Angels Can Squeeze Only One Run Over With Garrett in the Box.

JOHNSON GETS THREE HITS

Los Angeles Stops Offensive Coaching From the Bench-Kinsella Will Try to Make It Two Straight This Afternoon.

BY W. J. PETRAIN.

Jesse Garrett, the little giant from Texas, was the real unhittable hit against the Angelic horde yesterday, and the sum total of the visitors' efforts with the club netted one lone tally while Portland pounded Hans Hosp for seven aces. It was a most popular victory for the home team, for the sympathy of the entire crowd was with Portland's courageous and capable little twirler and nearly every present was greatly disappointed when Los Angeles finally scored one, as would have placed Garrett in line for a shutout record had he succeeded in blanking the visitors yesterday. As was they failed to score until the eighth, and the seven ciphers added to the 13 innings against San Francisco gave the little Portlander 20 innings wherein no runs had been secured off hir

Nine Men Up in Three Innings.

Garrett mowed the Angels down in one two-three order for two innings and only three men faced him in the third; a fast double play retiring Easterly, who had singled. Hosp did similarly until the forth, when the home guard started things. Casey was out, Delmas to Wheeler, but Ryan gained the first perch on a scratchy hit. Baftery laced one for two sacks, but took three when the at tempt was made to get Ryan, who scored at the plate. Johnson came through with a timely bingle and Raftery registered. Danzig went out and McCredie walked Hosp hit Bassey and the sacks were loaded. Madden flied to Wheeler and the inning was over. With two down in the fifth Ryan tripled but Raftery skied to Oakes and he was left.

fielded it nicely in time to hold Ryan at third. Danzig shoved a fast one past Jud Smith, on which Ryan and Raftery registered. McCredle hit to Delmas, who threw to catch Johnson at the plate, but Easterly dropped the ball and the fourth run for the inning counted. Bassey lined one to Delmas, who doubled Danzig at third. It was a beautiful stop and his play was roundly applauded. Madden's out ended the inning with McCredie on second. The eighth inning witnessed the An-

of Hosp's two-bagger to left. Oakes' out at first and Wheeler's grass-burner just out of Johnson's reach. That was all for the Angels, for the little Portlander was all to the good at every stage of the

While he hit in hard luck during the ame, Bassey made his presence known taking three long flies neartly in the left veldt. The work of Johnson and Casey around the middle station was as snappy and gingery as has ever been seen on the Portland diamond. The duo participated in two speedy double plays that assisted materially in encouraging Garrett.

No Coaching From the Benches.

One welcome feature of yesterday's engagement was the fact that neither team indulged in the offensive tactics of coach-ing from the bench. Umpire O'Connell must have read the riot act to the players must have read the riol act to the players before the game was started and if he will continue this policy, the fans will appreciate his efforts immensely.

Nagle or Thorsen will sinb it for Los Angeles today, while McCredie will probably send big Eddle Kinsella against the visitors in order to make it two straight.

Tacoma danced away with the game today in jig time, 6 to 1, Carson being too

Bassey forced McCredie at second. Madden secured a flukey hit, but Garrett's effort was a fly to Cakes.

At this eight large barns already built. At this meeting J. W. Balley, State Dairy and Pure Food Commissioner and one of the directors of the association, will urge the necessity of establishing temporary arrangements, at least, for the display of a tights, carrying a silver tube containing a message from Mayor McClellan to Mayor Busse, of Chicago, darted away up Broadway on the first relay of a 1900-mile journey to Chicago. Herbert H, Rapp was the runner. Mr. McClellan's message was as follows: dairy exhibit in connection with the live-stock show. Mr. Balley deciares it will be a great mistake if the association does not harken to the appeal of the dairy interests of the state, which are clamoring for an opportunity to show the products of their industry as well as the show herds themselves. Commissioner Bailey believes it will be possible to install an exhibit According to the schedule, the message will reach Chicago on Tuesday, July 21.

Two thousand boys will take part in the race. Each runner will carry the message half a nulle. Perhaps the most apectacular feature will be the swimming of Lake Cayuga by the boys of the Auburn, N. Y., deportment.

The second day of the Oregon State champlonship tennis tournament was a decidedly interesting series of contests, for many excellent and extremely hard-fought games were witnessed by the large crowd of admirers of the sport who assembled at the Irvington Tennis Club's courts. The feature event of the day was the defeat of W. A. Goss, Portland's crack player, by W. A. McBurney, of Spokane. Other equally interesting matches were played, and some were even harder fought, but the prominence of these two players attracted the greatest interest to their match.

Goss suffered defeat by the score of 5-3, 5-4. McBurney was able to pass Goss at will, and his cross-court playing was nearly perfect, but Goss, trying to take the net with the poor service he has against a man of McBurney's class, left McBurney with a clean pass to his credit nearly every time Goss came up.

Mrs. Walter M. Cook and W. A. Mc Burney won a three-set match from Miss S. Fording and L. R. Freeman with the score of 4-8, 6-4, 7-5. This is probably one of the best matches in mixed doubles that has been seen in Portland, and the interest taken in the match was at fever heat. The ladies both played extremely well, but Mrs. Waiter Cook was much steadier at critical times than her opponent, and this was no small factor in the result of this match.

this was no small factor in the result of this match.

L. R. Freeman and J. F. Ewing defeated Percy Gardiner and C. J. Hall, the team entered from the Everett Tennis Club, by the score of 6-1, 6-3. The match was a great deal closer than the score indicates and Gardiner and Hall played in great form at times.

The ladies serving refreshments were Mrs. Walter M. Cook assisted by Mrs. Raiph W. Hoyt. Mrs. Fred Jacoba, Miss Lillie Fox and Miss Margaret Catlin.

Tonight is given up to an automobile ride for all the visiting players and tomorrow evening is the big tennis ball, the patronesses of which are Mrs. Jay Hamilton, Mrs. George W. McMillan and Mrs. Ralph W. Wilbur.
