

HOF BRAU GRILLE OPENS TODAY

THE GRILLE, VIEWED FROM ALDER-STREET ENTRANCE.

GENTLEMAN'S CAFE, LOOKING TOWARD SIXTH STREET.

TODAY Portland receives another asset to its many attractive retreats. The formal addition occurs today at noon, when the new Hof Brau Grille and Cafe will be opened in the former location of the Commercial Club at Sixth and Alder streets.

For many weeks a small army of carpenters, painters, plumbers, mechanics and decorators have been busily engaged in transforming the commodious quarters into a modern, up-to-date and thoroughly attractive grille and cafe. Backing this enterprise are Messrs. Fritz Strobel and Charles Barenstecher, who formerly conducted the Louvre, both of whom are well and favorably known as caterers of long and wide experience.

This handsome new establishment will be conducted on the same plan and system of the famous Hof Brau at Munich, which is so delightfully remembered by all Americans who have visited this place while touring Germany.

DECORATIONS ARE ELABORATE.

The new Hof Brau occupies L-shaped quarters, with entrances on Alder and on Sixth streets. The Alder-street entrance, for ladies and their escorts, leads to the main grilleroom, while that on Sixth street opens into the gentleman's cafe. Within all is beautiful. The handsomely-worked tapestry wall decorations of the grille are exact duplicates of those which adorn the walls of the grille at Munich, typifying German home, student and peasant life, and were executed by Ernest Miller, from plans direct from Sloan's, New York. The lighting fixtures, which are of the old Dutch pattern, lend a further enhancing effect to the general atmosphere, a pretty feature of which is the fixed lights, shedding their glow through transparent steins. The furniture, linens and silverware are all highly representative of the manufacturers' art and round out a delightfully pleasing appearance.

MENU TO SUIT EPICURES

The Hof Brau will serve and make a specialty of many famous German dishes, and only the finest edibles will be used in the preparation of the menu. Mr. Albert Haller, formerly chef at the Louvre, who has recently returned from a trip to Europe, presides over the kitchen. Mr. Haller is eminently fitted to make the fare of the new grille a keen gastronomic delight, and that he will do so is a safe assurance. His domain, in its elaborate and modern equipment, is a remarkable feature of the establishment and is wonderfully complete in every detail. The huge ranges, the mammoth refrigerators, cooled by the Hof Brau's individual ice plant, the heavy warming closets and the mechanically-operated dishwashing machine are all features which insure guests that the service will be unexcelled if modern methods count.

WILL CATER TO THEATER PARTIES

It is the intention of the management to render the Hof Brau one of the most noteworthy and popular attractions on the Coast, catering at all times to the tastes of connoisseurs, and to make the grille and cafe veritable delights of restful abandon, appealing especially to after-theater parties. The presence of Victor E. Tarbell as steward advances a pleasing assurance of courteous attention to every visitor.

CHOICE LIQUID REFRESHMENTS

The cafe will be stocked and supplied with the finest and oldest products the market affords, including a great range of imported beers, and Weinhard's celebrated Rheingold and Kaiserblum brews. Every effort will be made to so systematize the service that it may be without fault and please even the most exacting in every instance.

YAMHILL CHERRIES TAKE FIRST PRIZE

M. O. Lowsdale's Exhibit of Royal Annes Excites Wonder at Salem.

LANE COUNTY IS SECOND

Results Surprise, Inasmuch as Old Yamhill Has Never Boasted of Raising Fine Cherries—Names of the Prize-Winners.

SALEM, Or., July 17.—(Special.)—Much to the surprise of everybody who had taken an interest in the Salem cherry fair, