NEW LAW AFFECTS OWNERS BE-HIND ON TAXES.

After Six Months Suit May Be Instituted by Anyone as in Mort-

Under the new law covering delinquent taxes it seems probable that many tardy taxpayers will lose their property, for the law gives any person who will pay the delinquent taxes after they are six onths overdue the right to institute suit and proceed as in the case of a mortgage foreclosure. This law will probably re-sult in many additional suits being filed in the Circuit Court in the Circuit Court.

The new law provides that when the taxes are six months overdue the first person paying the back taxes may secure a certificate from the Sheriff and collect interest on the amount paid at the rate accrued interest. It seems more likely that the company will settle the bill, although it has contested payment of the tax ever since the County Assessor levied an assessment on its money, notes and accounts. The County Board of 3500 people, and, being situated 50 feet Equalization upheld the Assessor's fig-ures when the case came up, but, not-withstanding this, the company has persistently contended that it did not owe the money.

Should the bill not be paid, it will be within the power of the Sheriff to seize some of its rolling stock. Assessor Sigler levied the tax on $16,000,000 worth of prop-
