

OHIO REPUBLICANS PLEAD FOR VORYS

Urge Taft to Consider Him for Chairman of National Committee.

CONFERENCE IS ARRANGED

Candidate for Campaign Manager Coming to Washington to Present Claims—War Secretary Busy Closing Up Official Affairs.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—Secretary Taft today successfully combined his official duties with politics. His diversified abilities never had a better illustration than they had from 11 o'clock this morning until 6 o'clock tonight. At intervals during that period he discussed the most intricate problems arising in the War Department and conferred with political friends and advisers respecting the most delicate affairs of the approaching political campaign.

By far the most important conference of the day in genuine interest was that which he had this afternoon with a delegation representing the political organization of the Republican party in his home state of Ohio. Walter Brown, chairman of the Republican state central committee; Henry Williams, chairman of the Republican state executive committee; and N. A. Gilbert, State Auditor, came to Washington to urge Secretary Taft favorably to consider Arthur Vorys in the selection of a National chairman.

Fear Results in Ohio.

They discussed the matter with Secretary Taft at considerable length, indicating to him that the appointment of Mr. Vorys meant much to the Republican organization in Ohio. They expressed an apprehension that the selection of Mr. Hitchcock, for instance, or almost anybody else than Mr. Vorys, might tend to disrupt the organization in Ohio, which largely had been built by Mr. Vorys.

At the conclusion of the conference, although Secretary Taft did not indicate to the delegation what his intentions were, he authorized the members to telegraph to Mr. Vorys requesting him to come to Washington and meet him on next Wednesday. Secretary Taft, who was asked this evening what might likely be the nature of the conference with Mr. Vorys, replied laughingly, "Well, fancy we shall talk some politics, even though the weather be hot."

"When will you see Mr. Hitchcock?" the Secretary was asked.

Hitchcock Must Wait.

"I understand," he replied, "that Mr. Hitchcock is in the city, but I have not seen him and I am not sure he is. I am a private citizen. Tomorrow I shall be so deeply engaged with the departmental matters which I am trying to clear up for my successor, Governor Wright, that I shall have little time to devote to personal or political matters."

Then, turning to Governor Wright, Secretary Taft said, "I am glad to see you, Governor Wright. General, but that is merely a polite title. He is really a Governor, and after next Wednesday General will have no more to do with me. I have directed that all the bureau and division chiefs of the War Department shall meet here to greet the new Secretary of War. The Army officers will be expected to appear in full uniform."

"That direction has been given," suggested the Secretary, "in an order that I may make myself solid with the military vote."

Hitchcock in Washington.

Frank H. Hitchcock, secretary Taft's Washington manager, arrived here today from Chicago and will be engaged for several days in the work of closing up the Taft headquarters in this city. Mr. Hitchcock declined to discuss for publication the National chairmanship question. He said he expected to have a conference with Secretary Taft in the day or two, but pending the interview he could say nothing.

Every effort was made to learn something definite respecting the choice of a National chairman, but Secretary Taft himself this afternoon said: "No announcement concerning the National chairmanship will be made until I have conferred further with the subcommittee of the National committee. That conference will be held at Hot Springs, Va. Mrs. Taft has informed me that she will be ready to leave Washington for Hot Springs next Friday. I shall, therefore, notify the members of the subcommittee to meet me there on July 8. The chairmanship matter will be determined then, and not before then."

Among the big news items which the Secretary was confronted today was the signing of thousands of letters in response to congratulatory letters.

Wright Looks Over Job.

General Wright, who arrived from New York late last night, appeared at the War Department shortly after 10 o'clock today and had conferred with General J. Franklin Bell, chief of staff, and General Clarence R. Edwards, chief of the Bureau of Insular Affairs.

"I understand," said General Wright, "that this position of Secretary of War is something of a job, and I propose to try to familiarize myself with its details. I do not expect to take a vacation in the ordinary sense of the term, but will remain right here during the greater part of the summer. Mrs. Wright will remain at Memphis for a few weeks, and then will go to the home of our daughter up in New York State. I may join her for a brief period."

Prefers Seats to Scenery.

