

GLORIOUS BIRTH COSTS 30 LIVES

Partial Returns Show 1429 Injured as Penalty of Barbic Folly.

IMPROVEMENT IS SCANT

Even Chicago, Which Led in Move for Reform, Shows 6 Fatalities and 130 Maimed and Injured Persons.

RECORD OF DEATHS AND CASUALTIES. Table with columns for Cause of Death and Number of Deaths.

CHICAGO, July 5.—Once more the annual barbaric orgy of death and mutilation, which masquerades under the guise of patriotic celebration of the Nation's natal day, has passed and the fearful cost has been counted in part.

Same Old Story in Chicago. In Chicago, as elsewhere, despite the brave struggle in behalf of "safe and sane" Fourth, there was scant improvement over previous Fourth's, and the result of all the efforts toward reform can scarcely even be dignified by the appellation of near sane.

Havages of Tetanus. Deadly tetanus last year claimed 73 victims after the noise and excitement of the Fourth had died away. Fifty-three cases were caused by blank cartridges, eight by gas cracker, six by toy cannons and four by firearms.

HEROES, WHITE OR YELLOW

Officers and Crew of Sinking Steamer Save Lives.

VICTORIA, B. C., July 5.—Details of the loss of the steamer Pawan with 89 lives at the gates of Hongkong was received by the Empress of India. The captain tried to run her ashore at Lantau, but before she was within 1000 feet she sank in eight fathoms.

TAKE PART IN PROGRAMME

Sailors in Port Help at Concert of Seamen's Friend Society.

An excellent concert was given at the Institute of the Portland Seamen's Friend Society last evening, in spite of the fact that this is the quiet season in shipping, the large concert hall was well filled with sailors, every ship in port being represented.

APOLOGIZES TO CROKER

Manchester Chronicle Also Pays $7500 to Settle Libel Suit.

DUBLIN, July 5.—The Manchester Chronicle has apologized to Richard Croker and agreed to pay him $7500 and to publish an apology in all the sporting papers of the country in settlement of the libel suit instituted against it by Mr. Croker for a statement published in the paper, which he claimed reflected on his character as a sportsman.

ROBS OWN SWEETHEART

Spendthrift Attacks Girl With Razor to Get Jewels.

PARIS, July 4.—(Special.)—For having attempted to murder his sweetheart, Mile. Annie Delavigne, in order to get hold of her valuable jewels, Nicholas Tchernadoff, a Russian subject, has been arrested here. The girl, who is now lying between life and death in a hospital, here declares that she became acquainted with the prisoner some time ago and that he from the very first made love to her until she consented to become engaged to him. He was very reckless in his way of spending money, and she has always considered him a man of means, and in fact what she termed a gentleman.

A large crowd of people quickly gathered in the street on hearing the woman's first cries, but the man was in hysterics, declaring that the woman was in hysterics. It was only when the unfortunate victim appeared at the door with blood gushing from the wound, that the crowd realized what had happened.

CITY RUNS TROUT FARM

CARDIFF HAS NOVEL SCHEME TO REDUCE TAX RATE.

Hatches Fish to Stock Neighboring Lakes and Sells Fishing Privileges to Anglers.

LONDON, July 4.—(Special.)—In Cardiff, the busy Welsh seaport and coalfield center, the municipal authorities have found a novel way of reducing the tax rate on the municipality by breeding trout by thousands, turns them into the lakes of the neighboring hills and sells the fishing rights to private parties.

From the Cardiff hatcheries about half of the fish raised are sold to stock the waters of other parts of the country, while the other half are turned out into the towns, own lakes and rivers to be fished by the fishermen Cardiff at a fixed charge for a season's catch.

SHOTS BULLETS AT HOUSE

German Opens Rifle Fusilade Because He Dislikes Greeks.

Wilhelm Wiegand, a German blacksmith, living in a rooming-house at No. 12, Twelfth and Gilsan streets, combined the sentiments of patriotism and revenge about 2 o'clock Sunday morning, by leaning out of his window and firing the house opposite, occupied by a number of Greeks, with a 4-caliber Winchester rifle.

TO SPITE SCOLDING WIFE

Farmer Blows Off His Head When Upbraided for Drinking.

