BY W. J. PETRAIN.
Portland dropped another game to the Frisky Seals yesterday afternoon, and the secret of the defeat is best explained by a statement of their inability to hit Oscar Jones at the correct intervals, while the visitors succeeded in connecting with the delivery of "Slim" Marshall when such performance would do the most good.

The score was 5 to 1, yet in spite of the apparent one-sidedness, it was a fine game. Any number of good plays were tossed in to keep the contest from waxing uninteresting, and the home team succeeded in getting men enough on bases in each inning after the fourth to make things assume the threatening hue and thereby keep the fans warmed up and keep them sitting on the expectancy seat for something to start. Oscar, the so-called unlucky man, however, succeeded in thwarting the deepest wishes of the fans, for he braced splendidly at any time the slugging brigade became threatening.

The Seals got a Marshall right off the reel, for Bobby Groom was not quite as sure an out-fielder as is Tom Rafferty, and when Kid Mohler, the first man, drove a screamer to center, Bobby was not under it and the clout went to two bags. Hildy followed with a sacrifice which sent the Seal captain to third, Zeider beat out an infield tap and Mohler crossed the pan. Hildy stole second and Marshall threw badly in attempt to catch the feet-footed one off that perch, with the result that the runner took third and scored a moment later when Williams was mugged at first.

Another was added to this collection in the fourth when Jack Ryan heaved Williams' boulder wildly to Johnson who kicked galloped to third on the misplay. Melchior singled, scoring, and Harry hooked second on a steal, but foolishly attempted to score when McCardie laced a single to center and was tossed out on a beautiful peg to Madden from Bassey.

Oscar Jones was passed to first in the fifth, took second on Mohler's out, which, by the way, was accomplished by a fine stop and throw by Phil Cooney, and scored a moment later when Hildebrand tore off a safe walk.

Then came the big hit, a playing gift indulged in by the Portland fans. Marshall laced a peach of a drive to left field one cushion. Casey loosened up a Plank in the right garden wall and Marshall took third, while Pearl was held at first by a fine piece of fielding on the part of Melchior. Cooney's long try to right hit Marshall home with the only run of the game, for Ryan and Johnson failed to connect.

San Francisco added one more in the eighth when Hildebrand ambled on four wide ones. Hildy stole second and when Nick Williams connected for two bases to left he raced over the pan with another out.

Considering the handicaps the Portland team is under at the present time McCredie's men are well along. The absence of men of the hitting and fielding ability of Danzig and Rafferty is sorely felt by the home team, but despite this handicap it is playing tight edged ball. Jesse Garrett is expected to be strong enough to pitch today, and it is possible that Rafferty may be able to get into the game also. Garrett will be opposed by Southpaw Harry Sutor, who succeeded in shutting the Portland team out in two games during the recent San Francisco visit, but McCredie says he won't do it this afternoon. This being ladies' day it is up to the boys to do their best toward landing a victory and it won't be their fault if they fail.

Young Marshall pitched a very good game considering the circumstances, and should not be censured for the defeat. It is doubtful whether any of the Portland twirlers would have done any better, because the home team seemed at the mercy of Oscar Jones throughout. The score follows:

NORTHWEST LEAGUE.

Spokane 2, Aberdeen 4.

SPOKANE, Wash., July 9.—(Special.)—It was Thompson, of Aberdeen, against Jensen, of Spokane, in the pitching department today, and Thompson was not to be denied, winning his own game in the tenth, after Spokane had tied the score in the ninth. Spokane was two to the bad in the ninth, when Clynes hit for two bags. Kippert made a pretty single and James doubled. Aberdeen came back in the tenth. A bad error by West gave a batter a lift. Captain Brown tore off one of his semi-occasional singles and Thompson surprised the Black Cats and grieved the fans by planting a solid two-bagger where it would do the most good. Then he tightened up in Aberdeen's half and Spokane failed to register, although Roberts, sent in to bat for a weak stickler, made a single. A large ladies' day crowd saw the performance. Score:

MAY LOSE MONEY

Hard for Rickard to Make Prizefight Pay Him.

LIVELY BETTING AHEAD

Dull Times in Nevada Make $30,000 Pursue Hard to Raise—Nelson Becoming Favorite—McFarland After Welch.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 9.—(Special.)—The match between Nelson and Gans has created great interest here, but experts believe that Tex Rickard will lose money, as they can't see how, with the present dull times in Nevada mining camps, he can get a crowd that will pay for a $30,000 purse. It will also cost $5000 for a new arena and advertising.

There is much discussion here over the possibility of Gans getting into condition. He may have gone stale before the last fight, but that wouldn't account for his tiring in the first round before he received a single blow. Some experts believe Nelson will have a walkover. Certainly there is a prospect for lively betting with Nelson favorite.

PROTEST SHAMROCK'S VICTORY

Owner of Mimosa Says Time Allowances Were Increased.

