Policy to Let Saloon Continue. OREGON CITY, Or., July 2.—(Special.)—The saloons will remain in the saloon business in Oregon City until November, at least, as the Council last night declined to revoke his license upon the petition of Mrs. Rose Nehren, who affirmed that Matthews had sold her busband liquor after being warned in writing not to do so. The Council did not attempt to pass upon the merits of the case, but took the view that action on the part of the city might have a tendency to prejudice the jury in the suit for $500 damages that Mrs. Nehren has instituted against Matthews for ejecting her from his place when she went in after her husband.
