

BRYAN IS VICTOR OVER PLUTOCRACY

Hosts of Mammon Bow Before One Man.

NEW YORK DELEGATES YIELD

Glad to Take Bryan's Man for Vice-President.

GAYNOR OF BROOKLYN

Wall Street's Vassals Arrive at Denver to Conquer, but Find Fight Hopeless and Yield to Man Who Defied Them.

Walter Wellman to Chicago Record-Herald. DENVER, Colo., July 3.—(Special.)—This is one of the proudest days in the career of William J. Bryan. It is the day which marks the beginning of the end of his enemies.

Bryan Beats Plutocracy. Bryan in complete possession of the field, master of the situation; the convention his, to do what he likes with, and hardly a possibility of breaking down his rule.

Man Conquers Mammon. Here are the heroes, here is the drama, of the hour—a man has conquered Mammon; a man with nothing but people behind him.

Will Take What Bryan Gives. But the Easterners had not been here half an hour till it became known that there was little, if any, fight left in Bryan.

ANOTHER WAR APPROACHES

Central America to Fight as Preliminary to Union.

MEXICO CITY, July 3.—According to unofficial advices from Central America, trouble in that region is looked for in the near future.

HENRY GERHARDT, GERHARDT'S INFANT, MISS MACK ALVARADO, TWO UNKNOWN MEXICANS. All of the fatalities were in Sunnyside, a town of 500 inhabitants, and practically every residence and business building in the town was wrecked.

MEYER MAY BE CHAIRMAN

Hint Thrown Out by Committeeman After Conference.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—Postmaster-General Meyer, W. T. Ward and Frank E. Kellogg, the last two members of the National Republican Committee from New York and Minnesota, respectively, had a conference for an hour and three-quarters with W. H. Taft today.

"Oh, that is utterly ridiculous. I could not undertake the matter in any circumstances." "How about Mr. Meyer?" he was asked.

"Well, I can't say anything on the subject at all," he replied. Then Mr. Ward interjected this remark: "You better be careful what you say about General Meyer."

FIGHTING AGAIN AT TABRIZ

Looting by Reactionaries Causes Rebels to Renew Battle.

TABRIZ, July 3.—The trouble in this city broke out again today, when the reactionaries and the revolutionists, after a brief truce yesterday evening, again started shooting at each other.

All the foreign residents of Tabriz have hung out over their houses their respective flags. They are not believed to be in danger.

TWO MORE BODIES FOUND

Death List of Missouri Wreck is Now Eleven.

SEDALIA, Mo., July 3.—Two additional bodies, terribly mutilated, were found today in one of the telegraphed baggage-cars brought here today from Knobnoster, near the scene of the collision yesterday between two Missouri Pacific passenger trains.

LOOKS ON BRIGHT SIDE

Cortelyou Says Big Treasury Deficit Is Really Surplus.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—Secretary Cortelyou today gave out a statement regarding the situation, in which he says that the deficit of $90,000,000 shown by the Treasury statements is more apparent than real, because of the antiquated book-keeping system, which is being overhauled, and contending that "considering ordinary receipts of the Government" there is really a surplus.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—The probability of a row in the Democratic National convention over the wording of the resolution eulogizing the memory of Grover Cleveland was somewhat diminished today.

NEW YORK, July 3.—The will of Grover Cleveland has been filed with the Surrogate of Mercer County, New Jersey, and will be probated within 30 days.

CLEVELAND'S WILL FILED

LOS ANGELES AND SITKA TALK. LOS ANGELES, July 3.—The new station of the United Wireless was in communication with Sitka, Alaska, a distance of 1600 miles.

THE FLAG

O flag, allow And stand in the glow Of the sapphire Summer sky!

Those folds are a story Of valor and glory. Of steadfast souls who dared. Of a few who were true Where the death-bolts flew. Where red whirlwinds of battle glared.

It is set up there In the masterless air. As the doom of Pedregre: As a sign to the drone On Tradition-girt throne That all men must be free.

Dark loomed its fate When Civil-Hate Blazed from the rebel gun: Its eighty years Of toils and tears At length seemed all undone.

Yet, still it waves! Though a million graves Hold the hearts that held it there. Yes, there it flies. For all men's eyes—Lovely and stainless and fair!

But that war begun By Washington Is a war that goes on without end: You free flag they Of a countless day Requisitioned, each age must defend.

And not the foe Whom we see and know Is it that we must heed—Not the sword-hand. For that we'll withstand; We must guard against traitorous greed!—Harry Murphy.