SNOWHOMISH, Wash., July 4.—Because his wife upbraided him for drinking, Robert Pfeiffer, aged 65, a resident of Snowhomish for 21 years, shot himself in his barn, out of half of a stick of giant powder, inserted a cap, attached a fuse, calmly lit it and waited for the explosion, which he expected would blow his head from his shoulders and left his brains splattered upon the rafters which came after him.

SWETT FOR POLICE JUDGE?

Persistent Rumors Say He Is Mayor Lane's Appointee.

Indications pointing for the past week that Mayor Lane had decided to appoint Isaac Swett as the new police judge to succeed Judge Cameron, were strengthened last night by the insistent rumor that the appointment of Mr. Swett had actually been made.

REBELS BOMBARD CITY

Foreign Representatives Urge Them to Spare Paraguay's Capital.

BUENOS AYRES, July 5.—Telegraphic communication with Asuncion, the capital of Paraguay, where there is a revolution, is still interrupted, but word has been received from Asuncion at Corrientes that the artillery at the capital mutinied and bombarded the market place. Many women are said to have been killed in this fighting.

BRYAN REGREES MANY DELEGATES

Nebraska Farm Is Scene of Many Democratic Pilgrimages.

LEADER BEAMS ON THEM

But He Scores Gaffey in Speech to Pennsylvanians and Rejects Tom Johnson's Proposed Planks for Platform.

ARE "GUILTY OF POVERTY"

SCATTER TENANTS OF LADY CATHCART GO TO JAIL.

Crowd in Edinburgh Cheers Tenants Who Took Land Noblewoman Would Not Rent.

LONDON, July 5.—(Special.)—England was spared the sight of seeing His Majesty's government sending out a waifship to capture a few poor squatters who had committed no crime except possession of the land.

Justice indeed they did find, for they were sentenced to two months in prison, because they would rather live on the land than become public charges, but it is said in justice to the English people that it would be hard to find a less popular woman in London.

NEW UNITS ARE FORMED

President Changes Boundaries of Reserves.

Intention Is to Make Supervisors as Nearly Equal in Size as Is Practicable.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, July 5.—The President has just signed executive orders making important changes in the boundaries of practically all the National forests in the State of Washington.

OFFICER BEATS LABORER

For His Brutality, Chief at Once Removes His Star.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., July 4.—Special Police Officer Tom Stubbsfield had a narrow escape from violence today at the hands of a Fourth of July crowd that was enjoying the music furnished by the Fourteenth Cavalry band.

PLANK FOR DEMOCRATS

Gompers Asks Them to Adopt What Republicans Rejected.

CHICAGO, July 3.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, arrived here today on his way to Denver to appear before the Democratic convention regarding a proposed plank treating of the use of force in labor troubles.

SHOT BY HOLDUP MAN

San Francisco Man Attacks Robber Who Holds Revolver.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—Two masked men entered the saloon of Tim Sullivan, on Harrison street, shortly after midnight yesterday, and covering the proprietor and John Farrell, the only other person in the place, began to clean out the cash register.

BONI NOT A KIDNAPER

No Foundation for Sensational Story Printed in Paris.

PARIS, July 5.—The statement given publicly this morning that Count Boni de Castellani, the former husband of Mme. Anna Gould, kidnaped his three children from Versailles yesterday, is inaccurate. The Count simply went to Versailles and took the youngest boy, who is ill, to the Count's mother for the annual visit of one month allowed of the Count under the divorce decree.

TRUTH CRUSHED TO EARTH

Chicago News. "Please, sir," faltered the office boy. "I would like to get off to attend the baseball game this afternoon." "No, you don't," snapped the boss. "You have more intention of going to get the same than I have. You want to get off to attend the funeral of your grandmother. Oh, you can't fool me."

MILITARY PARTY AGAIN IN CONTROL

Fall of Japanese Cabinet Means Victory for Yamagata Over Ito.

WAS DOOMED FROM FIRST

Salonji Without Friends Except Ito Lost Prestige Through Failure of Financial Measures—Blamed for Trade Stagnation.

TOKIO, July 5.—(Special.)—The collapse of the Salonji Cabinet and the selection of Marquis Katsura as head of a new ministry places ministerial power again in the hands of the Yamagata military faction, where it was from the end of the last Ito Cabinet in 1901, through the war period, until Katsura was forced out by popular discontent over the Portsmouth treaty.

