FUNERAL OF MRS. MCCORKLE.—The funeral of Mrs. Emma Blanche McCorkle, wife of Dr. M. G. McCorkle, who died Tuesday night after a brief illness, was held yesterday morning in the Third Presbyterian Church. There was a large attendance. After musical selections by the choir, Rev. Andrew J. Montgomery, the pastor, spoke briefly, dwelling on the life of Mrs. McCorkle, pointing out that while in years her life had been short, yet her memory and influence would last for all time. At the conclusion of the services in the church, final rites were performed at Riverview Cemetery by the officers of Martha Washington Chapter, O. E. S. The pallbearers were: A. H. Lomax, H. Bittner, Herman Gordon, Emery Schmeer, Dr. Sandford Whiting and Dr. Edward Johnson. Rev. and Mrs. S. A. George, parents of Mrs. McCorkle, of Kelso, Wash., were present at the funeral.

HIBERNIAN PICNIC TOMORROW.—The annual picnic of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and Ladies' Auxiliary will be held tomorrow at Cedar Park. Dinner and luncheon will be served by the women. The following athletic events will be held, and special prizes will be given the winners: One hundred-yard dash, weight-throwing, girls' race, broad-jump, three-legged race, single men; driving the spike, married men; fat men's race, tug-of-war, East Side vs. West Side, boys' race, married women's race, single women's race, boys' race, under 12 years old, and children's race.

DR. LAPHAM TO SPEAK AGAIN.—Rev. S. C. Lapham, who has been delivering a series of sermons, on various cults and fads, will speak tomorrow night at the Second Baptist Church, East Ankeny and Seventh streets, on "The Psychology and Religion of Mrs. Eddy." Since his first and second sermons Dr. Lapham has been reviewed generally in the press, and some very severe criticisms have been published. In speaking of these reviews Dr. Lapham said: "I am not seeking notoriety out of these addresses, but I am trying to set forth the absolute truth as I see it."

CITY MAY GET DAMAGES.—The unwelcome subject of the arch of welcome came up before the session of the City Executive Board, yesterday afternoon, when a communication from City Attorney Kavanaugh was read, dealing with the legal phase of the case. The arch is located at Sixth and Irving streets, and was ordered finished in time for the Rose Festival, which opened June 1. It is not yet completed. Mr. Kavanaugh held that the city can collect any damages that may have resulted, the bondsmen being amenable.

REV. GEORGE W. FULTON, missionary from Kanazawa, Japan, will occupy the pulpit of the First Presbyterian Church, corner Alder and Twelfth streets, Sunday, both morning and evening. At 10:30 o'clock A. M., he will preach upon the subject, "The Christian Movement in Japan." At 7:45 P. M., his subject will be "Love Taketh Not Account of Evil."*

WILL FUMIGATE SCHOOLHOUSES.—Health Officer Pohl will today fumigate the Brooklyn and Clinton Kelly schoolhouses and then close the buildings for some time. Several light cases of smallpox have developed among pupils who attended the Brooklyn and Clinton Kelly schools. None of the cases is serious and all the patients are improving.

GRANGE MEETS WEDNESDAY.—As the Fourth of July comes next Saturday the Evening Star Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, will hold its regular meeting next Wednesday night instead of on Saturday. The Grange will convene at 7:30 P. M. The third and fourth degrees will be given, which will be followed by a patriotic programme.

"HEALTH AND HAPPINESS" will be Luther R. Dyott's topic, in the First Congregational Church, tomorrow at 11 A. M. At the "Pleasant Hour Service," at 7:45 P. M. Dr. Dyott will begin a series of sermons on "Themes for Thinkers." His special topic tomorrow evening being, "Choices in Life: What? Whom? When?"*

READY FOR LIGHTING BIDS.—The City Executive Board, at its meeting yesterday afternoon, ratified the action of the committee on lighting, and authorized the City Auditor to advertise for bids for public lighting for three and five years. This is in compliance with an ordinance passed by the Council three months ago.

