

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Table with 3 columns: Pac. States, Home, and various telephone numbers for different departments like Counting Room, City Circulation, etc.

OREGONIAN AT RESORTS

For quickest and most satisfactory service... All subscriptions by mail are payable in advance.

AMUSEMENTS

HELIG THEATER (Fourth and Washington streets)—Tonight at 8 o'clock, Robert Mantel in "King Lear."

OREGON BOOKLET OUT

The Chamber of Commerce has just issued the first installment of its new advertising booklet. The edition consists of 50,000 copies.

DR. RILEY'S MEETINGS TODAY

Today marks the close of the week-day services which have been conducted for the last three weeks at the White Temple by Dr. W. B. Riley.

FUNERAL OF S. B. RIGGEN

Was Well-Known Portland Lawyer and Mason. Funeral services over the remains of Sylvester Rigen Rigen, a lawyer of this city and a pioneer of Oregon, who passed away at St. Vincent's Hospital Wednesday afternoon, were held under the auspices of the A. F. and A. M. yesterday.

NEW BISHOP WILL NOT ARRIVE IN OREGON BEFORE NEXT FALL

Charles W. Smith, Who Will Be Chief Prelate of Methodist Episcopal Church in Pacific Northwest, Sends Greetings.

LEFFERT'S BANKERS and LUMBERMENS BANK

Corner Second and Stark Streets Portland, Oregon CAPITAL $250,000.00 OFFICERS: G. K. Wentworth, President; H. D. Story, Cashier; John A. Keating, Vice-President; F. A. Freeman, Assistant Cashier.

LEFFERT'S JEWELRY

Watch Repairing, Diamond Setting, and our Repair Department are in the hands of specialists, and all work done by these men is backed with the "Leffert" guarantee.

LEFFERT'S GREAT FIREWORKS SALE

Our wholesale fireworks business is now about over. We still have an immense stock left on hand and must close it out at hard-times prices.

LEFFERT'S PRINTERS OF EVERYTHING

A. E. KERN & CO. PRINTERS OF EVERYTHING SECOND AND SALMON STS. Phone Main 5637; Home A2686

LEFFERT'S HAND SAPOLIO

It insures an enjoyable, invigorating bath; makes every pore respond, removes dead skin. ENERGIZES THE WHOLE BODY starts the circulation and leaves a glow equal to a Turkish bath.

LEFFERT'S HISLOP'S HYGIENIC BAKING POWDER

25 cents the 1-pound tin. No powder better. No powder worth more.

LEFFERT'S Fred Prehn, D.D.S.

$12.00 Full Set of Teeth, $6.00 Crowns and Bridge-work, $3.00. Room 405, Dekum. Open Evenings Till 7.

LEFFERT'S Schwab Printing Co.

BEST WORK. REASONABLE PRICES. 247 1/2 STARK STREET

MUSICAL RECITAL—Miss Lina Linehan presented her pupils, Miss Nina Linehan, Miss Helen White, Miss Mary Alice Koch, soprano, and Mrs. Sprague Burton, contralto.

THOMAS McNAMEE IS DEAD

PASSES AWAY AFTER ILLNESS OF TEN WEEKS. Sickness Dates From Primary Election Day—Was Candidate for Nomination for Constable.

Thomas McNamee, whose name and face have been familiar to the residents of Portland during the past 20 years, as he had at various times been politician, hotelkeeper and liquor dealer, died at his home, 290 Park street, yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Mr. McNamee was formerly the proprietor of the Quimby House on North Fourth street, near Couch, during his early days, and later conducted the Golden West Hotel during the Exposition. He also had owned and conducted several local liquor stores, among them the Bank Cafe.

WHERE TO DINE.

All the delicacies of the season at the Portland Restaurant; fine private apartments for ladies, 305 Wash., near 5th.

WHERE TO DINE.

Special—Council Crest ice cream parlor and restaurant will serve a chicken dinner, including ice cream, July 4 and 5, for 45 cents.

WHERE TO DINE.

New Perkins Hotel Cafe and Grill. Prices reasonable. Excellent cuisine. Music 8 to 9 and 10 to 12:30 P. M.

WHERE TO DINE.

Save the Discount—Send check or pay at office on or before the 31st inst. to secure the discount on July bills for the Automatic Telephone, Home Telephone Company, cor. of Park and Burnside sts.

WHERE TO DINE.

Our Store will be open until 12 noon, Saturday. Be sure and give us your order not later than Friday, L. Mayer & Co., grocers, 148 Third street.

WHERE TO DINE.

Bailey Gatzert, Cascade Locks, July Fourth, leave 8:30 A. M., return 5 P. M., two hours at the Locks; 1st round trip.

