HONEST NEED HAVE NO FEAR

Kern Says Democratic Party Will

Not Injure Lawabiding.

CHICAGO, July 15 .- John W. Kern, Democratic candidate for the Vice-Presiency, arrived here today from Lancoln, Neb., on his way home from the Denver convention. He announced that National headquarters soon would be opened in this city. Mr. Kern was accompanied by Thomas Taggart, chairman of the Demo-cratic National committee; Urey Wood-son, secretary, and others. The party left this afternoon for Indianapolis, where his townsmen have prepared a fitting welcome for the Vice-Presidential no In an interview at his hotel, Mr. Kern declared that "confidence would restore the open factory to the unemployed of the country," and that "honest corporations had nothing to fear from the Demo cratic party." He professed to see in the anti-injunction plank of the Democratic platform a conservative suggestion in line with the procedure of the state courts in many states.

He explained that the reason why the Democratic party will this year decline campaign contributions from corporations because "no corporation has the power to make contributions to any campaigu unless it is so stated in its charter."

BRYAN'S FIRST QUIET DAY

Will Make Campaign Tour-Views

on Vice-Presidency.

FAIRVIEW, Lincoln, July 15 .- Politi aspicuously absent today from Fairview, the nome of William J. Bryan, and in consequence the Demo cratic nominee, for the Presidency spent very quiet time. Except for two or three neighbors who called in the early morning, there were no visitors and Mr. Bryan was enabled to take up some of his most important correspondence and dis nose of it. As yet, ne has not began the preparation of his speech of acceptance and the probabilities are that he will not do so until Mr. Taft's address is delivered. The question of whether or not he will make an extended campaign tour is one which Mr. Bryan is now considering. He which Mr. Bryan is now considering. He said today, however, that the matter had not been sufficiently developed for him to make any statement regarding it. The belief is general here, though, that he contemplates the delivery of a number of addresses in various parts of the country. His first trip away from home since his nomination will be made on July 24, when he will go to Chicago for a conference the with the subcommittee of the next day National committee which yostorday was authorized to select a National chairman

JOKE ON LANDLUBBERS

Them Flect-In Dishpan.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15. - (Spe clai.)-Every five minutes during the voyage of the steamship Korea from the Orient to this port, First Officer James J. Rudder was asked the question: "When do you think we will see the fleet." He determined that passengers should no longer be kept in suspense and, with the aid of pocketknife and cigar boxes he constructed a ministure pavy afloat in a dishpan. Word was then passed around that those wishing to we the fleet should leave word to be called at 4 A. M. Almost every pas senger resignded, and Rudder's navy received a rousing send off.

Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock the joke was forgotten in cheering Uncle Sam's gallant array of real battleships.

Sure He Killed Right Man.

Dies Cursing Priests.

At 8:30 o'clock, everything being in eadiness, the warden's assistants approached Alla's cell and led the condemned man to the execution house where the black cap and noose were adjusted by the Deputy Warden. During this proceedure Alia became frantic and rent the air with yells and curses against the priesthood, shouting"

"Long live Italy; long live the Protestants."

Alia was placed upon the trap, Chaplain Blake, of the prison, uttered a short prayer, the dripping water of the automechanism released the great matic weight and at exactly $20 the hady was perked into the air. Unfortunately, his neck was not broken, owing to the slipping of the rope, and he died of strangulation. After 19 minutes, Alia's body was cut down and he was pronounced dead.

ALIA'S HORRIBLE CRIME TOLD

Murdered Priest in Act of Adminis-

Guiseppe Alla's grime, the murder of Father Leo Heinrichs, of the order of Franciscan monks, at the altar rail in St Elizabeth's church in Denver, while the priest was administering the sacra-ment of the Eucharist, struck horror to the heart of every merson in Denver and awakened anxiety throughout the Catholic world lest it should prove the beginning of a general plan of priest murder. to the heart of every person in Denver

Alia had been in Denver several weeks, unemployed and apparently pennices. Early on the morning of Sunday, February 23, according to his story, he was aroused from sleep by the ringing of the chimes in St. Eliz-abeth's church. He arose drassed him-self hurriedly and walked out to the church led by the musical tones pealchurch led by the musical louse peat-ing forth a call to worship. But he went not with thought of thanksgiving in mind, for he declared and many times repeated after his arrest that the chimes recalled alleged wrongs ex-perienced in his native Itally, and attributed by him to the church
