIATION.

Postal Card Notices Sent Out to Secure Large Attendance at Commercial Club Hall.

PORTLAND'S FUTURE AT STAKE. You are urged to be present at the convention hall of the Portland Commercial Club (sixth floor) Tuesday, June 30, at 8 P. M.

Postal card notices were received by numbers of Portland business men yesterday which called attention to a meeting in the convention hall of the Commercial Club for Tuesday night, June 30.

The card is headed "Portland's Future at Stake" and the card announces that "a matter more vital than any other to Portland's future is up for discussion."

There is nothing on the card to indicate the sender, and inquiry at the club and of officers of the organization failed to find a sponsor.

After a fine-toothed comb search among the members of the club, information finally was gleaned that the meeting is called to devise ways and means for again taking up the agitation for open river transportation on the Columbia River.

It is explained that it is desirable to begin work toward securing from Congress an appropriation for an amount sufficient to permit the progressing in removing obstructions to navigation, and to complete the canal at Celilo.

Other phases of the matter of open-river navigation, as distinguished from the various commercial bodies of Portland, are also mentioned in the card.

OLYMPIA, Wash., June 28.—(Special.)—Steps are to be taken by the State Tax Commission to have Frank C. Hedford, who escaped from the Medical Lake insane asylum eight years ago and has been missing since then, declared legally dead.

Hedford possessed property in Okanogan County worth $10,000 and if no heirs can be found the property will escheat to the state's permanent school fund.