WHERE TO DINE.

R. L. Polk & Co. have removed their office to 500-506 Beek building, Seventh street, northwest corner Oak street.

WHERE TO DINE.

Woman's Exchange will close all day the Fourth.

WHERE TO DINE.

Mr. Rigen's death resulted from a complication of diseases which had their origin in a cold contracted on the primary election day. He had been out in the rain for the greater portion of the day, visiting his constituents at the polls.

WHERE TO DINE.

George T. Atchley, who has investigated fire insurance rates on the East Side, submitted a report at the meeting of the East Side Business Men's Club last night to the effect that the rates, as compared with those on the West Side, are fair and are not higher than those on the West Side.

WHERE TO DINE.

Charles W. Smith, who is assigned to the Northwest as resident bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, with official residence at Portland, has written for the Pacific Christian Advocate an introductory greeting, which is published in the current number.

WHERE TO DINE.

Bishop Smith was elected to the episcopacy at the last session of the general conference, says in his letter of greeting that he has heard much of the people of this section from Bishop Moore, his predecessor, and others, and believes that there is a wonderful field for work here.

WHERE TO DINE.

Bishop Smith is one of the greatest figures in Methodism. He was born in Fayette County, Pennsylvania, in 1849; entered the ministry in 1869 and served several important charges until 1889, when he was appointed superintendent of Pittsburgh district. He served until 1884, when he was elected editor of the "Pittsburgh Christian Advocate," which position he held with much credit until his election to the bishopric this year at Baltimore.

WHERE TO DINE.

His letter is addressed to Dr. D. L. Rader, editor of the Pacific Christian Advocate, and is as follows: My Dear Mr. Rader: Will you permit me through the columns of your paper to advance to send a few words of greeting to the Methodists of the Pacific Northwest, and to express my sincere sympathy in your quadrennial? I am so favorably impressed by what I have heard and read of the country and people of that region from the reports of my predecessors, and others, that I feel that I have a wonderful field for work here.

WHERE TO DINE.

My Dear Mr. Rader: Will you permit me through the columns of your paper to advance to send a few words of greeting to the Methodists of the Pacific Northwest, and to express my sincere sympathy in your quadrennial? I am so favorably impressed by what I have heard and read of the country and people of that region from the reports of my predecessors, and others, that I feel that I have a wonderful field for work here.

WHERE TO DINE.

My Dear Mr. Rader: Will you permit me through the columns of your paper to advance to send a few words of greeting to the Methodists of the Pacific Northwest, and to express my sincere sympathy in your quadrennial? I am so favorably impressed by what I have heard and read of the country and people of that region from the reports of my predecessors, and others, that I feel that I have a wonderful field for work here.

WHERE TO DINE.

My Dear Mr. Rader: Will you permit me through the columns of your paper to advance to send a few words of greeting to the Methodists of the Pacific Northwest, and to express my sincere sympathy in your quadrennial? I am so favorably impressed by what I have heard and read of the country and people of that region from the reports of my predecessors, and others, that I feel that I have a wonderful field for work here.

WHERE TO DINE.

My Dear Mr. Rader: Will you permit me through the columns of your paper to advance to send a few words of greeting to the Methodists of the Pacific Northwest, and to express my sincere sympathy in your quadrennial? I am so favorably impressed by what I have heard and read of the country and people of that region from the reports of my predecessors, and others, that I feel that I have a wonderful field for work here.

WHERE TO DINE.

My Dear Mr. Rader: Will you permit me through the columns of your paper to advance to send a few words of greeting to the Methodists of the Pacific Northwest, and to express my sincere sympathy in your quadrennial? I am so favorably impressed by what I have heard and read of the country and people of that region from the reports of my predecessors, and others, that I feel that I have a wonderful field for work here.

THOMAS McNAMEE IS DEAD

PASSES AWAY AFTER ILLNESS OF TEN WEEKS. Sickness Dates From Primary Election Day—Was Candidate for Nomination for Constable.

Thomas McNamee, whose name and face have been familiar to the residents of Portland during the past 20 years, as he had at various times been politician, hotelkeeper and liquor dealer, died at his home, 290 Park street, yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Mr. McNamee was formerly the proprietor of the Quimby House on North Fourth street, near Couch, during his early days, and later conducted the Golden West Hotel during the Exposition. He also had owned and conducted several local liquor stores, among them the Bank Cafe.

WHERE TO DINE.

All the delicacies of the season at the Portland Restaurant; fine private apartments for ladies, 305 Wash., near 5th.

WHERE TO DINE.