That the Cabinet would be in trouble almost from the first, and that it would collapse was predicted more than a year ago. In several crises Marquis Salonji desired to surrender, but was prevented by the influence of Prince Ito.

Although the Ministry weathered the storm of the last Diet, it was continued to lose favor with the people, especially with that body most potent in shaping Japan's affairs, the six elder statesmen comprising the cabinet body of imperial advisers. Only Prince Ito was Salonji's strong supporter.

The victory of the ministerial party in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

None of the political parties in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

None of the political parties in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

None of the political parties in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

None of the political parties in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

None of the political parties in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

None of the political parties in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

None of the political parties in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

None of the political parties in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

None of the political parties in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

None of the political parties in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

None of the political parties in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

None of the political parties in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

None of the political parties in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

MILITARY PARTY AGAIN IN CONTROL

Fall of Japanese Cabinet Means Victory for Yamagata Over Ito.

WAS DOOMED FROM FIRST

Salonji Without Friends Except Ito Lost Prestige Through Failure of Financial Measures—Blamed for Trade Stagnation.

TOKIO, July 5.—(Special.)—The collapse of the Salonji Cabinet and the selection of Marquis Katsura as head of a new ministry places ministerial power again in the hands of the Yamagata military faction, where it was from the end of the last Ito Cabinet in 1901, through the war period, until Katsura was forced out by popular discontent over the Portsmouth treaty.

That the Cabinet would be in trouble almost from the first, and that it would collapse was predicted more than a year ago. In several crises Marquis Salonji desired to surrender, but was prevented by the influence of Prince Ito.

Although the Ministry weathered the storm of the last Diet, it was continued to lose favor with the people, especially with that body most potent in shaping Japan's affairs, the six elder statesmen comprising the cabinet body of imperial advisers. Only Prince Ito was Salonji's strong supporter.

The victory of the ministerial party in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

None of the political parties in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

None of the political parties in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

None of the political parties in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

None of the political parties in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

None of the political parties in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

None of the political parties in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

None of the political parties in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

None of the political parties in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

None of the political parties in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

None of the political parties in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

None of the political parties in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

None of the political parties in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

None of the political parties in the recent parliamentary elections did not change the status of affairs. The decision in all matters of first importance is made by the influences operating over the heads of the political parties.

There are no apparent issues of principle between the Ito and the Yamagata factions. The military party's programme for increased armaments was followed by the Salonji ministry, whose loss of prestige is due almost wholly to the financial situation.

Portland Construction Company OF PORTLAND, OREGON

ENGINEERS AND BUILDERS OF ELECTRIC RAILROADS, POWER GENERATING PLANTS AND CONCRETE DAMS.

CAPITAL STOCK $500,000

Par Value $100.00 Per Share. $100,000 PREFERRED, $400,000 COMMON

This company has contracts for the construction of 200 miles of electric railway through Gilliam, Wheeler, Wasco, Crook and Grant counties; also contracts for concrete and steel dams on the John Day and the Deschutes rivers; also for concrete work on bridges and buildings amounting to over $6,000,000.

These projects are being financed by a bond issue of the Wasco County Electric & Water-Power Co. to the amount of $15,000,000, and the money secured from the sale of this bond issue will be devoted to the payment of the above-mentioned contracts.

We Offer $100,000 of the Preferred Stock of This Company, Paying 8 Per Cent Per Annum, at $92 Per Share;

Guaranteed by contract with the promoters to turn over to a trust company twice the amount of the par value of this stock in bonds of the Wasco County Electric & Water-Power Co., to be held in escrow as security for the payment of this stock at the end of 10 years. A sinking fund to retire this $100,000 of stock at the end of 10 years being a stipulation in the preferred stock, which will pay, as above mentioned, 8 per cent dividends per annum.

This stock controls the entire assets of the company. The money secured from the sale of this preferred stock will be used for the purchase of equipment and for actual construction of 40 miles of grading and contractors' skeleton railroad to haul material for construction of power dam at the John Day river, and for all other purposes incident to the carrying forward of the work involved in these contracts.

We can recommend this stock to be a first-class investment.

COOK & TRUBY

511 Corbett Building Portland, Oregon

IT is not only that part of the coffee which hurts you but that part which impairs the good qualities of the coffee itself do we remove. ALL COFFEE CONTAINS HARMFUL, BITTER HERBAL MATTER strongly impregnated with a form of tannic acid. If you enjoy this kind of poison you will find plenty of it in other coffees—the very taste will tell you that it is there—that rank, bitter, nauseating taste.

