PARKER TAKES BOMB

His Proposed Cleveland Memorial Starts Row.

HOT WORDS BEING HURLED

Henry Watterson Characterizes Parker's Action as Infamous and Gives Vent to Feelings in Strong Language.

Democratic National convention in adjournment out of respect to Mr. Cleveland's memory should follow Mr. Bryan's example.

Try to Snuff Out Parker.

The publication of the Parker resolution was a bombshell exploding in the midst of the Bryan followers, and steps were taken by members of the committee on convention arrangements to head off its introduction in the convention. They were unanimously of the opinion that it would provoke a discussion and possibly a fight, which they desired to avoid. Several members of the committee, who did not care to be publicly quoted, did not hesitate to say, however, that in their opinion an argument in the convention over such a resolution as this would be disgraceful and injure the party in the eyes of the country.

should be paid the highest possible tribute. He had not read the Parker resolution, and he said his attention had not been called to the wisdom of adopting it. After reading the resolution with great care, Mr. Marvel said he thought it open to criticism, and that a resolution which did not take up issues over which there had been or was likely to be bitterness would answer the purpose far better and be eminently more just to the record of Mr. Cleveland.

More emphatic than all these men was Judge Wade, of Iowa. He said that every proposition in the Cleveland resolution which might give rise to controversy should be "pulled out by the roots." Continuing, he said: "If the friends and the enemies of Mr. Bryan threaten to dispute over this question, then the friends of Mr. Cleveland will insist that there shall be no party quarrels in paying to his memory the respect which his honorable service to the party deserves."

UTAH IS STRONG FOR BRYAN

Bound to Him Under Unit Rule. Gray Second Choice.

DENVER, July 2.—Judge O. W. Powers, chairman of the Utah delegation to the convention, is among the arrivals in the city, although the delegation will not be here for several days. "We are for Bryan first, last and all the time," declared Judge Powers to a reporter. "The delegation is instructed and bound by the unit rule. I could cast the votes today if necessary."

Judge Powers is wearing a Gray button, but when the Bryan delegates look somewhat askance at the emblem, he smilingly assured them that Gray is Utah's choice for second place.

The Mormon question did not enter into the selection of the Utah delegation this year, the personnel being made up of members of the party both in and out of the church. The Utah delegates may, however, be drawn into a fight that is to be precipitated by the contesting delegations from Idaho.

PUGSLEY WOULD NOT REFUSE

New Yorker Regards Vice-Presidency as High Honor.

CHICAGO, July 2.—The New York delegation, including representatives of Tammany, arrived in Chicago today, en route to the Democratic convention, and will reach Denver tomorrow. Alton B. Parker, Democratic candidate for President in 1894, and William F. Sheehan, of New York, left over the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad. The majority went over the Rock Island, among them being Charles F. Murphy, chief of the Tammany organization, and Thomas F. Smith, secretary; Lewis Nixon, Herman Ridder and Daniel F. Conlon.

could not well refuse, for it is an honor worthy the ambition of any man. Judge Parker and the various New York leaders conferred informally on the trip from New York to Chicago and an understanding was reached to look over the field at Denver and discuss the situation from other states before taking up any decided line of action either as to men or measures. The tendency is strong toward securing conservative action, but instead of giving out interviews and adopting a literary campaign, they expect to accomplish more by a quiet caucus among the delegations of other states.

Herman Ridder, of New York, will stop at Lincoln on his way to Denver in order to have a talk with Mr. Bryan. Mr. Ridder is not favorable to Bryan's nomination and it is understood he will tell the Nebraska leader plainly that the interests of the party would be best served by the choice of another candidate.

WATTERSON POURS OUT ANGER

Calls Parker and His Clique Ghouls and Body-Snatchers.

LOUISVILLE, July 2.—Commenting upon the report from New York last night that Alton B. Parker had been selected to present resolutions at the Denver convention upon ex-President Cleveland's death, Colonel Henry Watterson said: "The attempt to drag the dead body of Grover Cleveland from its new-made grave, into the insult of a National convention will do nothing. An invasion of the grief of the noble lady who weeps amid the silence and the solitude of the granite hills, a blow at party concord, it is the act of a shameless hypocrite. Nor was ever a professional ghoul inspired by a more mercenary spirit, because the sole aim and end of the Murphy-Conners crowd, aided by Judge Parker, is the perpetuation of the ascendancy of the Belmont-Ryan combination, to which Democracy owes its last ignominious and well-deserved defeat. It was Belmont-Ryan money that financed Judge Parker's campaign for the nomination in 1894. It was Belmont-Ryan cash that nominated him and it was Belmont-Ryan tag that made an anti-trust movement under such a brand absurd and impossible."

"It is deemed fitting that, having made sacrifices for predatory wealth, Judge Parker should have his recompense in a rich law practice in the City of New York. He has had it and with it its enrichment he should rest well content. That he should emerge from this highly-paid obscurity to make trouble through sheer malevolence were pitiable indeed; but that he should appear, backed by money of the trust magnates and traction thieves, appealing to Jefferson and Tilden over the dead body of Cleveland stretched upon the dissecting table, is disgraceful."

Cleveland's Enemies Behind Move.

