The United States will carry addressed.

The United States will carry addressed telegrams which will be filled out at intervals during the race and dropped overboard, with light streamers attached to attract attention. These will be filed at the nearest telegraph office by the finder and will be forwarded to St. Paul immediately under propaid charges. They will be received in St. Paul by the executive committee of the publicity bureau, which will thus be able to check and report at frequent intervals on the and report at frequent intervals on the progress of the balloon, conditions in its car and the air currents encountered, together with other data indicating the possibilities of a victory for the home

Dr. Fielding, of San Antonio, will sail in his big balloon and will personally superintend its flight. Lieutenant J. J. Meade, representing the United States Government, was a passenger in the car Government, was a passenger in the car of the United States during the recent races, in which the United States finished at Pinkerton Station, Ontario, and will probably make a second flight with the St. Paul crew at the coming races. In case of his inability to participate in the races, the Government will be represented by another officer who will report on the contest.

on the contest.

The big balloons, five and possibly six in number, will leave the starting point at Lexington Park at 25-minute intervals, the order being determined by lot. It is believed that the prevailing air currents will carry them in an easterly direction, making it probable that the finish will be somewhere in Lower Ontario, or possibly, with good luck and favorable winds, in SALEM, July 12.—(Special.)-No active hostilities resulted last night in the con-troversy between Mrs. Ella Watt and the Oregon Electric Company, over the cut-ting down of a maple tree in front of Mrs. Watt's house. The owner of the tree stood guard until a o'clock in the morning three workmen who were waiting nearby gave up in despair and left. Mrs. Watt will guard the tree again tonight unless she receives a satisfactory agree-ment from the electric company. Tomorrow morning when construction work be gins again one side or the other must yield re will be a pitched battle over the fate of the tree

MAP SHOWS FAIRBANKS Geological Survey Publishes Data on Alaska District.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Wash's ington, July 12.—A description of the Fairbanks quadrangle, recently pub-lished by the United States Geological adjacent to the town of Fairbanks, a more detailed survey of this area has been made, and the resulting map is now published as the Fairbanks special map, on a scale of 1 mile to the inch, with 25-foot contours.

The district mapped includes the towns of Fairbanks and Chena and the most important gold placer producing creeks of the district, which, named in the order of their importance, are Cleary Esther, Goldstream, Fairbanks, creeks of the district, which, named in the order of their importance, are Cleary, Esther, Goldstream, Fairbanks, Dome and Vauit. The gold output from these streams in 1907 aggregated about $8,000,000, which is less than would have been produced had there been no labor difficulties. Fairbanks is now easily accessible by river steamer to Chens, with which it is con-rected by railway. The Tanana Valley nected by railway. The Tanana Valley Railway has also been extended across the center of the area mapped as far as the mouth of Cleary Creek, making most of the district easily accessible.

The railroads have been supplemented by a large number of wagon roads, indicated on the map, which have very much reduced the cost of transporta-

The large scale of the map and the 25-foot contour interval make it serv-lecable for use in the preliminary location of all engineering enterprises. In addition to the altitudes marked by the contours, figures are given on the map to show the exact elevation above sea level of certain bench marks that are distributed over much of the area. The elevations given for these bench marks are reliable, as they are based on lovels.

This is the first detailed map of any of the inland districts of Alaska. It has been prepared as part of the general policy of the Geological Survey to map the most important mining camps on a large scale as soon as means permit. The topography is by T. G. Gerdine, R. H. Sargent and G. Neuner. The map is a sale publication, and can be procured from the Director of the United States Geological Survey for 10 cents, or at the rate of 6 cents when 50 copies or more are purchased.

CARRIES HATRED TO DEATH

ALIA TO BE HANGED THIS WEEK. BITTER AGAINST PRIESTS.

Murderer Will Be Executed Some Time During Week-Expecting No Reprieve.

DENVER, July 12.—With the arrival of day, the death sentence imposed upon Giuseppe Alia, the priest murderer, began to operate. Alia will be hanged in the State Penitentiarry at Canon City some-time this week, but the day and the hour is known only to prison officials and perhaps has not yet been definitely decided upon by them. The custom in Colorado long followed by the courts is to designate the week when convicted murderers, sentenced to death, shall explate their crime. eaving it to the prison officials to select the moment when the sentence shall be carried into effect. The law requires that a certain number of witnesses be present. Realizing that the shocking nature of his crime—the killing of Father Leo Heinrichs at the altar of St. Elizabeth's Church in this city while the priest was administering the sacrament at early mass one Sunday morning, has made it mpossible to stir human sympathy in his impossible to stir fundan sympany in the behalf. Alia awaits only the coming of the moment when he shall be summoned to his doom. For a week he has absolutely refused to eat, though the choicest of food was placed before him. On Friday last the prison physician, becoming alarmed at his haggard appearance, ad-ministered milk by means of a pump. This had the effect of changing the prisoner's mind and since then he has eaten unassisted.

Alia retains his fierce haired of the priesthood and everything connected with the church. When visited in his cell recently by a Catholic priest stationed in Canon City, he raved and stormed and was not quieted for some time after the priest had withdrawn. Alia refused to converse with the priest and his attitude. converse with the priest and his attitude at times appeared threatening.