WILL BE BURIED IN PORTLAND.—The funeral of Earle Camp, the 24-year-old son of J. J. Camp, who died at Seaside, Wash., June 24, will be held today at 1:30 P. M., at Dunning's undertaking chapel, 414 East Alder street. The young man was a brother of H. L. Camp of this city.

BUY BONDS WITH RELIEF FUND.—At the meeting of the City Executive Board yesterday afternoon, the police committee reported in favor of the purchase of $4000 worth of improvement bonds out of the police and fire relief fund, as an investment, and the Board confirmed the action.

LONG TRIP IN AUTOMOBILE.—Isaac Gratton and Fred Stranahan arrived this week from San Francisco in an automobile. They were 14 days in making the trip, as they made no effort to make speed, and fished along the road. Mr. Stranahan had been living in San Francisco for six years.

NAMED BY MAYOR LANE.—Mayor Lane yesterday morning appointed Orin Backus as a civil engineer in the office of Building Inspector Dobson, to fill a vacancy. The Executive Board confirmed the appointment at its meeting in the afternoon.

EPWORTH LEAGUE RALLY.—The members of the Epworth League chapters in Portland district will gather in a quarterly rally at Sunnyside Methodist Episcopal Church next Friday night. While it will be a district meeting, the programme and all of the details are in charge of the cabinet of Sunnyside chapter. What the programme contains is a strict secret, and no "outsider" is to be "let in" until the rally night. This will be the first quarterly rally of Portland District Epworth League. The plan, as adopted by the district cabinet, is to have these quarterly rallies at different churches, and for each chapter to plan a programme, aimed to be unique in all its features, each chapter endeavoring to outdo all previous affairs in point of novelty. The spirit of friendly rivalry will, it is believed, lead to great good. There are about 30 chapters in the district, and it is believed that the first quarterly rally will be largely attended.

TROUBLE FOR SHORT-CHANGE MEN.—Robert Fennel and Charles Aubray, two short-change artists, were each given a 90-day jail sentence and a heavy fine by Judge Cameron in Police Court yesterday morning. Fennel, who was the first of the pair arrested was fined $200 in addition to his jail sentence and his pal was fined $100. Fennel and Aubray are the two men who a few days ago attempted to play a short-change game on J. M. Burroughs, of Burroughs & Gault, grocers at Third and Clay streets. Burroughs became suspicious and made a grab for Fennel. Aubray got away, but Fennel was held until the arrival of the police, after putting up a fight in the store. Aubray was caught as a result of certain detectives following Charles Petrain, attorney for Fennel. Petrain was seen to meet Aubray and the police had no difficulty in placing him under arrest.

DEATH OF G. F. DASHIELL.—George F. Dashiell, of 993 East Eighth street, died at his residence yesterday morning of heart failure, aged 75 years. Mr. Dashiell was born in Morres' Hill, Ind. He enlisted in the Fourth Illinois Volunteer Cavalry, in 1861, and served for three years. At the close of the war he removed to Iowa where he engaged in farming and resided until 1885, when he came to Oregon, settling at Eugene. He has resided in Portland for the past 17 years. Mr. Dashiell is survived by his widow and one son, Charles I. Dashiell. He was a member of George Wright Post, G. A. R. and Woodlawn Lodge, No. 171, I. O. O. F. The funeral will be held this morning at 10 o'clock, from the family residence. The remains will be incinerated at the Portland Crematorium. The funeral services will be under the auspices of Woodlawn Lodge, No. 171, I. O. O. F.

DEPUTY FOR HUMANE SOCIETY.—The Oregon Humane Society, in a communication from Secretary Shanahan, asked the Executive Board yesterday afternoon to assign an additional officer to assist Humane Officer Crate. It is said the volume of business has grown to such an extent that one man is unable to take care of it. The letter was read just after the Board had adopted a report, assigning four detectives to patrol duty, who had been ordered reinstated by the Civil Service Commission. Mayor Lane facetiously asked: Can't we work off a detective on them." G. H. Ehmsen, a patrolmen of the department, was suggested for the place.

