Says District Too Small.—C. A. Bigelow, chairman of the East Side Business Men's Club, said yesterday that the members support Building Inspector Dobson in his efforts to maintain the present fire district intact. He contends that the fire district on the East Side is altogether too small and ought to be extended to take in more territory. The lowlands are to be filled up and made a building section for warehouses and other buildings of the better class, he said, and this section ought to be prosaid, and this section ought to be pro-tected from fires. Mr. Bigelow said he did not think the City Council would resort to any drastic measures to deprive inspector Dobson of authority to en-force the fire limits ordinance, but if that ody should undertake any such measure it would incur the condemnation of the Business Men's Club, and the majority of the people of the East Side. "Mr. Dobson can be assured that he has the sympathy of the club in his efforts to enforce the fire limits in this district," declared Mr. Bischer.

WANT WATER OFFICE MOVED .- A peti-WANT WATER OFFICE MOVED.—A peti-tion has been circulated in Albina asking the Water Committee to move the water collector's office, new located at Borth-wick and Russell streets in Lower Albina, to some point in Upper Albina. The peti-tion does not specify any particular loca-tion, and sets forth that the present office is not convenient for a large majority of consumers in that portion of the city. The city owns a lot with 25-foot frontage on Russell street, between Williams and Rodney avenues, which leads back to a Rodney avenues, which leads back to a lot foxion on which the old water tower stood when that district was supplied by the private corporation, and it is suggested in Albina that an office and store use be erected on this ground.

To CELEBRATE GERMAN DAY.—Delegates of the German societies of Portland met at the residence of Otto Kleemann, president of the organization, Belmont and East Thirteenth street, Wednesday night for the purpose of taking preliminary steps for the proper celebration of German-Day, October 6. It was decided to give an afternoon session to routine business and lectures on the personal liberty movement, and then devote the evening to entertainments. Probably there will be a short play by the German theatrical troupe, soon to open a regular season in Portland, and a ball. A committee was appointed to arrange for a hall large enough to held a crowd, for it is expected that a large number of Germans will come from all parts of the state to take part in the celebration. German Day is and Powell streets, yesterday morning, it was found that the inanimate car had done what Circuit Judge Cleiand, two lawyers and a regiment of witnesses left umachieved; it had settled the controversy over the canine that has been the subject of months of litigation.

The preceding step had been taken when, without deciding who was the owner of the dog. Judge Cleiand ordered that it be returned to Mrs. Stella McKern by Constable Lou Wagner, or that he pay her $50 and $5 damages. Mr. Wagner turned the dog over to her Wednesday. Litigation over the spitz dog began when E. J. Davey claimed it, saying it had run away. One day he saw it follow Mrs. McKern into a barber shop and sent his wife around to Mrs. McKern's home. In telling of the affair in the Cf-cuit Court, Mrs. Davey said the reception she received was very cold.

Then the Gonstable was sought and went to secure the animal. At first Mrs. McKern said the dog was with a relay.

went to secure the animal. At first Mrs. McKern said the dog was with a relative, but Mr. Wagner, accompanied by Mr. Davey, insisted on entering and searching the house, as he had a search searching the house, as he had a search warrant. As he entered the front room of the flat, the dog came bounding in. Davey is said to have picked it up and to have remarked that it was "just like finding one of your own children."

The dog is said to have passed its early months in the firehouse next to the Police Station, at which time Davey was a fireman. One day it pushed its nose into a jar of sulphuric acid and burned into a jar of sulphuric acid and burned it badly. Davey pointed out to the court that the scar still remained.

When Davey went to work for the Western Union Telegraph Company he took the dog with him. When the suit was on trial a large number of Western Union erployes were summoned to identify the canine as the one which incl romped about the office for several years. They identified it because of its ugly disposition, some of the witnesses remarking they would not have the animal as a gift.

