

WAIVER IS ASKED TO BOND ACTION

City Officials Can Then Get Into Action on Various Improvements.

WATER EXTENSION URGENT

Madison Bridge Issue Is Urgent While Public Docks Can Wait and Park Board Is Not in a Hurry.

City Attorney Kavanaugh desires to secure from Judge Smith a consent for Francis J. McKenna in the suit against the municipality in the bond issue, a waiver of further court action. If this is secured, immediate action can be taken to carry the bond issues and various amendments into effect, without the delay of 30 days allowed the plaintiff under the law for a writ of mandamus in the Supreme Court. Judge Smith is out of town at present on a fishing trip but is expected back today or tomorrow.

No Official Notification Yet.

Because of the uncertainty of the intentions of Judge Smith, City Attorney Kavanaugh is unable formally to notify the various city boards, Mayor Lane and the heads of departments and all officials concerned, and they are unable to act until such notification is received. Owing to the lack of official information, Mayor Lane is unable to make any definite statement, everything being held in abeyance until City Attorney Kavanaugh makes written report as to the status of each feature of the water works.

Inasmuch as there is so much detail work connected with all of the improvements included in the bond issues, progress will be slow. Every step will have to be taken carefully and nothing definite will be announced until the various city boards have met and formulated plans for action, even after City Attorney Kavanaugh acts the legal status of the matter all clear and certifies it to them.

There is a great demand for more water all over the city and the water works territory lying beyond the corporate limits, so that, it is believed, the Water Board will desire to push the installation of the new pipeline, which is provided a bond issue of $2,000,000. It is not believed all this sum will be required.

The necessity for a bridge at Madison street is so great that it is believed prompt action will be taken on that matter, when the legal phase of the case is settled. Plans and specifications must be made and bids sought, all of which takes much time, and it is believed through which the matter must go will carry it along for an indefinite time.

Public Docks Probably Last.

The matter of public docks is the least discussed of any of the features provided for by the bond issues, and will probably be the last thing undertaken, it is said. Speaking for the Park Board, relative to the boulevard and park system provided for in the bond issue, of $1,000,000, Isadore Lang said:

"The Park Board had no specific plans outlined for the boulevard and park system, as we dropped all of the matters connected with that when suit was filed. We have done nothing on the matter since, but will probably discuss it, at least informally, at our next meeting. Whatever is done will be done through order boulevard, to be assessed to a district, as in the amendment governing street improvements. However, City Attorney Kavanaugh states, if the cost is too great, portions of the fund provided for in the bond issue can be used. In this manner, it is explained, much work can be done on the boulevard and park line with the $1,000,000.

SEES PROSPERITY AHEAD.

James Speyer, Banker, Says Situation Is Gradually Improving.

NEW YORK, July 15.—James Speyer, who sails today on the Adriatic on his annual European trip, has this to say about the business output:

"Everybody knows that the financial and business situation has improved during the last few months, and I believe it will continue to improve as confidence continues to be restored. Judging from the past the election of Mr. Taft seems a reasonable certainty. The political situation, therefore, ought not to be too much of a disturbing factor, the more so as the ill-considered attacks on capital do not find the same favor with the people as they did a little while ago. The crop prospects also are fair, and the easier money and credit situation should have a favorable influence on the revival of business generally. Some important matters, especially in relation to railways, remain to be adjusted, but I look forward to a gradual and steady return to normal business activities, and, barring unforeseen events, I expect to find when I come home, two or three months hence, that there will be less idle cars and less unemployed men in Wall Street and elsewhere in the country."

Glucose Works to Resume.

DAVENPORT, Ia., July 15.—The Davenport Glucose Works will resume work August 1 after a lay-off of three months, re-employing 700 men.

MOVE IS MADE FOR PEACE

United Mine Workers Come Bearing Olive Branch.

DENVER, July 15.—Thomas Lewis, president of the United Mineworkers of America, accompanied by L. L. Lawson and Duncan McDonald, members of the executive board, and James J. Moneys, National organizer of the United Mine workers, appeared before the convention of the Western Federation of Miners here this evening and appealed for closer relations between the two organizations. Lewis requested the Western Federation not to receive any more coal miners into its union and promised that his organization would in return assist in organizing metalliferous mines.