FIGHT FOR FRANCHISE.—The Portland Railway, Light & Power Company will fight for retention of its franchise, granted many years ago to the Portland Hydraulic Elevator Company, and since conveyed to the streetcar corporation. A special committee of Councilmen, appointed by Mayor Lane to investigate franchises, has recommended that this grant be revoked, on the ground that the old company has closed down. Yesterday, however, the streetcar company filed a conveyance, acknowledging ownership.

SIXTY TO JOIN KNIGHTS

Catholic Society Will Receive Large Class Into Membership.

Portland Council, No. 678, Knights of Columbus, will initiate a class of 60 candidates tomorrow, which will make it the strongest numerically and financially on the Pacific Coast. Dr. B. L. Norden, the territorial deputy, has arranged with the San Francisco and Oakland councils for a degree team to put on the work. It is expected 500 Knights will be in attendance. Large deiegations will come from other states and councils will be represented from Seattle, Tacoma, Bellingham, North Yakima and Vancouver. Oregon Knights will be present from the councils at Baker City, Astoria and Marshfield.

The Knights will assemble at 8:30 A. M. in the Holy Name hall, over the Pro-Cathedral, and will proceed to the Cathedral for solemn high mass. His Grace Archbishop Christie will preach the sermon. The first degree will be put on at 10:30 A. M., in the Masonic hall, Yamhill and West Park streets. The spacious and well appointed clubrooms at Taylor and Park streets will be headquarters for the Knights during their visit. At the close of the ceremonies the Knights and their visitors will be entertained at a banquet. The speakers will include Archbishop Christie, J. M. Gearin, City Attorney Kavanaugh, D. J. Malarkey and others.

NO REPLY TO DAVIS

Chamberlain Declines to Discuss His Politics.

SAYS POSITION IS KNOWN

Governor Declares He Will Resign if Congress Is Convened Next March, but Otherwise Will Not Leave Present Office.

"The people of the State of Oregon understood my politics and my position during the recent campaign," said Governor Chamberlain last night, when asked if he had any reply to make to the letter published in The Oregonian Thursday from Dr. L. M. Davis, Statement No. 1 Representative-elect from this county. "Aside from that I have nothing ot say."

In his public letter to the Governor, Dr. Davis referred to the fact that during the Senatorial campaign Governor Chamberlain proclaimed that he was a "Roosevelt Democrat" and the Representative-elect wanted to know if the statement was a sincere and truthful one or merely intended to catch the popular vote. Contending that there is no such party as Roosevelt Democrats, the inquisitive Legislator demanded that the Governor declare whether or not, if elected by the Legislature, he should adhere to his campaign declaration and "line up with Roosevelt principles and the Republican party?"

Since addressing the letter to Governor Chamberlain, Dr. Davis, in an interview, has expressly declared that he will not vote for a Democrat for United States Senator.

"I have no idea of what a Roosevelt Democrat is," the Representative-elect is quoted as saying. "Neither does the term 'non-partisan' carry any meaning with me. In the National Congress there are only two parties—Republicans and Democrats—and what I want to find out is the real position of Governor Chamberlain with reference to those political parties."

If Governor Chamberlain is elected Senator by the Legislature next Winter and should Congress be convened March 4, next, he will resign as Governor in order to assume his larger duties at Washington. But until there is a session of the National lawmakers, it is the intention of the Governor to retain his present office.

"As United States Senator-elect I certainly should resign as Governor so as to attend Congress should it convene next March," replied Governor Chamberlain, in discussing the subject yesterday. "I most assuredly would not neglect my duties as a member of the Senate. But until my duties require my presence at Congress, I expect to continue to serve as Governor. It will only be the convening of Congress that will cause me to resign as Governor."

GEORGE S. BEAL IS DEAD

Well-Known Salmon Packer Expires From Heart Disease.