"It is not only disgraceful, but its motive is grotesquely and transparently obvious. The wing of the Democratic party in the State of New York to which Judge Parker and the group with which he is now acting belong was the David Bennett Hill wing. They were the inveterate, the implacable enemies of Grover Cleveland. They hated him and he hated them. Although amid the gloom of defeat a kind of truce was reached, there was never a real amnesty or oblivion on either side, so that the scheme to recall the shade of Cleveland and to set this up as a death-head in comedy of a mock funeral would be too dastardly and too ghastly for belief, if it were not the last desperate play of a clique of discredited politicians seeking to rule or to ruin at any cost. "Standing about the open grave of Mr. Cleveland, those of us who knew him but did not always approve him or agree with him were not only willing that by-gones should be by-gones, but that the good alone should live after him. He is dead. He sleeps with those that went before, from Jefferson to Tilden, and history can be trusted to do him no injustice. "Resurrected at Princeton, and proclaimed at Denver, his name spells Firebrand and only Firebrand, and Firebrand is the sole initiative and purpose of the body-snatchers who propose to use it to conjure dissension, whilst they try to corrupt delegates."

Only Hope Is in Bryan.

"In Mr. Bryan and a reunited party Democrats saw hope of victory. On none other was there the smallest hope of union. That they reason truly has been shown by the fact that with the Ryan-Belmont 'bar' on tap and its agents flying about in every direction, state after state, refusing to be tampered with or tamed, has declared for the Nebraska. Seeing this, Judge Parker is put forward to deliver the final stroke of the bravo, and under the pretense of honoring the memory of Cleveland to plunge a blade reeking with poison, artfully prepared, into the heart of Democracy. That he should lend himself to such a villany will engulf him in the scorn of honorable men and the detestation of the thoughtful Democrats."

Can Defeat, but Can't Debauch.

"There is no more reason why a Democratic National convention go out of its way to signalize one former Democratic President than another; why it should rush upon Cleveland with a frenzy of words than with a hysterical shriek it should rush upon Buchanan, each—Buchanan and Cleveland—having had the misfortune to divide the party. The spectacle in the case of Mr. Buchanan would lack common sense. In the case of Mr. Cleveland it lacks both common sense and common decency. As well die up the will of Mr. Tilden, which Judge Parker decided against the instructions and wishes of the sage of Graystone and make it the subject of eulogy for the sake of controversy; as well invoke the spirits of the warring Democrats in 1860 and seek to force the Douglas men to pay tribute to the Breckinridge men. "Under any condition and from any quarter the proposal to revitalize old quarrels by preamble and resolution on the threshold of a National movement would be thrown out as insane. Coming from Conners and Murphy, from Belmont and Ryan, from Parker and Sheehan, it will be thrown out as infamous. They may defeat us, but they cannot debauch us."

JOHNSON CONFIRMS REPORT

Under No Condition Will He Take Second Place.

WEBSTER CITY, Ia., July 2.—Governor John A. Johnson, of Minnesota, who is in Webster City today, confirms the statements made in Denver by his managers that he will not accept the Vice-presidential nomination on the Democratic ticket if offered. "I positively am not a candidate nor would I accept the nomination for this office," he said when shown the Denver dispatch intimating that his managers were merely laying plans to gain Bryan's support by refusing to combine with the Gray strength on the Presidential nomination.

See Fighting Chance for Gray.

WILMINGTON, Del., July 2.—The main body of the Delaware delegation to the Democratic National Convention started for Denver today. The party comprised L. Irving Handy, who will place Judge Gray in nomination; Peter J. Ford, William Saulsbury and L. L. Layton, and S. M. Hopper, an alternate who holds the proxy of C. S. Pennwell, who was unable to go; State Chairman Thomas F. Bayard and ex-Judge David T. Marvel. Before his departure Mr. Bayard said: "I feel that we have a good fighting chance. We must keep Bryan off on the first and second ballots, and then spring Gray to win."

IOWA MEN WANT MITCHELL

Also Favor Anti-Injunction and Bank Guaranty Planks.

DENVER, July 2.—John P. O'Malley, of Perry, Ia., delegate from the Seventh District, reached Denver this morning. Mr. O'Malley says that the Iowa delegation will be in favor of John Mitchell for Vice-President, if the Illinois delegation will put him forward. The delegation is instructed for Bryan. "There are two things," said Mr. O'Malley, "that our delegation will certainly support. One is a strong anti-injunction plank in the platform, and the other is a law guaranteeing bank deposits. These are practically the only prospective planks of the platform that we have discussed, and I think the delegation is agreed unanimously upon these. I myself am a banker, and I heartily favor the deposit guarantee plan."

Adventurer Loses Suit.

MADRID, July 2.—The Supreme Court yesterday gave judgment against the son of Elena Zanes, a Bohemian opera singer, in a suit brought to recover a share of the estate of King Alfonso XII from the Dowager Queen and other legates which he claimed as the natural son of the King.

CONFER WITH JOHNSON MAN

Bryan Asks O'Brien to Meet Him at Lincoln.

DENVER, July 2.—Mr. Bryan has asked for a conference with T. D. O'Brien, of Minnesota, one of the most enthusiastic supporters of Governor John A. Johnson, but for what purpose the managers of the Johnson campaign have no idea. Mr. O'Brien will leave St. Paul for Denver tomorrow and has wired the Johnson headquarters in this city that he has been asked by Mr. Bryan to stop off for a short time. It is generally supposed by the Johnson men that Mr. Bryan wishes to talk over the Vice-presidential situation. That, at least, is the only ground they can imagine for the request of Mr. Bryan.
