JULES IS CAPTURED

Italian Murderer Yields After Sharp Fight.

SURROUNDED BY POSSES

Pursuers Pick Up Trail Through Appearance at Store—Exhausted, Hungry and in Rags After Three Days' Flight.

MARYSVILLE, Cal., July 17.—Exhausted from want of food, his clothes in tatters and himself worn out from tramping the mountains for three days, seeking to evade his pursuers, Adolph Jules, the Italian who last Tuesday shot down and killed two fellow countrymen at a construction camp on the Western Pacific Railway, and attempted to murder the American foreman and his wife, was captured today at Toll Gate by a sheriff's posse in Plumas County after a sharp fight.
Finding himself intercepted and his retreat cut off, Jules opened fire upon the posse with the rifle with which he had shot Antonio Liberatos and Giovanni Pucelini in the Western Pacific camp. He was quickly surrounded and after many shots were exchanged, finding that he could not break through the cordon about him, surrendered to the officers.
To prevent a lynching, the prisoner was hurried to Oroville and placed in jail.
Posse from three counties were in pursuit of Jules since the day of his unprovoked crime, which aroused the entire country in that section. They got on his trail again through his appearing last night at a store at Merrimac, Butte County, and asking for a bottle of beer. He could not get the beer and started towards Quincy, Plumas County.
On receiving this information, Sheriff Chubbuck, who had been at Oroville attending the inquest on Jules' victims, started at once with a posse for Berry Creek, on a motor car of the Western Pacific. From there the posse took horses and cut across the country to meet another posse, which started from Bucks' ranch, Plumas County, headed by two deputy sheriffs.

CALLS BRYAN CHAMELEON

HEARST REFUSES TO CALL OFF HIS INDEPENDENCE PARTY.

Cables Gompers That His Pure Soul Abhors Supporting Discredited and Decadent Democracy.

NEW YORK, July 17.—A cablegram has been received from W. R. Hearst in reply to a message transmitted to Mr. Hearst from Samuel Gompers, stating that in view of the Democratic stand it would be an "act of greatest patriotism for the Independence party to endorse the Democratic platform," and urging him not to run a third ticket, as it would elect Mr. Taft. Mr. Hearst's cablegram follows:
"Paris, July 15.—Tell Mr. Gompers that I am not authorized to speak for the members of the Independence League, but according to my personal standards, a purer patriotism consists in laboring to establish a new party which will be consistently devoted to the interest of the citizenship, and particularly to the advantage and advancement of the producing classes. I do not think the path of patriotism lies in supporting a discredited and decadent old party which has neither conscientious conviction nor honest intention, or endorsing chameleon candidates, who change the color of their political opinion with every varying hue of opportunism. I do not think the best benefit of laboring men lies in supporting that old party because of a sop of false promise when the performance of that party while in power did more to injure labor than all the injunctions ever issued before or since. I have lost faith in the empty professions of an unregenerate Democracy. I have lost confidence in the ability and even in the integrity of its leaders. I do not consider it patriotism to pretend to support that which, as a citizen, I distrust and detest, and I earnestly hope the Independence party will give me an opportunity to vote for candidates that are both able and honest, and for a declaration of principles that is both sound and sincere."
"WILLIAM RANDOLPH HEARST."

Wins Bride by Proxy.

NEW YORK, July 17.—When William Colville, a mining engineer, left Denver, Colo., six months ago to pay a visit to Scotland, Andrew Washburn, his friend for many years, asked him to look out for a bonnie Scotch lassie for him because he wanted to marry a girl from the old country. Mr. Colville promised and while staying in the Highlands this Spring he met Miss Alice Cameron, whom he thought would fill the bill. After showing

KATSURA IS FOR PEACE

New Premier of Japan Outlines His Policy.

TOKYO, July 17.—Marquis Katsura, the new premier and minister of finance of Japan, today outlined the policies to be carried out during the government's administration. Marquis Katsura said:
"The recent change in the cabinet was caused simply on account of the continued ill health of former Premier Saionji, although there may have been other essential reasons necessitating a change of policy toward foreign countries. I need hardly say that my policy will be peaceful. The prime object of it being to maintain peace throughout the world. With this end in view, I will do my best to cultivate and increase Japan's present good relations with other powers. Japan must not be misunderstood in her sincere desire to maintain peace. Anything calculated even in the slightest degree to disturb the peace of the world shall be most scrupulously avoided by me.
"The national finances also will command my utmost attention. The disturbance of Japanese finances on account of the recent war between Japan and Russia must be allayed within the shortest possible time. Redemption bonds more especially those that are unproductive, will receive my first attention. I hope to be able to reduce Japan's finance and thus dispel the abnormal condition now existing. The upbuilding of Japan's economical and commercial development will be one of my most serious endeavors, but in carrying out this policy I shall be most careful to avoid anything calculated to disturb the peaceful relations of the powers. These are the principal objects to be pursued. The adjustment of the national finances and the development of the national resources are two inseparable measures, and therefore shall command my utmost attention and the utmost attention of my government."
"The entire tenor of Marquis Katsura's utterances showed a determination to bring conditions in Japan within the most practical scope, and retrenchment undoubtedly will be the watchword. The Associated Press understands that Marquis Katsura has agreed to reduce the expenditure for armaments "to the lowest possible, without destroying the present establishment."

LEAPS INTO SEA IN STORM

MYSTERIOUS PASSENGER PUZZLES OFFICERS OF PERU.

Steamship From Panama Brings Strange Story—Suspected Revolutionist Escapes to Shore.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 17.—(Special.) Captain Kinnon, of the Pacific Mail steamer Peru, which arrived this morning from Panama, reports that the Peru encountered the same experience as did the Pacific Mail steamer City of Para, arriving here Thursday from Panama. On June 30, while lying at Acapulco, an electrical storm, accompanied by a great volume of rain, descended on the sea. During the height of the storm a strange incident occurred on the Peru. A first-class passenger by the name of Andreas Bogomolof, who boarded the steamer at Corinto, leaped overboard and started to swim to the shore, which was about a mile distant.

The steamer Acapulco was lying some distance away and when the man's plight was seen a boat was lowered and he was brought back to the Peru. He refused to give his reason for jumping overboard, but the officers of the steamer were of the opinion that he was implicated in some way in the trouble prevailing at Guatemala. Once aboard the Peru again, the strange passenger kept to his cabin, and when she stopped at the next port of call, slipped ashore in the dark and was seen no more.
Electrical discharges passed down the vessel's masts during the storm, but beyond putting electric lights out, did no damage to the vessel.
Today and Monday will be positively the last days for discount in East Side gas bills. Portland Gas Company.
