

ACCUSED PRINCE DEFENDS HIMSELF

Zu Eulenberg Says Witness Terrorized Into Making Charges.

KISTLER'S GREAT SERVICES

He Excuses Excessive Interest in Man on Ground of Valuable Work—Extravagant Language Written to Emperor.

BERLIN, July 16.—Prince Philip zu Eulenberg's condition is such that the court which is trying him was obliged to adjourn today after brief session. The Prince was brought into court on a stretcher, his every appearance indicating suffering.

Beginning with today, the presiding judge allowed one newspaper reporter to be present at the trial to supply such accounts of the testimony as are not inconsistent with the public morality. The Prince, in a weak and shaky voice, replied to questions put to him by the court.

"How do you explain Ernst's testimony concerning your conduct with him?" inquired the judge.

"Ernst is for me a psychological puzzle," answered the Prince.

"I know there are bad men," commented the judge, "but in this case you would have it appear that you are an angel and Ernst a devil."

"I certainly am no angel," replied Zu Eulenberg, "and I have many weaknesses. My best qualities have been expressed, I think, by enthusiastic friendships and generous acts, but unfortunately even these qualities are twisted by the world into meanness and filth. The advice of the day is to be egotistic to the very bones."

When asked to explain the rapid promotion of Herr Kistler, a court councillor, to whom the Prince was unusually friendly, the Prince related at length Kistler's services as his private secretary, his gift for letter-writing and his ability in indexing documents, etc.

REVEALS BIG GRAFT

Regenerationist Leader Turns on Light in Portugal.

CARLOS NOT ONLY THIEF

Influential Government Officials, Courtiers and Nobles Participated in Shameless Looting of the Kingdom's Treasury.

LISBON, July 16.—The crowning scandal of the Portuguese "Panama" has been brought out by the publication of a long list of names of influential government officials, generals, court dignitaries and members of the nobility who, like the late King Carlos, received illegal advances from the state treasury. According to the newspapers, General Craya, Costa and Lopez each received $2,000. The Portuguese Minister to Berlin, who was recalled by ex-Premier Franco, drew 20 years salary in advance. The total of these illegal payments reaches several million dollars.

The cabinet intrigues here continue, although a crisis has been averted by the clever tactics of Sencho, the leader of the Regenerationists. One branch of the Regenerationists was trying to oust the Progressives, who divide the government with them, by exposing Finance Minister Espregueira. At this stage Castro turned the tables by furnishing the newspapers with information showing that all Progressist Ministers of Finance who have held office since 1890 also were guilty of the misuse of public funds.

MARY BAKER EDDY IS 87
Founder of Christian Science Celebrates Birthday Quietly.

NEWTON, Mass., July 16.—Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, founder and head of the Christian Science Church, today reached her 87th year, but beyond congratulations from members of the household and officials of the church, there was no observance of the event. Mrs. Eddy is reported in good health and maintains the same routine which has governed her life at Concord, N. H., during the past several years.

India is buying many more American windmills as the result of wider and more persistent canvassing for orders. An Illinois manufacturer is shipping a carload (40 mills) to Bombay for use on the west coast of India.

While the clerks were casting up the result of the ballot great confusion prevailed in the hall, bands of demonstrators parading up and down, shouting wildly for their respective candidates. It was fully 15 minutes before quiet was restored.

As soon as the result was announced Dr. Cranfill announced that he desired to withdraw and asked his friends to cast their votes for Palmore. The second ballot was then taken, resulting as follows: Wheeler, 37; Sheen, 157; Palmore, 48; Tracey, 81; Chaffin, 226; Manierre, 121; O. W. Stewart, 47; necessary to choice, 544.

BONI WANTS HIS CHILDREN

ALSO ASKS FOR LIBERAL SUM FOR MAINTENANCE.

SAYS PRINCE HELLE UNFIT ASSOCIATE and Condemns Princess for Traveling With Him.

PARIS, July 16.—Count Boni de Castellane today formally filed suit for revision of the decree of divorce granted against him by his wife, who was Miss Anna Gould, of New York, such as will give him custody of his three children. The hearing has been set for July 27.

The principal ground set forth by Count Boni is that the past record of the Princess de Sagan marks him as unworthy to be in close relationship to the children. The conduct of the Princess in traveling with the Prince prior to the marriage of the pair also is involved. If allowed to remain with the De Sagens, the summons declares the children would be brought up to dislike their father.

As a corollary, the Count asks the court to order the mother of the children to contribute $20,000 annually toward the maintenance of each child. M. Chard, attorney for the Princess de Sagan, had this comment to make: "Count Boni's modest request for $20,000 a year is a sufficient commentary upon this suit."

M. Chard anticipates a long legal fight, but he is convinced that the Princess will win. As much time will be required to prepare the case, it possibly will not be argued before the Fall term of the court.

Grading Camps Are Moved.
HILLSBORO, Or., July 16.—(Special.)—The grading camps of the Oregon Electric Company have been moved westward from this city, and are now between Cornelius and Forest Grove, awaiting the settlement of rights of way to commence work. It is said by the company's officials that all rights of way are pledged, except through two or three farms.

SCANDAL IN THE A. O. U. W.

WISCONSIN GRAND LODGE SUES THE SUPREME LODGE.

Charges Misappropriation of Guarantee Fund of $427,973 and Failure to Pay Claims.

DES MOINES, July 16.—Illegal transactions, shady business deals and violation of trusts were charged against the Supreme Lodge of the A. O. U. W. by the Grand Lodge of Wisconsin in a lawsuit involving a million dollars, filed in the District Court here yesterday.

"DRY" TICKET IS CHOSEN

An extended debate followed, which finally resulted in the restoration of the rules and a ballot for the Vice-Presidency. Three men were named—Professor Watkins, T. D. Bonaroe, of Kentucky, and Charles S. Holter, of Indiana. Then the ballot resulted in the nomination of Professor Watkins by an overwhelming majority, and he was immediately made the unanimous choice of the convention.

Both Candidates for Governor.

Both the Presidential and Vice-Presidential nominees are candidates for Governor in their respective states on the Prohibition ticket.
