Robert Mantell as "King Lear" at the Heilig

CAST OF CHARACTERS. Lear.....Mr. Mantell. Gloucester.....Walter Campbell

WHEN Robert Mantell mounted to the very pinnacle of the tragedian's art in the course of King Lear at the Heilig last night

Students of the play will find Mr. Mantell's conception, reading, expression, an actor one might choose as an ideal one to play Britain's mad old King

While at no time does the elaborateness of the Brady production obtrude itself, it is wonderfully well done

THE comedy-drama, "A Hero in Rags," is the vehicle which the Blunkall-Atwood Company opened another successful week at the Heilig Theater last night