NEW YORK, July 9.—Pending the decision of the regatta committee of the Brooklyn Yacht Club, regarding a protest which was filed yesterday against Frederick Thompson's schooner Shamrock, the apparent winner of the Lipton cup for the ocean race to Cape May and back, the trophy will remain in the custody of the club.

The committee refused to divulge the name of the protestor or its nature, but it was learned that the complaint has been made by Stuyvesant Wainwright, owner of the Mimosa III, which finished second, two hours, 18 minutes and 49 seconds behind the Shamrock, according to the allowances based upon the measurements now in hand. Shamrock's rating has been the subject of considerable comment for the past week, and the protest is lodged on the basis of erroneous measurement.

Before the protest was filed Mr. Thompson cabled the news of his victory to Sir Thomas Lipton, 19 City Road, London: I have the only Shamrock that can win, but Barr sailed her. Do your congratulations go with the cup?

JOCKEY ASLEEP AT HIS POST

Jimmy McIntyre Won't Ride at the Meadows for Some Time.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 9.—(Special.)—After Varieties, second choice in the third race, had been practically left at the post, Jockey Jimmy McIntyre, one of the best boys here, never made an effort to get up and, upon investigation, backed up by the claim of Starter Dick Dever that the boy was asleep at the post, McIntyre was set down for an indefinite period. His mount belongs to Hughey Jones, a well known bookmaker.

The Mist got off to a rolling start in the Bremerton handicap and made a runaway race of it. Harris, up on Centre shot, the favorite, did not give his mount the best of rides. Results:
First race; six furlongs; selling—Confessor, won; Daisy Moral, second; Lovely Mary, third. Time—1:23.
Five and one-half furlongs—Force won. Anderson second. Alkarsben third. Time—1:07.
Six and one-half furlongs; selling—Mintia won. Cobekill second. Captain Burnett third. Time—1:19.

GAY WEEK FOR PLAYERS

TENNIS CLUB PLANS FESTIVITIES DURING TOURNEY.

Lewis R. Freeman, Who Once Held Fiske Cup, and Others Are Added to the Entries.

The programme for the entertainment of the local and visiting tennis players during the approaching state tournament to be held on the courts of the Irvington Tennis Club has been practically completed. Cards are being sent to the members informing them of the various items prepared for the coming week. The programme for the evenings includes a "flannel" dance, a night at the Oaks, an automobile trip about the city, a grand ball, and the final night of well wishing, including the presentation of trophies and an informal dance.

This list has been prepared by the entertainment committee consisting of J. Wesley Ladd, W. D. Brewer, W. M. Cook and F. J. Raley. Some of the enthusiastic tennis players have begun extending their congratulations at this early date, for they are confident that the programme could not be excelled, even though the committee had been given more time in which to prepare it.

The general committee yesterday received several additional entries from out-of-town aspirants for the championships. Lewis R. Freeman, of Pasadena, Cal., who won the Fiske cup in the Oregon competition in 1904, has signified his intention of again competing for the trophy. He will also play in the men's doubles, as well as in the mixed doubles.

Percy Gardner and C. J. Hall, of the Everett Tennis Club, and Jack Browne, of the Tacoma Tennis Club, have also entered in the coming tournament. C. J. Hall is a recent arrival from Australia, and is said to be an aggressive, as well as an accurate player.

When the announcement of Mr. Freeman's intention again to compete at Portland was made known to the tennis enthusiasts it was greeted with much satisfaction, for he is a player whose prominence promises to instill twofold interest in the coming championships. The contest for supremacy

President Charles Somers, of the Cleveland American League club, is accompanying Pitcher Grafe to Portland. They left Cleveland Monday, and should reach Portland tonight or Saturday morning.

Tom O'Brien, the Cleveland scout, who is now in San Francisco looking over the Los Angeles and Oakland clubs, will join his chief in Portland this week, and some of McCredie's huskies will be picked for the Naps next season.

Tom Rafferty is the man Cleveland seemingly most admires, and it is quite likely that Portland's speedy outfielder will be selected by that club in exchange for some of the Cleveland players the local manager will demand when the deal is consummated.

The Portland fans are anxious to see Salisbury in action again, for they all remember when he pitched on the championship team of 1901. Joe Tinker, of Chicago, and Sammy Vigneux, Andy Anderson and George Engle, the latter now with Vancouver, were also on that team. Salisbury intends to locate in Portland in the near future.

Hope to Win Tenth Straight.

The Vancouver Pioneers and the West Portland Milliners, of the Tri-City League, are scheduled to meet at Vancouver Sunday. The West Portlanders are a speedy bunch and stand well to the front in the percentage column, while their opponents have been setting a wonderful pace recently, having won nine straight games. The Pioneers are desirous of making it ten straight, while the West Siders can be depended upon to put up a rattling good effort to break the Vancouver bunch's winning streak.

Plans for Winter Racing.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 9.—Thomas Williams, president of the California Jockey Club, announced today that the Winter racing season at Emeryville will commence on Saturday, November 7. New stakes, added money to old events and increased purses are included in the club's plans for the coming season.
