END OF GREAT CONVENTION

Final Burst of Joyous Tumult Marks Completion of Ticket-Towne and Folk Themselves Second Their Rival's Name.

DENVER, July 10.-The Democratic National Convention concluded its labors late this afternoon by the nomination of John Worth Kern, of Indiana, for Vice-President, completing the ticket on which William J. Bryan was made the nomines for President during the early hours of the morning.

The nomination of Mr. Kern was made by acclamation amid the resounding cheers of delegates and spectators. No ballot was necessary, as the trend of sentiment had set irresistibly toward the Indiana candidate, state after state registering its delegations in his favor and all other candidates withdrawing before the universal demand for his nomination

Candidate's Grow Bashful.

The convention, after adjourning at daylight with the nomination of Mr. Bryan, resumed its session at 1 P. M., with powerful undercurrent already in motion toward the nomination of Mr. Kern for second place. On the call of states Indiana presented the name of Kern; Colothrough ex-Governor Thomas placed in nomination Charles A. Towns of New York: Connecticut presented Archibald McNeill, and Georgia, Clark Howell. The names of Judge George Gray of Delaware and John Mitchell of Illinois were not presented owing to the positive requests of these men not to have their ames go before the convention

For a time it looked as though a ballo ould be required, but the steady line of tates which joined in seconding Mr. tern's nomination soon made it apparent hat the chances of all other candidates had been extinguished.

Towne Starts Stampede.

Mr. Towne in person was the first candidate to recognize the decisive nature of the Kern movement, and in a ringing speech he withdrew his name from consideration and pledged his support to the ticket of Bryan and Kern. Withporters of Howell, of Georgia, and Mc-Nettl, of Connecticut, leaving the Indiana candidate alone in the field. The vithdrawal of the Connecticut candidate was accompanied by a motion that Mr. Kern be nominated by acclamation. The motion was carried with a deafening shout, and the great assemblage broke into clamerous demonstration on the acpletion of the Democratic ticket.

Scatter to Four Winds.

The nomination was made at 4:23 c'clock and the convention thereupon adjourned without date. The Democratic National committée will assemble tomor row to complete its new organization and to select the chairman, who will be the commander-in-chief of the Democratic forces in the campaign. The throngs of delegates and spectators are scattering tonight for their homes and every train bearing away thousands from the eventful scenes of the Denver conven-

KERN DEEPLY AFFECTED Sincerely Grateful to His Party for

Unsought Honor. DENVER, July 10.-John W. Kern, of Indiana, the nominee for Vice-President on the Democratic ticket, received the news of the action in his apartments in the Albany Hotel. When, early in the day, matters began to shape themselves in his direction and his selection became almost a certainty. Mr. Kern determined that he would remain away from today's session and accordingly his seat was ocupled by an alternate. "I am profoundly appreciative of the which has been conferred upon said Mr. Kern, when seen shortly after the convention adjourned. I regard the honor all the greater because I did not seek the place nor did my delegation. On the floor below the rooms occupied by Mr. Kern the Indiana delegation headquarters were thronged with persons from all parts of the country who called to congratulate Indiana's representatives on the choice of the convention. Mr. Kern visited his headquarters and he was given an ovation. Tomorrow night the vice presidential nominee will leave for Lincoln, where he will see Mr. Bryan and discuss the forthcoming campaign.

CLEVELAND, July 10.-William H. Bayne, aged 60, ex-president of the City Council, died today as a result of in-juries caused by being run over by an automobile. Mr. Payne had been prominent in local Republican politics nearly a quarter of a century.

Oakland Man Finds $27,000 in Dead Woman's Dress.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10 .- (Special.) Recently searching an old dress belongng to his late wife, Mary E. Smyth Samuel Smyth, a ploneer resident of Oakland, discovered two bank books showing deposits of $27,000 in two Oakland banks. Smyth died last March, but the widower has just now discovered the fortune. The money will be transferred to Mr. Smyth.

In 1871 Samuel Smyth and his wife were married. She owned property in the business center of Oakland. In order to improve the property, Mr. Smyth saved his earnings, giving them to the care of his wife, and the latter mortgaged the property to pay for the construction of a brick building. In time the mortgage was paid off and the wife quietly commenced saving money. On her death the real estate was transferred to Mr. Smyth and is valued at $40,000,
