BOURNE TO OFFER ADVICE TO TAFT

Ask Him for Pledge Not to Seek Dictation of Successor.

LIKELY TO SUCCEED

Scnator's Mission to Hot Springs Calls Forth Sarcastic Comment Anchored to Patriotism.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Wash-Ington, July 15.—A special dispatch to a Washington paper from Hot Springs announces tonight that Schator Bourne is expected there next week to confer with W. H. Taft in the hope of inducing him to insert in his speech of acceptance a declaration that he will not undertake, if elected, to dictate the selection of his successor. The dispatch adds;

"For Mr. Taft to include such a statement either in his speech or letter of acceptance, it may be retorted, would be an admission by inference, at least, that his own nomination was brought about by Roosevelt dictation. However true this may be, Mr. Taft will not jump at an opportunity publicly to concede the fact."

Reception May Be Cool.

In view of Mr. Bourne's very bitter attacks upon Mr. Taft prior to the conven-tion and his repeated declaration that Mr. Taft, if nominated, would be defeated by Mr. Bryan, the Oregon Senator is not likely to have the heartiest likely to have the heartlest kind of reception at Hot Springs. His efforts to influence the Republican nominee, it is pointed out, does not show entire con-sistency on his part, for if he believes Mr. Taft cannot be elected, he should regard it as immaterial what Mr. Taft's speech of acceptance contains. The Washington Times tonight, editorfally comments on Mr. Bourne's latest interview, describing him as the "Senator from Washington," and says:

Kind Advice to Bourne.

Senator Bourne seems to be as thorsenator bourne seems to be as inor-eughly wrought up on that point as he was over his movement in behalf of a 'second elective term.' However, it is more than possible Senator Bourne will recover, even though Candidate Taft should fail in his letter of acceptance to promise that he will not try to name his successor. Senator Bourne says he anchors his faith to the intelligent patriotism of the American electorate. If he will anchor far enough off shore to get the benefit of the cooling breezes, he will feel better ere the real campaign begins."

BOURNE RECONCILED TO TAFT

Will Visit Candidate at Hot Springs. Vorys Sure of Ohio.

HOT SPRINGS, Va., July 15.-Senator HOT SPRINGS. Va., July 15.—Senator Jonathan Bourne, of Oregon, the original second elective term advocate, will be in Hot Springs in the near future. His visit is accepted as indicating that he is thoroughly reconciled to Mr. Taft's nomination. He had insisted upon a second elective term for President Roosevelt. The coming here today of Arthur I. Verys, who has been in charge of the Ohio campaign, is accepted as indicating that he regards the Ohio situation as demanding prompt attention. Mr. Verys manding prompt attention. Mr. Vorys stated that, in his judgment, Ohio is perfectly safe for the Republican ticket. A conference was held this afternoon.

I write this either that these inhuman deeds may be stopped or that my connection with them may be snapped and I be put in prison, where I may be clearly conscious that these horrors are not committed on my own behalf—or still better (so good that I may not dare even dream of such happiness) that they may put on me and on those they may put on me and on those twenty or twelve peasants a shroud and a cap and may push me also off a bench so that by my own weight I may tighten the well-scaped noise around my old throat."

After describing wholesale execu-tions in grewsome detail, Count Tolstof

They arrange to do these things secretly at daybreak, and they so subdivide the responsibility for these iniquities among those who commit them that each may disclaim responsibility; and not these dreadful things alone are done, but all sorts of other tortures and violence are perpetrated in the prisons, fortresses and convict establishments, not impulsively, under the sway of feeling silencing reason, as happens in fights or in war, but, on the contrary, at the demand of reason and calculation silencing feeling. Tolstoi, instancing the shocking spread of greed among officials to obtain money by executing condemned prisoners, says:
"Awful as are the deeds themselves, the moral and spiritual unseen evil they produce is incomparably more terrible."

With regard to the government's contention that there is no other way to suppress the revolutionists, Count Toistol, while admitting that the revolutionist crimes are stupid and reprehensible in the highest degree, accuses the government of doing the same thing for the same motive, and adds.