Special—Council Crest ice cream parlor and restaurant will serve a chicken dinner, including ice cream, July 4 and 5, for 45 cents.

WHERE TO DINE.

New Perkins Hotel Cafe and Grill. Prices reasonable. Excellent cuisine. Music 8 to 9 and 10 to 12:30 P. M.

WHERE TO DINE.

Save the Discount—Send check or pay at office on or before the 31st inst. to secure the discount on July bills for the Automatic Telephone, Home Telephone Company, cor. of Park and Burnside sts.

WHERE TO DINE.

Our Store will be open until 12 noon, Saturday. Be sure and give us your order not later than Friday, L. Mayer & Co., grocers, 148 Third street.

WHERE TO DINE.

Bailey Gatzert, Cascade Locks, July Fourth, leave 8:30 A. M., return 5 P. M., two hours at the Locks; 1st round trip.

WHERE TO DINE.

R. L. Polk & Co. have removed their office to 500-506 Beek building, Seventh street, northwest corner Oak street.

WHERE TO DINE.

Woman's Exchange will close all day the Fourth.

WHERE TO DINE.

Mr. Rigen's death resulted from a complication of diseases which had their origin in a cold contracted on the primary election day. He had been out in the rain for the greater portion of the day, visiting his constituents at the polls.

WHERE TO DINE.

George T. Atchley, who has investigated fire insurance rates on the East Side, submitted a report at the meeting of the East Side Business Men's Club last night to the effect that the rates, as compared with those on the West Side, are fair and are not higher than those on the West Side.

WHERE TO DINE.

Charles W. Smith, who is assigned to the Northwest as resident bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, with official residence at Portland, has written for the Pacific Christian Advocate an introductory greeting, which is published in the current number.

WHERE TO DINE.

Bishop Smith was elected to the episcopacy at the last session of the general conference, says in his letter of greeting that he has heard much of the people of this section from Bishop Moore, his predecessor, and others, and believes that there is a wonderful field for work here.

WHERE TO DINE.

Bishop Smith is one of the greatest figures in Methodism. He was born in Fayette County, Pennsylvania, in 1849; entered the ministry in 1869 and served several important charges until 1889, when he was appointed superintendent of Pittsburgh district. He served until 1884, when he was elected editor of the "Pittsburgh Christian Advocate," which position he held with much credit until his election to the bishopric this year at Baltimore.

WHERE TO DINE.

His letter is addressed to Dr. D. L. Rader, editor of the Pacific Christian Advocate, and is as follows: My Dear Mr. Rader: Will you permit me through the columns of your paper to advance to send a few words of greeting to the Methodists of the Pacific Northwest, and to express my sincere sympathy in your quadrennial? I am so favorably impressed by what I have heard and read of the country and people of that region from the reports of my predecessors, and others, that I feel that I have a wonderful field for work here.

WHERE TO DINE.

My Dear Mr. Rader: Will you permit me through the columns of your paper to advance to send a few words of greeting to the Methodists of the Pacific Northwest, and to express my sincere sympathy in your quadrennial? I am so favorably impressed by what I have heard and read of the country and people of that region from the reports of my predecessors, and others, that I feel that I have a wonderful field for work here.

WHERE TO DINE.

My Dear Mr. Rader: Will you permit me through the columns of your paper to advance to send a few words of greeting to the Methodists of the Pacific Northwest, and to express my sincere sympathy in your quadrennial? I am so favorably impressed by what I have heard and read of the country and people of that region from the reports of my predecessors, and others, that I feel that I have a wonderful field for work here.

WHERE TO DINE.

My Dear Mr. Rader: Will you permit me through the columns of your paper to advance to send a few words of greeting to the Methodists of the Pacific Northwest, and to express my sincere sympathy in your quadrennial? I am so favorably impressed by what I have heard and read of the country and people of that region from the reports of my predecessors, and others, that I feel that I have a wonderful field for work here.

WHERE TO DINE.

My Dear Mr. Rader: Will you permit me through the columns of your paper to advance to send a few words of greeting to the Methodists of the Pacific Northwest, and to express my sincere sympathy in your quadrennial? I am so favorably impressed by what I have heard and read of the country and people of that region from the reports of my predecessors, and others, that I feel that I have a wonderful field for work here.

WHERE TO DINE.

My Dear Mr. Rader: Will you permit me through the columns of your paper to advance to send a few words of greeting to the Methodists of the Pacific Northwest, and to express my sincere sympathy in your quadrennial? I am so favorably impressed by what I have heard and read of the country and people of that region from the reports of my predecessors, and others, that I feel that I have a wonderful field for work here.