Mrs. McKern claimed the dog was given her by John Manning, a laundrywagon-her by John Manning, a laundrywagon-driver, as a birthday present. He said, according to Mrs. McKern's testimony, that he obtained the animal from a friend, who had picked him up on a raft. Another story was told of the dog's former owner having gone to France, and out of the conglomerated testimony, Judge Cleiand only decided that Mrs. McKern must receive $50 or the dog

SHRINERS LEAVE FOR St. PAUL.—Delegates from Portland to the annual conclave of the Imperial Council, Ancient Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, left the city yesterday afternoon for St. Paul, where the convention will meet on July 12. Delegates ficient funds, all houses to be built in future will be of brick. The time ha come, it was argued, when the fir department must be put on a strictly metropolitan basis, and frame engine-houses must be supplanted by the more modern kind. Fire Chief Campbell also recommended the purchase of a piece of land upon which to erect a machine shop for department repairs; a hospital for sick or impaired horses, and a drill ground for firemen. All of these recommendations were ordered sent to the City Council for consideration, as the Council has to appropriate the funds for any improvements made in the various city departments.

City Electrician Savarian, in his monthly report, declared the fire-alarm system to be in perfect order, all alarms, of which there were more than 50 during the month, being trans-mitted properly. He also sent in a communication asking that something be done toward securing the necessary wire and conductors for the underground system on the East Side, and the committee instructed the City Auditor to request from City Attorney Kavanaugh an opinion as to how the Executive Board is to proceed to demand from the Home Telephone Company supplies of this brand of ms terial free of cost, as provided by its

TODAY AND TOMORROW

Here will be found bargains which should interest everyone. Big values and little prices. Some of these instruments have been out on rent or turned in on a Player Plano or a high-grade grand—many of them can hardly be told from new—in fact, some of them probably are preferable to new ones, as they have been used just about long enough to sweeten the tone. Those which need overhauling are thoroughly repaired and polished in our up-to-date repair shop, and are in perfect condition.

The following are but a few of the many gare plano opportunities awaiting you at our warerooms:

A Sohmer Plano, New York's greatest, absolutely new, but slightly scratched on one side from display purposes, regular price $575, but goes now for $330.

A splendid Smith & Barnes which has been out on rent for seven months, can now be had at a great reduction, although in fine condition. Don't miss seeing this one.

Kohler & Campbell, nearly new. Rosewood case, modern design, full 71-3 octaves, but not as large as the ordinary plano—this goes at $154, and will, no doubt, go quickly. An old reliable Hinze, excellent oractice plano, full 71-3 octaves, ivory keys, ebonized case. While not a fancy-cased instrument, the action and tone are fine, and at the price—$160—it is a rare bargain for any one. Easy terms.

A Bailey, walnut case and of modarn design. Former owner used it about a year and then turned it in on a Player Plano. $181 buys this instrument. Such a bargain should be, and probably will be, snapped up quickly. Don't delay.

As stated above, these are but a few of the many bargains which are on sale today and tomorrow—but you would better come down early to secure best cholee, as, at the rices we have marked these instruments, they are almost sure to go in a hurry. Remember the time—today and Saturday—and the place

Angeles is in Mr. Charlton's territory and he visited the Southern California city lately to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Johnson. Mr. McCaskey will have charge of both the passenger and freight departments.

Earl Davis, an 18-year-old youth, who lives at 205 Eleventh street and who is employed by the firm of M. J. Waish & Co., dealers in electrical supplies, at 311 Stark street, was perhaps fatally injured at that store at noon yesterday, when heavy iron door fell on his head. He sustained a severe concussion of the brain Physicians in the Good Samaritan Hospital think his recovery doubtful. Davis' injury was received while 'attempting to store some electric fans in the cellar. He took one in each arm, and prepared to descend the steps. He had taken two or three steps when he lost his footing. Throwing out his arms to steady himself a heavy fron door which swung overhead was released from its fastenings, He was picked up unconscious.