PURITANATED BRAND COFFEE

has been purified, made healthful, deliciously appetizing and nourishing because we have removed this bitter, herbal matter, leaving only the pure, rich part of the berry. At reliable grocers in 1-lb. cans, granulated. CLARK, COGGIN & JOHNSON CO. Coffee Importers and Roasters, Boston, Mass. THE HUDSON-GRAM CO., Distributing Agents.

CATCH ANOTHER SUSPECT

Negro in Jail at Schenectady Held for Mail Robbery.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., July 5.—The police here have arrested a negro giving his name as Eugene Wilson, whom they suspect of connection with the theft of $50,000 from a registered mail pouch in Kansas City.

The Star Brewery's famous Hop God beer is unexcelled in all respects and is highly recommended for strength and health-giving qualities. Orders for bottled beer receive prompt attention. Phone East 64. Home phone B 116.

CLEAR THE COMPLEXION OVERNIGHT

Pimples, Rash, Eruptions, Etc., Quickly Eradicated by New Skin Remedy.

Since its discovery one year ago, posium, the new skin remedy, has, in its extraordinary accomplishments, exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the eminent specialist who gave it to the world. It has cured thousands of cases of eczema and irradicated facial and other disfigurements of years' standing. The terrible itching attending eczema is stopped with the first application, giving proof of its curative properties at the very outset.

TRAVELERS' GUIDE

REGULATOR LINE. Fast Steamer Balley Gutzert. Round Trip to The Alsea Week Days. Except Friday, Leave 7 A. M. Round Trip to Cascade Locks Sunday. Leave 9 A. M.

TRAVELERS' GUIDE

REGULATOR LINE. Fast Steamer Balley Gutzert. Round Trip to The Alsea Week Days. Except Friday, Leave 7 A. M. Round Trip to Cascade Locks Sunday. Leave 9 A. M.

TRAVELERS' GUIDE

REGULATOR LINE. Fast Steamer Balley Gutzert. Round Trip to The Alsea Week Days. Except Friday, Leave 7 A. M. Round Trip to Cascade Locks Sunday. Leave 9 A. M.

TRAVELERS' GUIDE

REGULATOR LINE. Fast Steamer Balley Gutzert. Round Trip to The Alsea Week Days. Except Friday, Leave 7 A. M. Round Trip to Cascade Locks Sunday. Leave 9 A. M.

TRAVELERS' GUIDE

REGULATOR LINE. Fast Steamer Balley Gutzert. Round Trip to The Alsea Week Days. Except Friday, Leave 7 A. M. Round Trip to Cascade Locks Sunday. Leave 9 A. M.

PORTLAND BY LIGHT & POWER CO. Ticket Office and Waiting-Room, First and Alder Streets. CANADIAN PACIFIC EMPRESS LINE OF THE ATLANTIC LESS THAN FOUR DAYS AT SEA. EASTBOUND—July 10, 15, 21, August 1, 7, 13, 20, 26, 31, September 6, 12, 19, 25, 30, October 6, 13, 20, 27, November 3, 10, 17, 24, 31, December 7, 14, 21, 28, January 4, 11, 18, 25, February 1, 8, 15, 22, 29, March 6, 13, 20, 27, April 3, 10, 17, 24, 31, May 7, 14, 21, 28, June 4, 11, 18, 25, July 2, 9, 16, 23, 30, August 6, 13, 20, 27, September 3, 10, 17, 24, 31, October 7, 14, 21, 28, November 4, 11, 18, 25, December 2, 9, 16, 23, 30, January 6, 13, 20, 27, February 3, 10, 17, 24, 31, March 6, 13, 20, 27, April 3, 10, 17, 24, 31, May 7, 14, 21, 28, June 4, 11, 18, 25, July 2, 9, 16, 23, 30, August 6, 13, 20, 27, September 3, 10, 17, 24, 31, October 7, 14, 21, 28, November 4, 11, 18, 25, December 2, 9, 16, 23, 30, January 6, 13, 20, 27, February 3, 10, 17, 24, 31, March 6, 13, 20, 27, April 3, 10, 17, 24, 31, May 7, 14, 21, 28,