

ORCHARD TO LIVE AGAINST HIS WILL

Idaho Board of Pardons Commutes Death Sentence to Life Imprisonment.

WANTS TO EXPIATE CRIMES

Protests Against Efforts to Have Penalty Set Aside - Clemency Recommended by Judge in Passing Sentence.

BOISE, Idaho, July 1.—Harry Orchard's desire to hang was frustrated by the Idaho Board of Pardons today before noon.

The board is said to have been influenced by three motives: The fullness of Orchard's confession and the consequences of his alleged exposure, the recommendation of Judge Wood in passing sentence of execution said Orchard certainly should not pay the extreme penalty in view of the disclosures he had made.

The board consists of Governor Gooding, Secretary of State Landon and Attorney-General Guheen. Frank Wyman, appointed by the court to represent Orchard, appeared before the board and presented a formal argument in behalf of his client, basing his plea solely on the legal status of the case, and maintaining, as was held by Judge Wood, that the board has no authority in making a state's witness, the state obligated itself to extend clemency to him in return.

Orchard Wants to Be Hanged.

Orchard to the last was opposed to having the sentence of the court interfered with. Only yesterday he expressed his regret that he had made the efforts to save him from the gallows would fail.

Orchard was arrested two days after the completion of an execution of Stuenberg at Caldwell, Idaho, December 30, 1905, and a few weeks later, while confined in the Idaho penitentiary confessed his guilt to James McCann, of the Pinkerton detective agency, at the same time asserting that he was employed to commit the crime by officers of the Western Federation of Miners, another member of the Federation, also indicted, escaped and is still a fugitive. Haywood and Pettibone were arrested in Denver and brought to Idaho to answer the charge of murder. John Simpkins, another member of the Federation, also indicted, escaped and is still a fugitive. Haywood and Pettibone were acquitted after memorable trials in which Orchard told a story of wholesale assassination which shocked the world.

Sentenced With Recommendation.

Following the trial of Pettibone the case against Moyer was dismissed. Orchard, who was indicted separately, when arraigned after his confession, stood mute and the court directed that a plea of not guilty be entered. His case was continued from term to term until April 10 of this year, when it was called at Caldwell and he asked permission to change his plea. The court granted the request and Orchard pleaded guilty to murder in the first degree.

In pronouncing the sentence of death a week later, Judge Wood recommended that the Board of Pardons commute the sentence, saying he was fully convinced that Orchard had told the whole and exact truth at the trial. He was therefore, for the service he had rendered the state, entitled to clemency.

CEMENT DITCH TO PROTECT

Government Project at Echo to Keep 200 Men Busy.

ECHO, Or., July 1.—(Special).—M. A. Kirtley, who has charge of the government project at this place, has six carloads of cement stored here, to use on the Government ditch. The first carload of gravel and sand arrived yesterday from Umatilla 18 miles from here, and work will begin at once. About 5000 lineal feet will be cemented, at a cost of $50,000.

This is a force contract by the Government to protect the O. R. & N. track, which runs parallel to and just below the ditch. The work begins at a point about one mile below town. The seepage of water necessitates this work, as it endangers the track. While the reservoir was being filled it was necessary to employ ditch-walkers and even then there were three serious breaks in the ditch. At one time two men were killed, twice the railroad track was washed out, the last time a train wreck was narrowly averted. Now as the reservoir has been filled, the water is turned off, and the ditch will be cemented in a substantial and permanent manner. It is estimated that it will require a force of 200 men for a period of not less than two months to complete the work.

Mahoney Succeeds Conser.

HEPPNER, Or., July 1.—(Special).—At a meeting of the directors of the First National Bank of this city today, T. J. Mahoney, cashier of the Bank of Ione, was elected cashier. Mr. Mahoney will enter at once upon his duties as successor of George Conser, deceased, and will bring his family here from Ione.

Murder Charge Dismissed.

BELLINGHAM, Wash., July 1.—The murder charge against Mary E. Eggleston, who on June 18 shot her husband to death before her children's eyes, was dismissed today by Prosecutor Peringer. The woman's defense was self-defense, and the prosecution decided it could not make out a case against her.

Killing Off Squirrels.

ECHO, Or., July 1.—(Special).—A number of farmers in the vicinity of Echo are exterminating the squirrels by giving them a dose received from the Department of Agriculture at Washington, D. C., which spreads a fatal disease among them. The department distributes this free.

BIGGEST FOURTH IN BAKER

Three Days' Celebration of "Jubilee" to Be by Home Talent.

BAKER CITY, Or., July 1.—(Special).—The biggest celebration of July Fourth ever held in Baker City will be held this year in what is known as a July Jubilee lasting for three days beginning July 2 and closing on July 4.

The festival is to be by home talent. The north end of Main street for two blocks has been given over to the celebration and a number of trees have been brought in and replanted in that portion of the precinct.

At midnight last night, in accordance with the local option law, all saloons in Douglas County were closed. It was expected that a last good time would be indulged in at that time in Roseburg, but all saloons were quietly and promptly closed at 12 o'clock, only four arrests being made during the entire evening.

