NAMES ARE DESIRED

Mayor and Councilmen Will Select Commission.

SUGGESTIONS ARE WANTED

From Lists Submitted, 13 Taxpayers Will Be Chosen, Before Whom, With Two Officials, Will Be Brought Needed Changes.

Mayor Lane and Councilmen Cellars and Baker, when they as a committee meet to select 13 taxpayers to review the city charter and to prepare proposed amendments, will have a difficult task on their hands. There will be a large number of names, furnished by many organizations, both on the East and West sides of the Willamette River, from which to make final choice, and it will be hard to decide upon which of the men whose names are submitted are best qualified to undertake the task before them.

The Mayor and Councilman Baker and Cellars will wait a week or more, in order to give ample opportunity to organizations who may desire to send in names, and the committee hopes to secure lists from all of the important civic, industrial and improvement associations of the city. It is a most important task that will confront the committee of taxpayers, whoever they may be, as the revision of the charter is acknowledged to be a matter of the deepest concern.

Mayor Lane yesterday received a communication from Secretary S. E. Vincent of the Manufacturers' Association, containing the names of 14 of the most prominent and influential men engaged in the manufacturing industries of Portland. The list is as follows:

- A. F. Hiles, Central Sash & Door Co.
- George Collins, George Athine Co.
- W. H. Bushong, Bushong & Co.
- I. N. Fleischner, Fleischner, Mayer & Co.
- R. H. Holmes, Holmes Canning Co.
- George Lawrence, George Lawrence Co.
- F. L. Knight, Knight Packing Co.
- William H. Corbett, Willamette Iron Works
- S. H. Cobb, Standard Box & Lumber Co.
- John Montag, Portland Stone Works.
- S. M. Meak, Portland Cordage Co.
- J. C. Roberts, Peters & Roberts.
- Samuel Connell, Northwest Door Co.
- A. M. Smith, Western Clay Co.

When Mayor Lane and Councilmen Baker and Cellars have received all the lists of names from the various organizations, they will meet and select from all those submitted the complete list of taxpayers, two of whom will be City Attorney Kavanaugh and Chief Deputy Auditor Grutze. After choosing the full number, the 15 will organize, and will probably hold a series of meetings at which they will hear statements and propositions as to the revisions that are believed best to be made. All citizens, either individually or as associations, will be given an opportunity to be heard on any amendments they wish considered.

Rain Cools Air at Albany.
 ALBANY, Or., July 12.—(Special.)—A period of weather which has prevailed in this part of the state the past few days and which has been characterized by unusual and excessive humidity rather than by great heat, was ended this morning by a rainfall, accompanied by light thunder.

CAKE WILL REMAIN

Will Not Resign as Republican State Chairman.

TO DIRECT TAFT CAMPAIGN

With State Committeeman Williams Will Go to Colorado Springs to Confer With National Chairman Hitchcock.

W. M. Cake will not resign, neither is he to be ousted as chairman of the Republican state central committee. He will continue in his present position as official head of the party organization in this state and will personally conduct the Taft campaign in Oregon.

This is the true situation as is well understood among the party leaders. They have always questioned the advisability of any move to displace the state chairman at the beginning of the Presidential campaign when complete harmony within the party is desired.

"There never has been any idea on the part of the members of the state central committee to effect a change in its organization," said Ralph E. Williams, of Dallas, committeeman for Polk County and National committeeman for Oregon, at the Imperial Hotel, last night. "This talk of my being elected as successor to Mr. Cake has been altogether without foundation and without my knowledge.

MEDAL FOR GIRL'S BRAVERY

CORA HOSFORD'S NAME MAY BE SENT CARNEGIE FUND.

Deed in Saving Father and Uncle Is Said to Be Most Heroic on Coast.

Girl Most Modest.

Admirers of the heroism displayed by Miss Cora Hosford, who risked her life at Washougal, Wash., in attempting to rescue her father, uncle and cousin from drowning in the Columbia River, are discussing the advisability of sending her name to the committee in charge of the Carnegie hero fund.

It is declared that rarely, if ever, has more real and spontaneous bravery been displayed than the heroic deed of the girl Saturday night. Though she risked her own life in the attempt, she did not hesitate to plunge into the water to aid those who needed her aid.

She is said to be of a retiring and retiring disposition, and heartily averse to the sudden fame which has come upon her as the result of her bravery. And indeed she has not thought of her own actions, as unusual or worthy of special mention, for she is grieved at the death of her cousin, Mildred Long, who was drowned.

It is considered likely that the facts surrounding the rescue of her father and uncle will be forwarded to the committee in charge of the hero fund and a thorough investigation will be made by that body. Such medals as are distributed by the Carnegie fund committee have been awarded to many women and to a few girls; but never on the Pacific Coast is it thought has there been a case more worthy of commemoration.

Captain Hosford unhesitatingly declares that he owes his life to his daughter, Mrs.

ELKS ALL OF ONE MIND

NO FIGHT FOR OFFICES POSSIBLE IN GRAND LODGE.

All Contests Adjusted Beforehand.

Next Session Probably at Los Angeles—Northwest Delegates.

DALLAS, Tex., July 13.—(Special.)—The preliminary session, somewhat erroneously called the opening, of the grand lodge of Elks, has just closed and the streets of Dallas are thronged by visitors and its citizens, while numerous brass bands and other concomitants of an Elks convention have a tendency to keep the excitement at fever.

This grand lodge session will be a monument of unanimity. Contests for political honors have been amicably adjusted and probably the only ripple of excitement will be caused by the opposing claims of Los Angeles and Detroit for the next grand lodge session. As it looks tonight, Los Angeles will be a sure winner.

R. L. Haland, of Colorado Springs, will have no opposition as the next grand exalted ruler, while the clerical officers of the grand lodge will be elected by acclamation.

Oregon, Washington and Idaho are well represented, the following being the most prominent: W. S. Levens, Baker City; Judge Galloway, W. C. Smith, Salem; W. B. Sargent, La Grande; Alexander Sweek, Portland; K. C. McCue, Astoria; H. Ordry, Roseburg; William Hickman Moore, Edward von Tobel, Seattle; A. L. Keenan, Q. H. Ludden, Spokane; E. H. Hatch, R. G. Mamsell, Bellingham; H. Palmer, Ellensburg; T. A. Martin, Centralia; Fred Marvin, Tacoma; J. McCall, Everett; J. H. Forney, Moscow; L. S. Keller, Skagway, Alaska.

BOARD WANTS AUTOMOBILE

H. C. Campbell Thinks School Directors Sadly Need One.

H. C. Campbell, a member of the Board of Education, believes the taxpayers should provide an automobile for the members of the board, and he so declared himself yesterday afternoon at the regular session of the directors. Automobiles as a means of conveyance seem to have gotten a strong hold on public officials, as Fire Chief Campbell and City Engineer Taylor have also sought of late to secure one each for their respective departments.

Mr. Campbell's remarks, however, were made more in the spirit of fun yesterday afternoon. Still, his report on matters assigned to his committee for attention revealed the fact that it requires much time and a great deal of streetcar riding to perform the duties of a school director in a large city like Portland.

When it comes to purchasing automobiles, however, the members of the fire committee of the executive board, as well as Mayor Lane and Fire Chief Campbell, have learned that it is no easy matter. There are so many points to be considered that it becomes a delicate task to select a machine, especially as each automobile represented is the best.
