FIRST BIG CONTRACT LET

PORTLAND FIRM WILL BUILD SWIFT PLANT FOUNDATION.

Involves Expenditure of About $70,000—Must Be Completed Within Ninety Days.

Contracts were signed yesterday by the Union Meat Company for the construction of the foundations for the main building of the big Swift packing plant on the Peninsula, the Portland Bridge & Building Company being the lucky bidders. The structure itself will have cost about $200,000 when completed. The contract for the foundations involves an expenditure of about $70,000. Supervising Architect F. J. Leonard yesterday advised President Wakefield of the successful company of the awarding of the contract to his firm and work will be started on the foundations next Tuesday. The terms of the contract are that the foundations shall be completed within the next 90 days and President Wakefield says there will be no difficulty in carrying out the terms of the contract. The construction company has matters so well in hand that the preliminary work may be begun at once. Wharves and tramways will be built to facilitate the delivery of materials for the foundation on the ground. Work on the permanent foundation structure will be begun not later than two weeks from yesterday.

The ground floor of the new building will be at least 25 feet above low water mark. Within the next two months the river will be at its lowest stage and this will greatly facilitate the placing of the foundations. The main building will be 200x150 feet with a wing 120x75 feet and portions of the building will be four, five and six stories high. Bids have been submitted for the foundations for four other buildings that are only a very little smaller than the main structure. Contracts for this work will be let within the next few days.

BRETHREN BEGIN SESSION

ELECT OFFICERS AND ADOPT NEW RULES.

Conference of Northwestern States Decides to Compile History of Sect in This District.

The annual conference of the Church of the Brethren, for the district of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, was called to order yesterday morning in the First Brethren Church, Killingsworth avenue, by S. H. Miller, temporary moderator. J. U. G. Stiveron was elected temporary clerk, after which came the election of officers for the session and ensuing year. L. E. Keltner, of Twin Falls, Idaho, was elected moderator; J. U. G. Stiveron, clerk, and J. S. Sechrist, reading clerk. Moderator Keltner began his duties by asking the co-operation of the conference in transacting business with precision and harmony. A list of rules was then adopted for the regulation of the proceedings. It was declared that no personalities would be allowed in debate. This rule was adopted as a matter of form, as for seventeen years it had not been broken, according to Elder G. C. Carl. The roll of churches was called, and three new ones responded—Olympia, Seattle and Marchette. In all, 28 churches sent delegates to the conference. D. B. Eby, representing the Home Mission Board, announced that in view of the fact that the General Conference had changed the name of the church to the Church of the Brethren, he asked permission to incorporate the Home Mission Board of the Church of the Brethren. Permission was granted and the incorporation papers were prepared and signed at once. The former name of the denomination was the German Baptist Church, but the church became widely known as the Dunkard Church, the change being made by General Conference. After extended discussion the recommendation of the Home Mission Board was adopted providing that S. E. Decker, with headquarters at Ashland, and J. U. G. Stiveron, with headquarters at Centerville, be named conference evangelists. There was opposition from Elder Pullen, of Southern Oregon, who wanted a missionary put into the field and paid by the Home Mission Board. It was voted that the district should make its own assessment by a committee on the per capita of the churches. The most important measure of the day was the adoption of a resolution offered by J. H. Stover; that conference publish the records of the churches of the Northwest, together with a short historical sketch of the forward movement on the Western frontier. The history of each church will be incorporated in the booklet. George C. Carl spoke strongly for the measure before its adoption. A committee of three, one member from Oregon, one from Washington and one from Idaho, will compile the book. At least 1000 copies will be printed. The church leaders present are: Elders D. B. Eby, Sunnyside, Wash.; J. H. Stover, Washington; S. H. Miller, Sunnyside, Wash.; Stephen Johnson, Nez Perce, Idaho; S. E. Decker, Ashland; Charles Barklow, Myrtle Point, Or.; J. C. Neaher, Knappa, Idaho; G. C. Carl, Portland; J. U. G. Stiveron, and J. S. Sechrist. It had been announced that the women of the Church of the Brethren were in rebellion against the bonnet and dress regulations of the sect and threatened to leave the church if these were enforced. However, this is denied by the women. They are attending the conference and wearing the regulation dress. One woman declared that the report that the women had rebelled against the dress regulations of the church was unfounded and that they believed as firmly as ever in the regulations. Next Tuesday night there will be communion, when there will be the feet-washing ceremony, which is held as one of the cardinal practices of this church. The members of the entire conference take their meals in the basement of the church.

TAKES CRAMPS AND SINKS

John Pearson, of Moscow, Drowns in Snake River Near Hanford.

HANFORD, Wash., July 17.—(Special.)—John P. Pearson, who came to Hanford recently from Moscow, Idaho, was drowned in a pond two miles below the Hanford Company's pumping station and 12 miles above Hanford, at 7 o'clock last evening while in swimming. The water was very cold and it is believed he was seized with cramps for he sank only once. The body was recovered and will be shipped today to the Pearson home at Moscow.

Deceased was 24 years old and single. His brother, A. L. Pearson, was employed with him on the canal. He will accompany the remains home. The two brothers and an orchard acreage near Hanford and made their home there.