THOMAS McNAMEE IS DEAD

PASSES AWAY AFTER ILLNESS OF TEN WEEKS. Sickness Dates From Primary Election Day—Was Candidate for Nomination for Constable.

Thomas McNamee, whose name and face have been familiar to the residents of Portland during the past 20 years, as he had at various times been politician, hotelkeeper and liquor dealer, died at his home, 290 Park street, yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Mr. McNamee was formerly the proprietor of the Quimby House on North Fourth street, near Couch, during his early days, and later conducted the Golden West Hotel during the Exposition. He also had owned and conducted several local liquor stores, among them the Bank Cafe.

WHERE TO DINE.

All the delicacies of the season at the Portland Restaurant; fine private apartments for ladies, 305 Wash., near 5th.

WHERE TO DINE.

Special—Council Crest ice cream parlor and restaurant will serve a chicken dinner, including ice cream, July 4 and 5, for 45 cents.

WHERE TO DINE.

New Perkins Hotel Cafe and Grill. Prices reasonable. Excellent cuisine. Music 8 to 9 and 10 to 12:30 P. M.

WHERE TO DINE.

Save the Discount—Send check or pay at office on or before the 31st inst. to secure the discount on July bills for the Automatic Telephone, Home Telephone Company, cor. of Park and Burnside sts.

WHERE TO DINE.

Our Store will be open until 12 noon, Saturday. Be sure and give us your order not later than Friday, L. Mayer & Co., grocers, 148 Third street.

WHERE TO DINE.

Bailey Gatzert, Cascade Locks, July Fourth, leave 8:30 A. M., return 5 P. M., two hours at the Locks; 1st round trip.

WHERE TO DINE.

R. L. Polk & Co. have removed their office to 500-506 Beek building, Seventh street, northwest corner Oak street.

WHERE TO DINE.

Woman's Exchange will close all day the Fourth.

WHERE TO DINE.

Mr. Rigen's death resulted from a complication of diseases which had their origin in a cold contracted on the primary election day. He had been out in the rain for the greater portion of the day, visiting his constituents at the polls.

WHERE TO DINE.

George T. Atchley, who has investigated fire insurance rates on the East Side, submitted a report at the meeting of the East Side Business Men's Club last night to the effect that the rates, as compared with those on the West Side, are fair and are not higher than those on the West Side.

WHERE TO DINE.

Charles W. Smith, who is assigned to the Northwest as resident bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, with official residence at Portland, has written for the Pacific Christian Advocate an introductory greeting, which is published in the current number.

WHERE TO DINE.

Bishop Smith was elected to the episcopacy at the last session of the general conference, says in his letter of greeting that he has heard much of the people of this section from Bishop Moore, his predecessor, and others, and believes that there is a wonderful field for work here.

WHERE TO DINE.

Bishop Smith is one of the greatest figures in Methodism. He was born in Fayette County, Pennsylvania, in 1849; entered the ministry in 1869 and served several important charges until 1889, when he was appointed superintendent of Pittsburgh district. He served until 1884, when he was elected editor of the "Pittsburgh Christian Advocate," which position he held with much credit until his election to the bishopric this year at Baltimore.

WHERE TO DINE.

His letter is addressed to Dr. D. L. Rader, editor of the Pacific Christian Advocate, and is as follows: My Dear Mr. Rader: Will you permit me through the columns of your paper to advance to send a few words of greeting to the Methodists of the Pacific Northwest, and to express my sincere sympathy in your quadrennial? I am so favorably impressed by what I have heard and read of the country and people of that region from the reports of my predecessors, and others, that I feel that I have a wonderful field for work here.

WHERE TO DINE.

My Dear Mr. Rader: Will you permit me through the columns of your paper to advance to send a few words of greeting to the Methodists of the Pacific Northwest, and to express my sincere sympathy in your quadrennial? I am so favorably impressed by what I have heard and read of the country and people of that region from the reports of my predecessors, and others, that I feel that I have a wonderful field for work here.

WHERE TO DINE.

My Dear Mr. Rader: Will you permit me through the columns of your paper to advance to send a few words of greeting to the Methodists of the Pacific Northwest, and to express my sincere sympathy in your quadrennial? I am so favorably impressed by what I have heard and read of the country and people of that region from the reports of my predecessors, and others, that I feel that I have a wonderful field for work here.

WHERE TO DINE.

My Dear Mr. Rader: Will you permit me through the columns of your paper to advance to send a few words of greeting to the Methodists of the Pacific Northwest, and to express my sincere sympathy in your quadrennial? I am so favorably impressed by what I have heard and read of the country and people of that region from the reports of my predecessors, and others, that I feel that I have a wonderful field for work here.