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo., July 12.-GRAND JUNCTION, Colo., July 12.—
Introduction of evidence for the defense will begin tomorrow in the trial of Stevs
Adams, a member of the Western Federation of Miners, on the charge of murdering Arthur Collins, mine superintendent at Teiluride.

Despite Judge Sprigg Shackelford's decision ruling out Adams' alleged con-cision ruling out Adams' alleged con-fession of this murder, the end is not yet in sight in the cases growing out of the murders and mysterious disappear-ances that occurred during the troubles in the mining camps of Colorado. If Adams is acquitted he will be immedi-Adams is acquitted he will be immediately re-arrested, charged either with the murder of Detective Lyte Gregory at Denver, or with having set off the bomb at the Independence Depot at Crippie Creek, when 13 miners were killed.

According to the prosecution, Adams confessed to having had a hand in both these crimes in eight statements secured from him by Detective McParland in the penitentiary at Boise, Idaho.

Kate Bender cut loose one of the horses and gave the vigilantes a long chase, but her horse was finally slain and she was captured.

After much persuasion she made a confession of all the hideous murders and as her captors sat around, spellbound by the tale of horror, she snatched a revolver and attempted to shoot the man in front of her. At that instant one of the men who was guarding the horses and who had been watching for just such a move, shot her through the brain. The vigilantes carried her body back to where the others lay and all were burled together, after which their clothing, wagon and all belongings were burned and their horses killed and buried.

A NEW DEPARTURE.

The cost of interments has been greatly educed by the Holman Undertaking reduced by the Holman Undertaking Company.

Heretofore it has been the custom of funeral directors to make charges for all incidentals connected with a funeral. The Edward Holman Undertaking Company, the leading funeral directors of Fortland, have departed from that custom. When casket is furnished by us we make no extra charges for embalming, hearse to cemetery, outside box or any services that may be required of us, except clothing, cemetery and carriages, thus effecting a saving of £3 to $15 on each tuneral. Roosevelt in Conference With! Secretary Root and Mr. Bacon.

VENEZUELA SUBJECT UP

Late in Afternoon, President, His Two Sons and Mr. Root Go to Beach at Cold Springs Harbor to Bathe.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., July 12 .-President Roosevelt conferred this afternoon with Secretary of State Ellhu Root and Assistant Acting Secretary of State Robert Bacon at the Presi dent's home on Sagamore Hill for al-most four hours.

The exact nature of their deliberations could not be learned. It is pre-sumed, however, that state affairs of an important nature were the subject of their discussion. It is thought likely that the foremost subject was the situation at present existing be-tween the United States and Venezuela. Secretary Root, who completed a course of physical training yesterday at Muldoon's farm at White Plains, N Y., came across Long Island Sound this morning in the Government yacht Syiph, which had been sent over for him. Acting Secretary Bacon was at his home in Westbury, L. I., and came to Sagamore Hill in an automobile, arriving shortly after I oo'clock.

Mr. Bacon, who has been in charge of affairs at Washington, brought with him the latest information of the State Department. The President and the two Secretaries consulted until 2 o'clock, when all sat down to dinner Department.

o'clock, when all sat down to dinner with the President's family.

After dinner, the conference was resumed, and it lasted until a quarter to 5, when Acting Secretary Bacon appeared in an automobile from his home in Westbury.

Mr. Root and the President, accommoded by two of the President's sons.

panied by two of the President's sons, panied by two of the President's sons, were seen later going toward the beach in Cold Springs Harbor, where the President goes bathing. Some of the party carried towels, and it was supposed all were bound for a cooling dip on duty all afternoon, awaiting some business from the President. When seen tonight, the President's secretary seen tonight, the Freshold Secretary said that the conference at Sagamore of the city, delivered his first sermons in the State Department. He said Secretary Root had been invited by the President to spend Sunday with him.

The Secretary remained at Sagamore Hill tonight as the President's guest. This excessively hot day was not too warm to keep President Roosevelt from attending church. With Mrs. Roosevelt he drove down from Sagamore Hill to Christ Episcopal Church, in the village, and listened to a sermon on the "Mathematics of Life and Character a hundred boys, who are church attend-ants in Astoria, Flushing and Jamaica, and are camping near Oyster Bay, were at the church to see the President, a church he raised his hat to the assembled people, and spying a couple of old men whom he has known many years, said with emphasis to them:

"I am glad to see you."

ACME AND IAQUA COLLIDE OFF EUREKA BAR.

Iaqua Arrives at San Francisco Leaking Badly-Acme Thought to Have Proceeded.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12-Leaking badly, her stem entirely carried away, the steam schooner Inqua steamed slowly into port today from Eureka and reported having cillided with the steam schooner Acme, lumber-laden, also from Eureka, for San Brancisco, in a dense fog off Eureka Bar. This is the second mishap to occur to steam coasters during a week, the cause steam coasters during a week, the cause in each case being fog.

According to Captain Hansen, of the laqua, a dense fog hung over the bar, making objects undiscernible from all points. When the two vessels came together they were going at half speed. Before anything could be done to reduce the speed of the schooners, the stem of the laqua had crushed itself into the Acme amidships. The lifeboats of the latter vessel and several davits were carried away. Then they drifted apart and Captain Hansen, of the laqua, believes the Acme continued on her voyage to this city.
