Suit for Balance on Timber Bill.

The Pelton Armstrong Company has brought suit against the North Pacific Lumber Company to recover $1395.47, balance due on a timber bill. It is alleged that between April and June the Pelton Company sold the lumber firm 274 yellow fir logs, containing 674,510 feet of lumber, at $8 a thousand feet, making a total of $5396.47.

CONFERENCE FOR DISTRICT

CHURCH OF BRETHREN OPENS CONVENTION TODAY.

Oregon, Washington and Idaho Are Represented—Meeting Will Continue Over Wednesday.

The annual conference of the Church of the Brethren for the district of Oregon, Washington and Idaho will open this morning at 9 o'clock in the First Church, on Killingsworth avenue, to continue till Wednesday.

Prefer Route Out Broadway.

The consensus of opinion of the Councilmen seemed to be that the most feasible proposition from an operating standpoint, as well as in view of other considerations, is to run the public-trace line straight out on Broadway to Twenty-second and thence to Knott. However, the residents of the two districts seem unable to agree upon either plan.

View Line to Peninsula.

From Irvington, the party rode to North Albina, to Killingsworth avenue and Fulton street, where they inspected the proposed line, which will run from that point north to the townsite of the Swift Packing Company, on the Peninsula.