The committee on convention arrangements paid a visit today to the Auditorium, which was being prepared for the convention. The committee is increasing the seating capacity of the hall is concerned, but which brought two to Mr. Willison, the architect. The gentleman, with a keen professional eye to the beauty and finished character of his work, had arranged the seating capacity in such a way as to produce the most pleasing effect to the eye of the spectator. In so doing, however, he had left a considerable amount of vacant floor space, much of which was in excess of the seating capacity. When the members of the committee visited the hall today, their eyes at once fastened upon this extent of empty floor. Roger C. Sullivan, of Illinois, at once asked why more chairs could not be placed.

Over 1000 Seats Added.

Mr. Sullivan in the opinion that what the committee desired was seats, seats and then more seats, and that scenic effect could take its chance or betake itself to any place it might choose to go. The other members of the committee, whose lives are made a burden by the unceasing demand for tickets, cordially supported the criticism, and contentions of Mr. Sullivan and the net result was that the seating capacity of the hall was at once increased from the original number of 1,538 to more than 2,700. The members of the committee are now poring over the blue prints in the effort to see if they cannot still further increase the possible number of admissions. The alterations suggested today also resulted in allowing 75 additional seats for members of the press.

Denver Given Plenty.

The local committee on convention arrangements, headed by Mayor R. W. Speer and C. W. Franklin and C. M. Day, members of the Denver Convention League, held a conference today with the National committee relative to the number of seats to be allowed to the people of Denver. They were given the assurance that the city people would be amply provided for.

TALK OVER DENVER PLATFORM

W. W. Black, of Everett, Wash., Confers With Bryan.

LINCOLN, Neb., June 29.—After an hour's visit with William J. Bryan, Judge W. W. Black, of Everett, Wash., delegate to the Democratic National convention, declared that he believed the National platform would contain a strong anti-injunction plank. The plank in the Republican platform is considered weak by both the corporations and the laboring men according to Judge Black, but the Democratic platform will speak in no uncertain terms, he believes.

GRAY MEN VISIT COMMONER

Believe Bryan's Strength Overestimated—Injunction Is Talked.

LINCOLN, Neb., June 29.—The managers of Judge George Gray's Presidential canvass, Josiah Marvel, of Wilmington, Del., and J. R. Beamish, of Philadelphia, arrived in Lincoln this afternoon and paid a promised visit to Mr. Bryan. The two gentlemen were frank in declaring they were doing no missionary work for the Nebraska candidate, but they believed Judge Gray had a chance to win and they were working hard to that end. Their feeling for Mr. Bryan, they said, was cordial, but Mr. Marvel said he was sure Mr. Bryan's friends were counting on more votes than they actually had. The strength of Governor Johnson, Mr. Marvel thought, had been underestimated, but he did not consider Mr. Johnson as serious a rival of Mr. Bryan as was Judge Gray.

D. B. HILL DENIES INTERVIEWS

Says Did Not Call Johnson "Poor-house Candidate."

ALBANY, N. Y., June 29.—Albert E. Hoyt, editor of the Argus, received from Paris today the following cablegram from Governor David B. Hill, referring to an interview which was published widely as coming from Mr. Hill on the day he sailed for Europe. In this interview, Mr. Hill was quoted as referring to Governor Johnson as "the poor-house candidate," criticizing Mr. Bryan and saying that "there is no Democratic party."

"Attention just called to alleged political interviews in American newspapers published after my departure. They are fictitious. I authorize you to deny same through the Associated Press and otherwise."

S.S.S. A CURE FOR RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism is caused by an excess of uric acid in the blood, which is carried through the circulation to all portions of the system. Every muscle, nerve, bone and joint absorbs the acid, pain-producing poison, causing aches, inflammation, stiffness and other well known symptoms of the disease. Permanent relief from the pains and discomfort of Rheumatism cannot be expected from the use of liniments, plasters, and other external treatment which does not reach the blood, where the cause is located. Such measures give temporary relief, but in order to cure Rheumatism the uric acid and inflammatory poison must be expelled from the blood. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism because it is a perfect blood purifier. It goes down into the circulation, neutralizes the uric acid and drives it from the blood. S. S. S. expels the irritating, inflammatory matter which is causing the pain, swelling and other discomfort, enriches the weak, sour blood, and permanently cures Rheumatism. In all forms of Rheumatism, whether acute or chronic, S. S. S. will be found a safe, vegetable remedy, possessing the properties needed to cure, and at the same time a medicine that builds up the entire system by its fine tonic effects. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free to all who write. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.