George S. Beal died at Pillar Rock, Wash., last Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. While sitting in a chair in the act of taking off his shoes he fell to the floor dead, heart disease being the cause. For the past 21 years he has been superintendent and manager of the Pillar Rock Packing Company's salmon cannery and was considered by many the best salmon packer on the Columbia River.

He was born in Alnwick, Northumberland County, England, 44 years ago, came to this country in 1887 and has since been a permanent resident of this city when not employed in the cannery business. Although not a member he was a faithful attendant at Taylor-street Methodist Episcopal Church and for his lovable, charitable and unselfish disposition will be greatly mourned by his many friends. His employers keenly feel the loss of a trusted, faithful and competent manager.

The Late George S. Beal.

Mr. Beal was unmarried and is survived by two brothers and two sisters, one of whom is Mrs. J. T. M. Harrington, who will share a large estate which he accumulated. The funeral will be held from Finley's undertaking parlors, Sunday at 2:30 P. M.

Dufur Files Counter Suit.

V. S. Hardy recently filed suit in the Circuit Court against D. S. Dufur to obtain $455 on a note made in San Francisco April 5, 1906, in Hardy's favor, but alleged to be unpaid. Dufur, however, in an answer and cross-complaint, filed yesterday morning, goes Hardy one better by demanding $10,910.50 damages for breaking faith with him. Dufur says he is the inventor of a typewriter carriage device. He entered into a contract with Hardy by which the latter was to manufacture and exploit the invention. To help Hardy in this the inventor says he spent $910.50, which was to be repaid. But Hardy, untrue to his contract, it is asserted, employed one Yaw, a mechanic, to make changes in Dufur's invention so that it could be manufactured without the payment of royalty to Dufur. The latter values the broken contract at $10,000.

SNEAK THIEVES SENTENCED

Williams and Ferguson to Spend Four Years in Jail.

C. Williams and E. D. Ferguson, alias E. D. Snyder, the daylight burglars, who committed between 50 and 100 thefts in four afternoons, were sentenced by Judge Gantenbein, in the Circuit Court, yesterday afternoon, to serve four years each in the Penitentiary. Williams, the spokesman for the pair, made a plea for mercy, saying this was the first time he had ever been in trouble, and that he only resorted to stealing after he had looked in vain for employment.

"I quit a good job to come out here and get work," Williams told the court. "I tried hard to get a job here, but couldn't find any."

"Did you make application for aid to the Associated Charities, or other public institution?" asked the court.

"No, I didn't, but I have only been married a little while and I was going to get some money to bring my wife out and settle down."

The thieves came to Portland from Seattle and have been here only about two weeks.

Detective Tichenor told the court that the burglars had taken the officers to the pawnshop and that nearly all the stolen articles had been located.

The particular charge on which the sentence was passed was that of stealing 50 souvenir silver spoons and about $18 in cash, June 22, from the room of Myrtle Hunt, at Elton Court, 416 Yamhill street. The minimum sentence is one year and the maximum seven years. Both burglars pleaded guilty and said they were ready to have sentence pronounced at once.

SAYS SHIPMENTS WERE SHORT

E. T. Williams & Co. Sued by Shanghai Firm.

A suit for $13,229.54 and interest, alleged to be due on shipments of lumber to Shanghai, China, came to a hearing before Judge Cleland in the Circuit Court yesterday afternoon. It is that of Reginald Herbert Dickeson and Cromwell Walter Jones, of Dickeson, Jones & Co., against E. T. Williams, of E. T. Williams & Co. It is charged that much of the lumber shipped was shorter than that called for in the contracts, four of which were entered into.

September 30, 1906, the Williams Company agreed to furnish 1,986,826 pieces of lumber from 16 to 80 feet long at $23.75 a thousand feet. This lumber was to be shipped on the steamer Tiberius. It is alleged that 2,325,593 pieces were shipped, but that a large portion of the lumber was in short pieces.

