LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 26.—(Special.)—After pitching good ball for ten innings, Hosp and some of his men blew up badly in the fourteenth and Portland ran away with another game that should have gone to the locals by a score of 6 to 5 in nine innings, but was won by the Beavers by 9 to 5 in 14 innings. Rank errors by some of the locals and careless performances that resembled bone-heads account for the victory.

It was another game of hard batting and both Kinsella and Hosp were slugged around the lot. Another home run came to Raftery and, as luck would have it, there was a man on first base to chase in. Perrine was hooted for some of his rulings and the big crowd of 2000 took it out on Kinsella for deliberately passing Easterly twice to avoid a possible hit. These were wise acts, for Easterly had bumped the center fence with a double that scored two runs in the seventh, but the fans thought Kinsella was a cheap sport.

PORTLAND AGAIN LEADS.

By defeating Los Angeles in the third straight game McCredie's cohorts yesterday again attained the premier position in the race for the league pennant. The Portland sluggers have seemingly rounded to and are a most dangerous bunch when once they commence a batting rally. Let us hope that the boys will keep up the good work and return home in first place. After tomorrow's game Portland goes to San Francisco for a series of seven games with the Seals and then return home for a stay of four weeks.

Three singles scored the first Portland run, and a single and a homer the next two. A pass, steal, error and a single made the next one and in the fourteenth two singles, a double, a steal and three errors by Los Angeles made four runs.

Los Angeles scored its first on two singles, a steal and an error, and the next four on two doubles, three singles and a hit by pitcher.

Bernard's running catch of a short pop fly to right field and his resulting double play to Delmas was the fielding feature. The score:

Spokane 6; Aberdeen 3.

SPOKANE, Wash., June 26.—(Special.)—"Sailor" Roberts, a young semi-pro., won the game for Spokane when he batted for Killilay in the eighth, the bases full, one down and Aberdeen with the long end of the score. Roberts singled between first and second, scoring two runs. Clynes flew out and Hulen singled, scoring two more—Spokane 6, Aberdeen 3. Killilay pitched a good game for the Indians, but was relieved by Wright in the ninth, when Killilay showed signs of weakening. At no stage before the lucky eighth could the Indians find Califf to advantage, nine men being left on bases. Hulen made a sensational catch of a drive over first, catching Van Buren off third for a double. Stevens' error in right field and an unpopular decision by Frary at the plate counted two runs for the Black Cats in the sixth. Score:

Seattle 7; Tacoma 1.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 26.—(Special.)—Seattle did some great batting today in the eighth inning, and scored six runs off Baker, Tacoma's new southpaw. McKune led off with a hit and the next man was safe on a fielder's choice. Lussi sacrificed and Burnett's error allowed the first run to score. Graham fanned, but Fortier clouted the ball to center, and Allen, who followed, did the same thing, totaling four runs. Then Frisk drove the ball over the fence and brought Allen in ahead of him. Carey, the next man, hit but died. Allen allowed Lynch to score in the second by trying to run him down between third and home when two were out and he had an easy chance at first. A base on balls, a steal and Graham's hit gave Seattle her first run in the fourth. The score:

CARROLL IS BEATEN

Quits in Eleventh Round of Go With Jimmy Walsh.

LATTER IS FAR STRONGER

Cleverness in Early Rounds Does Not Avail Opponent—Jim Gardner Bests Kyle Whitney at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 26.—In the first of the main boxing events at the Coliseum tonight a scheduled 15-round bout between Jimmy Carroll and Jimmy Walsh, one of Carroll's seconds threw a towel into the ring in the 11th round and ended an uneven contest. Walsh was much the stronger of the two boys and was the aggressor throughout. Carroll showed much cleverness in the early rounds, but Walsh's superior strength finally wore him down. The men were billed to fight at 118 pounds, but Carroll looked much lighter.

The final event, a 15-round go between Jimmy Gardner, of Lowell, and Kyle Whitney a local colored boxer, was ended in the same manner as the first, by one of Whitney's seconds throwing a towel in the ring at the beginning of the 13th round to save his principal from further punishment. Whitney was the aggressor in the first eight rounds, the veteran contenting himself with allowing the ambitious colored man to wear himself out.

In the ninth round Gardner appeared to take new interest in the affair, and from then on until the 12th administered a severe beating to the colored boy. At the beginning of the 13th round Gardner swung a glancing blow to the local man's head and Whitney's second threw a towel into the ring to avoid further punishment.

FINALS IN LADD CUP

Wickersham Thought to Have Good Chance—Yesterday's Scores.

The finals in the tennis tournament to determine the ownership of the Ladd cup will be played today at 2 o'clock on the Multnomah Club courts. Brandt Wickersham has two legs on the cup, and if he wins today will become its owner. Wickersham has shown more improvement and played more consistently than any other man in the tournament, and if he wins, it will be because of this, for he has given heavy odds to every opponent. The public is invited to the finals, no charge being made. Yesterday's scores are as follows:

Wickersham (owe 30) beat Black (scratch) in three straight sets in 7-5, 6-2, 6-3, the upper half of the semi-finals. The first set was the only one in which Black had a chance. Black plays a steady, careful game and showed much good tennis, but his opponent's brilliant work won out. Bellinger (owe 15 1-6) beat Andrews (owe 4-6) 6-4, 6-1, 6-0, in a match replete with brilliant rallies, the veteran fighting to the last. Bellinger will meet his old opponent and partner in the finals. In the consolations, Farrell beat Failing 2-6, 6-4, 6-1. Webster beat Humphrey 6-4, 6-4. Finals in the doubles will start today at 4:30.