"All the revolutionists' bombing and murders do not come anywhere near the criminality and stupidity of the deeds the government commits."

Toistol urges at length that both the revolutionists and the Russian government are pursuing the same objects by the same criminal means, and that if there is any difference it is in favor of

Guest at Seattle Hotels Finds Valuable Diamonds Gone.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 15 .- (Special.)-Miss Edna Smith, of Mount Pleasant, Ia. is mourning the loss of diamonds valued at $500 which were missing when she opened her trunk at the Butler, one of the leading hotels of the city, to get them. Whether they were stolen or were lost the police have not determined. Miss Simth is now on her way to Alaska on a pleasure trip. She arrived with some friends and registered at the Butler Thursday of last week. She had come west over the Canadian Pacific.

A day or two after she arrived one of the employes of the hotel asked her for the employes of the hotel asked her for her trunk key saying that a customs official desired to examine her belongings. The next day Miss Smith searched her trunk for her diamonds, which were in a small chamols bag, but both bag and gems were gone. One side of the trunk had been broken in transit and it is regarded as possible that the valuables were lost in that manner.

Miss Smith while here visited at the home of Mrs. H. S. Nettleston, wife of a prominent business man. Mrs. Nettleton turned the matter over to an attorney who placed it in the hands of the palice.

Three-Mile Team Race.

From the American point of view the most intresting event of the day was the three-mile team race. This was won by England with comparative ease, with America an easy second. [The 200-meter breast-stroke swimming match, of which seven heats were de-cided today, also afforded some good sport. There was only one American contestant in this event. A. M. Goessling, Missouri A. C., but he found Perrison, Sweden, and Baronyl, Hungary, too fast

The Americans present were again in the preliminary heat of the five-mile run, H. R. Bellars, New York A. C., qualify-ing for the final heat by finishing sec-ond to Voight, of England, in the second heat. Edward P. Carr. of the Xavier A. C., New York, got second place in his heat in this event. The result of this heat came as a great surprise, as Sweden had not been counted upon to figure in the distance runs.

Sweden May Win It.

The ease with which J. E. Svanberg and Mandquist, Swedish runners, won their heats and the reserve they displayed in the final spurts, makes it look as though England will have difficulty in holding her own in the final. Both Swedes outclassed their opponents, being as far ahead of the second man as was Voight.

A pleturesque touch was added to the scene in the arena today by the pretty gymnastic display given by the Danish women, the individual and team gymnastic exhibitions between Finland, France and Sweden and the water polo between Holland and Belgium. Americans Are Confident.

NEW YORK, July 18.—"In spite of all handicaps, the Yankee team will win."

This message, received in New York from James Sullivan, American Commissioner to Olympic games at London, has done much to cheer up the members of the various athletic clubs, who feared that the method of drawing for places in heats in the various events would prove a great disadvantage to the Americans. The victories of Melvin W. Sheppard, in the 1500 meter run, and John J. Flanagan, in the hammer throw, at the Olympic games were enthusiastically received in athletic direles in this city. Both athletes are members of the Irish-American A. C., and the quarters of the organization presented a lively appearance last night, the clubhouse being filled and bulletins on the event eagerly sought.

"I want to congratulate Portland upon having secured the location of (Swift & Co.) Union Meat Co.'s packing plant. . . . Swift & Co. have made Fort Worth, my home city, their packing center for the Southwest. . . . Since the location of the packing plants Fort Worth has considerably more than doubled in its population while its business has increased 300 per cent."

The general prosperity of a community is reflected in the bank accounts of the individuals. What the great packing industry has done for Fort Worth will be repeated and emphasized in Portland. The Union Meat Co. is distinctly a home industry, through which millions of eastern capital will flow into Portland and Oregon channels.

Choicest facilities make choicest products: the Union Meat Co., under Federal inspection, provides retailers with the highest grade, finest quality, most wholesome, Oregon grown, fresh meats. Their Columbia Brand hams and bacon, U. S. Inspected, cannot be surpassed.