The second shipment was ordered January 19, 1907, and called for 1,000,000 pieces from 16 to 70 feet long. Only 622,706 pieces were shipped, it is alleged. The defendant firm drew on the Dickeson Company for $48,294.04. The latter firm says only $43,784.04 was due.

Another order, placed in January, 1907, called for a shipment of 3,000,000 feet at $23.50 a thousand. An excess of 194,000 feet was shipped, it is asserted. The lumber went to the consignees on the steamer Straithayre. It dropped in price $3 a thousand between the sailing day and the date of receipt. As a result the plaintiff demands $582, the difference in price on the 194,000 feet excess. The company also demands $3039.91, a portion of a commission obtained by the Williams Company, making in all $3621.91 on this shipment.

A fourth shipment of 3,460,000 pieces was also ordered in January, 1907. These were to be between 16 and 80 feet in length. It is asserted that 3,290,263 pieces were shipped, but that the Williams Company issued a draft for $55,377.30, making the statement that the entire order had been filled per contract. The draft is said by the Dickeson Company to have been $5107.63 higher than it should have been.

The Williams Company asserts in defense that the orders were filled according to the contracts, and that there is nothing due the Shanghai firm.

THREE SENT TO PENITENTIARY

McMurray Will Serve Two Years for Stealing Clothes.

Mike McMurray, who stole the clothing of Harry Schoof from his room at 453 Morrison street, changed his plea of not guilty to one of guilty in the Circuit Court yesterday afternoon. Judge Gantenbein sentenced him to serve two years in the Penitentiary. The theft was committed May 26.

Arthur Flood and W. Shirley, jointly charged with larceny, were sentenced to serve two years each in the Penitentiary. They stole 30 pearl-handled knives and 10 razors from J. A. White at 394 Morrison street, April 30.

$20,455 for Heirs of James Wilson.

The heirs of the James Wilson estate have received $20,455.33, according to the final account filed in the County Court yesterday by E. A. Holcomb, the executor. The entire receipts from the estate were $23,169.70, of which $800 was from real estate. Bequests were paid by the executor to the heirs, as follows: Telitha J. Wilson, widow, $7000; Mary C. Peters, $1500; James A. Wilson, $1500; I. H. Wilson, $1000; Walter W. Wilson, $1000; Telitha J. Holcomb, $8455.33. The court has set July 27 as the date for the final hearing.

MEMBERS OF KELLY CLAN WILL GATHER AT HILLSDALE TODAY

Descendants of Oregon Pioneers Who Came Here From Kentucky Will Hold Annual Reunion at Home of Dr. O. P. S. Plummer.

THE Kellys of the Pacific Coast, mainly the descendants of four well-known Oregon pioneers, have set apart the last Saturday in June of each year for the annual reunion of the families of the clan. That event, which is looked forward to by the members of the clan each year with growing interest, will be held today at the home of Mrs. Dr. O. P. S. Plummer, at Hillsdale. Since the first meeting of the clan, several of the leaders have passed, notably Mrs. Sarah Kern and Plympton Kelly.

The original Oregon pioneers were Clinton Kelly, who owned the land now known as the Waverly-Richmond and Kenilworth tracts; Thomas Kelly, who lived in Klickitat County, Wash.; Albert Kelly, who settled at Hillsdale, and Archon Kelly, who settled near Pleasant Home, on the Powell road. Clinton and Thomas Kelly came to Oregon in 1848 from Kentucky. Clinton Kelly was a preacher and hauled the timbers and helped erect the first church building in Portland. It is estimated that the Kelly clan now numbers about 200 in Oregon, Washington and California.

The annual reunions are held at the homes of members of the clan. The committee of arrangements has looked after the feast this year, which will be the crowning feature of the reunion. Weather permitting, the tables will be spread under the trees. The viands will be prepared by the women of the clan. Letters are read from the absent ones, reminiscences given, and the record of marriages, births and deaths are read by the secretary. The reunions always close by singing "My Old Kentucky Home."