President Moneys, of the Federation, replied, said that he personally favored closer relations between the two organizations and pledged himself to do all in his power to bring about such a condition.

The executive board was ordered by the convention to meet with the United Mineworkers' officials Saturday afternoon in an attempt to bring about a working agreement. The principal difference between the two organizations is the contract system. The United Mineworkers enter into contracts with operators, while the Western Federation does not allow its members to make contracts.

Congratulate Steve Adams.

A message was received announcing the acquittal of Steve Adams at Grand Junction on the charge of murder and the secretary was ordered to send the following:

"The Western Federation of Miners, in convention assembled, congratulates you and each and all rejoice in your complete vindication from the foul charges of Bulkeley Wells and his conspirators."

The convention then adjourned in honor of Adams' acquittal.

The annual report of Ernest Mills, secretary-treasurer, shows that the organization lost 500 members during the past year. The total membership January 1, this year, was 23,115. Mr. Mills attributes the loss of members to the existing industrial conditions. The report shows total collections by the local unions of $2,195.84 and expenditures of $22,853. It shows total receipts by the parent organization, together with last year's balance in bank of $22,573, and expenditures of $22,123. The latter amount $298.28 was expended in the defense of Moyer, Haywood, Pettibone and Adams on murder charges.

Thousands for Defense.

During the year outside contributions were made to the defense fund to the amount of $79,461.

Sixty-six new locals were organized during the year and 29 either disbanded or affiliated with some other union.

James Kilman, who was acting secretary-treasurer while Haywood was in jail, submitted his report this afternoon. He recommends that officers of the local unions give bonds through the parent organization instead of bonding companies, and that all unions secure depository bonds before depositing money in banks.

Explosion Kills Seven

Anthracite Mine Wrecked by Miner's Carelessness.

Dead Men Found Battered Into Unrecognizable Mass—Ten Injured.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., July 15.—Seven mine workers were killed and ten others injured today by a terrific explosion of gas in the Williamstown colliery of the Summit Branch Mining Company in the lower part of the anthracite field. The mine was wrecked and set on fire.

The known dead: JAMES BOWMAN, CHARLES RICKERT, JOHN WHITE, BERLEY, STAKUM, ARTHUR HAWK.

The explosion occurred in No. 1 shaft of the colliery, and is believed to have been caused by one of the men lifting the lid of his safety lamp just after the explosion of a shot which brought down a large body of coal. The explosion shook the entire colliery.

The work of rescue was immediately begun when volunteers were called for, almost every man at the workings offered his services, which meant a hazardous trip into the burning mine.

The foot of the shaft the injured were found, they having rushed toward the entrance only to fall unconscious. All of the dead were found a short distance from the shaft, battered and burned into an almost unrecognizable mass.

There were scenes of wildest confusion as women and children gathered about, screaming and crying, and as each body was brought to the surface there was a rush by the crowd to ascertain the identity of the one recovered and whether he was alive or dead.

Wireless communication between the vessels of the fleet will be suspended between the hours of 7 A. M. and 10 P. M. except in emergency matters, so as not to interfere with the inter-island system.

The British collier, Bucrania, which has coal for the fleet, will be ordered to Malua Bay in the absence of orders from the vessel owners. These were secured and the collier sailed today for Malua Bay.

A wireless message from the flagship Connecticut, received here at 3:30 o'clock this morning, says that at 8 o'clock last night the Atlantic fleet was in latitude 24:10 north; longitude 152:32 west, a distance from Honolulu of 340 miles. The weather was fine.

DISGUISED AS PREACHERS

Two Agents of Mexican Junta Captured at Vanegas.

