THEIR OWN TOWN

Seattle Exclusive Set Will Flock by Itself.

OUTSIDERS ARE BARRED

Membership in Set Is Limited to 50 and Ranks Will Be Jealously Guarded—Site for New City Is on Sound by Golf Links.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 8.—(Special.)—Fifty of Seattle's wealthiest citizens, who are also leaders in the club and social life of the city, have begun the erection of an ideal residence city on the shore of Puget Sound, adjoining the Golf Club grounds, nine miles north of Pioneer Place.

The trustees include C. D. Stimson, Vice-President H. W. Treat, the builder of the town proposed to have the kind of neighbors they want and no others. It will be difficult, he says, to get the organization, and it will be impossible for a member to sell his membership without the consent of the others.

Seattle Marine Notes.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 8.—The steamship St. Johns, last of the Nome fleet to arrive, reached Nome Monday undamaged.

The steamship Jefferson is due in the morning with a cargo of frozen fish and a large passenger list.

The steamship Yukon, which sailed this morning, has been equipped with wireless telegraph and reported her position to the Alaska Steamship Company several times during the day.

Tacoma Shipping Notes.

TACOMA, Wash., July 8.—The American steamer Shawmut will proceed to Seattle tomorrow to be inspected by a board of naval survey, with a view of her sale to the Isthmian Canal Commission.

The steamer Endeavor will tow out tomorrow, bound for San Pedro.

The British steamer Katanga arrived in from Guam to load flour and general cargo for North China.

Pendleton Stays Sober.

PENDLETON, Or., July 8.—(Special.)—That prohibition in Pendleton does prohibit in fact that since July 1 there has been but a single arrest for drunkenness in this city and the one victim secured his booze in Walla Walla, being intoxicated when he stepped from the train. He was not drunk enough to

Habitual Constipation

May be permanently overcome by proper personal efforts with the assistance of the one truly beneficial laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, which enables one to form regular habits daily so that assistance to nature may be gradually dispensed with when no longer needed as the best of remedies, when required, are to assist nature and not to supplant the natural functions, which must depend ultimately upon proper nourishment, proper efforts, and right living generally.

There's No Servant Problem

There's no servant problem in the home where Shredded Wheat is known. Being ready-cooked and ready-to-serve, it is a boon to busy housekeepers in summer.

There's no servant problem in the home where Shredded Wheat is known.

Being ready-cooked and ready-to-serve, it is a boon to busy housekeepers in summer. It contains all the strength-giving elements of the whole wheat made digestible by steam-cooking, shredding and baking.

Always heat the Biscuit in oven to restore crispness.

Two Shredded Wheat Biscuits with milk or cream will supply all the energy needed for a half day's work. Try Toasted TRISCUIT, the Shredded Wheat wafer, for luncheon, with butter, cheese or marmalade.