WHERE TO DINE.

My Dear Mr. Rader: Will you permit me through the columns of your paper to advance to send a few words of greeting to the Methodists of the Pacific Northwest, and to express my sincere sympathy in your quadrennial? I am so favorably impressed by what I have heard and read of the country and people of that region from the reports of my predecessors, and others, that I feel that I have a wonderful field for work here.

WHERE TO DINE.

My Dear Mr. Rader: Will you permit me through the columns of your paper to advance to send a few words of greeting to the Methodists of the Pacific Northwest, and to express my sincere sympathy in your quadrennial? I am so favorably impressed by what I have heard and read of the country and people of that region from the reports of my predecessors, and others, that I feel that I have a wonderful field for work here.

THOMAS McNAMEE IS DEAD

PASSES AWAY AFTER ILLNESS OF TEN WEEKS. Sickness Dates From Primary Election Day—Was Candidate for Nomination for Constable.

Thomas McNamee, whose name and face have been familiar to the residents of Portland during the past 20 years, as he had at various times been politician, hotelkeeper and liquor dealer, died at his home, 290 Park street, yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Mr. McNamee was formerly the proprietor of the Quimby House on North Fourth street, near Couch, during his early days, and later conducted the Golden West Hotel during the Exposition. He also had owned and conducted several local liquor stores, among them the Bank Cafe.

WHERE TO DINE.

All the delicacies of the season at the Portland Restaurant; fine private apartments for ladies, 305 Wash., near 5th.

WHERE TO DINE.

Special—Council Crest ice cream parlor and restaurant will serve a chicken dinner, including ice cream, July 4 and 5, for 45 cents.

WHERE TO DINE.

New Perkins Hotel Cafe and Grill. Prices reasonable. Excellent cuisine. Music 8 to 9 and 10 to 12:30 P. M.

WHERE TO DINE.

Save the Discount—Send check or pay at office on or before the 31st inst. to secure the discount on July bills for the Automatic Telephone, Home Telephone Company, cor. of Park and Burnside sts.

WHERE TO DINE.

Our Store will be open until 12 noon, Saturday. Be sure and give us your order not later than Friday, L. Mayer & Co., grocers, 148 Third street.

WHERE TO DINE.

Bailey Gatzert, Cascade Locks, July Fourth, leave 8:30 A. M., return 5 P. M., two hours at the Locks; 1st round trip.

WHERE TO DINE.

R. L. Polk & Co. have removed their office to 500-506 Beek building, Seventh street, northwest corner Oak street.

WHERE TO DINE.

Woman's Exchange will close all day the Fourth.

WHERE TO DINE.

Mr. Rigen's death resulted from a complication of diseases which had their origin in a cold contracted on the primary election day. He had been out in the rain for the greater portion of the day, visiting his constituents at the polls.

WHERE TO DINE.

George T. Atchley, who has investigated fire insurance rates on the East Side, submitted a report at the meeting of the East Side Business Men's Club last night to the effect that the rates, as compared with those on the West Side, are fair and are not higher than those on the West Side.

WHERE TO DINE.

Charles W. Smith, who is assigned to the Northwest as resident bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, with official residence at Portland, has written for the Pacific Christian Advocate an introductory greeting, which is published in the current number.

WHERE TO DINE.

Bishop Smith was elected to the episcopacy at the last session of the general conference, says in his letter of greeting that he has heard much of the people of this section from Bishop Moore, his predecessor, and others, and believes that there is a wonderful field for work here.

WHERE TO DINE.

Bishop Smith is one of the greatest figures in Methodism. He was born in Fayette County, Pennsylvania, in 1849; entered the ministry in 1869 and served several important charges until 1889, when he was appointed superintendent of Pittsburgh district. He served until 1884, when he was elected editor of the "Pittsburgh Christian Advocate," which position he held with much credit until his election to the bishopric this year at Baltimore.

WHERE TO DINE.

His letter is addressed to Dr. D. L. Rader, editor of the Pacific Christian Advocate, and is as follows: My Dear Mr. Rader: Will you permit me through the columns of your paper to advance to send a few words of greeting to the Methodists of the Pacific Northwest, and to express my sincere sympathy in your quadrennial? I am so favorably impressed by what I have heard and read of the country and people of that region from the reports of my predecessors, and others, that I feel that I have a wonderful field for work here.

WHERE TO DINE.

My Dear Mr. Rader: Will you permit me through the columns of your paper to advance to send a few words of greeting to the Methodists of the Pacific Northwest, and to express my sincere sympathy in your quadrennial? I am so favorably impressed by what I have heard and read of the country and people of that region from the reports of