Although all saloons are closed, Roseburg citizens who love the flowing bowl still by no means go without, as the Roseburg brewery has contracted with all so wishing to supply them with a certain amount of beer regularly for a period of several years. The contracts were made before June 30 and the brewery acts as the storage agent for the contractor, allowing the latter to draw out any amount at any time.

The brewery also manufactures "near-beer," which will be on sale at all soft drink establishments. Several government licenses have also been issued in Douglas County, evidence that Roseburg will have a few blind pigs. The vacated saloon buildings have mostly all been rented for other purposes, mainly for soft drink establishments.

PASS ON RIGHTS OF WAY

Jury Called to Take Up Oregon Electric Cases.

HILLSBORO, Or., July 1.—(Special).—Owing to the many condemnation suits or rights of way, filed by the Oregon Electric, and the desire of the company to have matters settled so that the line between Portland and this city may be completed before bad weather, Judge McBride has made an order calling a jury for the equity term of Circuit Court, which will convene here July 20.

TWICE MARRIED IN DAY

County Justice Makes Error, Which He Quickly Rectifies.

HILLSBORO, Or., July 1.—(Special).—The unusual experience of a couple going through two marriage ceremonies on the same day happened in this county today. Samuel Smith and Miss Mabel Grove, of Gales Creek, an outlying precinct, came to the city today, bringing with them on their 20-mile trip J. W. McRobert, the Gales Creek Justice of the Peace. After procuring a marriage license, the party repaired to the Hotel Paxton, where McRobert performed the ceremony. The Justice then went to the Courthouse to file the marriage, when he was told by County Clerk Adams that a Justice could marry people only in his jurisdiction, which would be within the boundaries of his precinct. McRobert soon gathered in the couple and they proceeded 19 miles to Gales Creek, where another ceremony was performed.

SLAYER PHYSICAL WRECK

Anderson, Who Killed Mrs. Gordon, Cannot Live Out Term.

MARSHFIELD, Or., July 1.—(Special).—Holland Anderson, the bartender who was sentenced to five years in the Penitentiary for shooting and killing Mrs. Edward Sam Gordon in Marshfield on May 9, has been taken to the Penitentiary. It is stated by physicians who have been attending him since his confinement in the County Jail that he is a physical wreck and that he cannot live out his sentence. He is suffering from heart and lung trouble and it is not believed that he can survive for more than a few months or a year at best if confined in the Penitentiary.

DELAYED BY AN INJUNCTION

Independence Still Wet, While Rest of County Is Closed.

DALLAS, Or., July 1.—(Special).—Prohibition took effect in every precinct of Polk County, excepting the city of Independence, at 10 o'clock last night. The injunction filed yesterday by J. R. Cooper, a saloonkeeper of Independence, preventing the law from being enforced in that city until the case can be heard before Judge Galloway in Salem tomorrow. The change from wet-to-dry took place

Coo-Se-I joined the Indian school at Chemawa, near Ione, under his real name.

SEATTLE IN DIVORCE SUIT

Complaining Wife Makes City Party Defendant to Case.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 1.—(Special).—Andrew H. Stay and the City of Seattle are made defendants in the suit for divorce filed today in the Superior Court by Sarah L. Stay, Andrew's wife. This is the first time the city has ever figured in a divorce suit, and the papers served on Mayor John F. Miller, set forth many reasons why the decree should be granted. The city became a defendant by reason of the fact that the Stays have been awarded $3500 damages for property condemned by the municipality. Both husband and wife are after the amount of $2500 each in public lands in connection with this judgment, and Mrs. Stay makes in order that she may be awarded a part of all of the condemnation award.

VACANT LAND AREA LESS

Yakima District Report Shows That Claims Being Taken Up.

NORTH YAKIMA, July 1.—(Special).—The annual report of the United States Land Office in the Yakima district shows that in Yakima County the area of vacant public land has been reduced to 126,072 acres, a large part of which is situated in the reservation. The area of unallotted land in Kittitas County is 15,000 acres, and in Benton County there is but 27,962 acres unallotted and in Douglas County, 15,000. During the year which closed yesterday 478 homesteads were taken up and these, together with desert land claims, account for 120,000 acres entered upon during the year.

REDUCTION OF ONE-FOURTH

Washington County Valuations to Undergo Decrease.

HILLSBORO, Or., July 1.—(Special).—Assessor Wilcox today stated that the Washington County assessment roll for the current year will suffer a flat reduction of over 25 per cent on all realty values and that a big reduction will be made on timber assessments. He thinks that the entire roll will be about $11,000,000, against $15,000,000 for 1907. Standing timber will be valued at $2,000,000 in 1908, as against $4,500,000 for 1907. Timber land was last year assessed at $5 per acre, and this year will be cut to $3 per acre.

Gravity System for La Grande.

LA GRANDE, Or., July 1.—(Special).—A business man of Kansas City is in La Grande today arranging with the Council to put in a water system that will take its supply from Upper Creek, a cool mountain stream 18 miles away. He is willing to take city bonds in payment. The city voted on this matter a year ago, but the charter was faulty, no bonds could be floated at that time, and the proposition was deferred. A new charter is now in force.

quietly in Dallas, and the city passed into the new regime with comparatively no change in the ordinary activities. Every saloon in the city has been closed and several of the proprietors have secured establishments in Lincoln and Marion Counties already. The saloonkeepers of Independence, however, hope to keep that in the wet column, through the same grounds that were recently urged in the Medford injunction case.

DAYTON COMMERCIAL CLUB

New Organization to Boom Yamhill County Town.

DAYTON, Or., July 1.—(Special).—One of the most enthusiastic and best attended meetings ever held in Dayton was the one Tuesday night at which an organization to be known as the Dayton Commercial Club was perfected. The meeting was given in the form of an entertainment to which every person in this vicinity was invited, and they turned out in full force. The big hall in the new brick block was filled to overflowing. The stage was appropriately decorated with flowers and bunting. A good programme was rendered, which consisted of music by Clark's orchestra, a number of songs by M. O. Lowndale, and short but pointed talks by Messrs. Macy, Wortman, Lewis, Vinton and Hodson, of McMinnville; M. O. Lowndale, of Lafayette, and R. L. Harris, of this city.

The object of this organization, aside from its local duties, is to work in harmony with the Yamhill County Development League, of which Mr. Lowndale is secretary and manager. The Dayton Commercial Club starts out as a good solid membership and will be a valuable factor in aiding the County League in whatever it undertakes.

SAMUEL COULTER DEAD

Well-Known Pioneer of Oregon Passes Away in Seattle.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 1.—(Special).—Samuel Coulter, a pioneer of Washington and Oregon, who crossed the plains, driving an ox-team in 1850, died here today at the age of 76 years. When Mr. Coulter arrived at Oregon City, September 18, 1850, he had only $2, but within a few years accumulated a comfortable fortune. He arrived in West when the California gold excitement was at its height, and he tried his hand at mining, but soon returned to Oregon and engaged in the sawmill business. From there he moved to Olympia, Wash., and took up a claim. In 1871 he was appointed by President Grant to the position of Collector of Internal Revenue for the District of Washington, and in 1872 entered the steamboat business. In 1878, with C. P. Church, he built the Edmond Hotel in Portland. In the following year he was one of a company of men to build a road to the North Pacific coast from Cheney to Spokane. Later he operated the Bucoda coal mines in Thurston County, Wash. He leaves a widow and two sons.

COD BANKS TO BE WORKED SYSTEMATICALLY.

Newport Firm Buys Vessel and Will Start Operations at Once—Others Soon to Follow.

NEWPORT, June 26.—(Special).—Announcement has just been made here of the formation of a new firm, Voeth & Hembree, which will operate gas seacooners to the big banks lying just off Yaquina bar. The new firm has already procured a hull in Portland which is to be fitted with engines of a late pattern and put in commission out of Newport. Some years ago the United States Fish Commission steamer Albatross spent some time in surveying the cod banks lying just southwest of Yaquina Bay. The report of the Fish Commission was that the banks were extensive and that both cod and halibut were to be found on them in great quantities. This report stirred up considerable speculation but it came to little. The fishing done so far has been by small boats and has continued during only a small part of the summer.

The new enterprise is but one of several now under way. It is understood that the J. M. Alexander Company, of Aberdeen, is expecting soon to put one or more vessels into the business out of this bay and at least two other firms are busily looking over the ground with a view to erecting large cold storage plants for the handling of cod and halibut.

Voeth & Hembree expect to be in active business within a month and promise to enlarge their facilities just as fast as possible. The depth on Yaquina bar is now 12 feet at dead low water and the entrance now regarded as feasible for staunch craft at any season of the year. The new boat will be of light draft and heavy power. The market for fish is good throughout the valley and contracts have already been made for a catch of two tons a day.

NORTHWEST DEATH RECORD

G. H. Daniels, Railroad Man.

LAKE PLACID, N. Y., July 1.—George H. Daniels, formerly general passenger agent of the New York Central Railroad, died here today, aged 66 years. He was a native of Hampshire, Ill., and began his railroad service as a rodman in the engineer corps of the Northern Missouri Railroad. After a varied service in railroad work, he became general passenger agent of the New York Central in 1889 and was retained in that position until 1906, when he was made passenger traffic manager of the New York Central.

The General Demand of the Well-Informed of the World has always been for a simple, pleasant and efficient liquid laxative remedy of known value; a laxative which physicians could sanction for family use because its component parts are known to them to be wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, acceptable to the system and gentle, yet prompt, in action.

In supplying that demand with its excellent combination of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, the California Fig Syrup Co. proceeds along ethical lines and relies on the merits of the laxative for its remarkable success.

That is one of many reasons why Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is given the preference by the Well-Informed. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by all leading druggists. Price fifty cents per bottle.