MEXICO CITY, July 15.—The recent uprisings in the northern part of Mexico were incited by two Mexican agents of the junta in the United States, who traveled disguised as Baptist ministers. These men, Eulalio Trevino and Cosme Pena, were recently captured at the town of Vanegas, in the state of Baja California. They were brought to this city and confession was finally forced from them. According to the admissions in the depositions taken, Eulalio Trevino was president of a Mexican revolutionary club in San Antonio which was subsidiary to the junta at St. Louis. He came to Mexico under the name of Leopoldo Villareal, accompanied by Cosme Pena, another of the revolutionaries, both passing as preachers and holding meetings before small congregations in the states of Coahuila and San Luis Potosi. After these meetings love feasts were held, in which only the elect remained, so as to keep the authorities blind as to their real purposes. Trevino and Pena were in direct communication with Magon, the leader now in the United States, and from time to time sent him remittances from collections made. Judge Prezelton, however, has brought out confessions from them that a portion of their collections were actually applied to their own use and that they were using the money with Magon to assist themselves in robbery.

Important discovery was the key which Trevino had to a secret code believed to be that which Magon uses in communication with his Mexican following. Other documents have been found, the nature of which will not be made public, but the information contained therein will be made use of largely when Mexico is brought into line for the extradition of the participants in the recent raids in Coahuila.

The political situation was discussed by Mr. Brooker and the President. With Charles Scribner, the President had a talk regarding the publication of his writings on the African hunting trip. The President's guests departed during the afternoon.

REBELS SURROUND CEIBA

Important Port Likely to Fall Into Their Hands.

NEW ORLEANS, July 15.—The Picayune today says:

"Surrounded by nearly a thousand rebels, and with only 500 soldiers to guard it, half of which are to be used at a moment's notice, Ceiba, one of the principal seaports on the eastern coast of Honduras, is expected to fall into the hands of the rebels any day. This was the story brought to New Orleans yesterday evening by Elias Maestri, a merchant of Ceiba, who was the sole passenger aboard the steamship Joseph Vasquez. "The question of smuggling has had a good deal to do with the discontent of the people in and about Ceiba with the David administration. Ex-President Bonilla, to some extent, is said to have tolerated smuggling. There was a little cove near Ceiba where the only occupation of the people was to unload goods that had been brought in without payment of duty. Davila put a stop to this practice."

RELATION SEVERELY STRAINED

Nicaragua Suspects Guatemala of Killing Her Citizens.

MEXICO CITY, July 15.—Correspondence made public yesterday shows that the most strained relations exist between the republics of Nicaragua and Guatemala. A letter from the State Department of Nicaragua to the government of Guatemala, bearing date of June 2, inquires as to the truth of the report, received by the order of President Cabrera of Dr. Carlos A. Valdez and Senor Manuel Garcia Ochoa, two Nicaraguan citizens. To this President Cabrera has replied that the men had not been shot. June 5 the Nicaraguan government answered that Cabrera's reply was unsatisfactory and asked of the men had been executed in any other way than by shooting. In this same letter, Nicaragua assures President Cabrera that she will not accept Guatemala's invitation to send delegates to the Pan-American Medical Congress which meets in Guatemala City this month under a written guarantee is given that they will be given safe conduct out of the country at the close of the session.

A physician cauterized the wound and Nolan seemed to be recovering until yesterday morning. Then symptoms of lockjaw began to develop. An ambulance took the boy to the Norwegian Hospital and an operation was performed. Then tetanus antitoxin was injected, but the little fellow could not rally. He died in agony.

LONDON, July 15.—Right Rev. William Awdrey, Anglican Bishop of South Tokio, says:

"The $1,000,000 loaned the exposition the Government has got back $192,946.30. It had been thought the Government's loan was only a lien on the exposition gate receipts, but today's petition, filed by Assistant United States District Attorney Talley claimed that under the specific statute appropriating the loan it comes as a general lien."

From the counter at which she stood when the grocer refused to sell her ink, she took a piece of brown wrapping paper and hastily scribbled a note to her mother, telling her that she was dead and that she was very sorry for it. She said she died because the butcher and the grocer would not trust her for the things she was sent after and that she was bad, she knew, but hoped her mother would forgive her.
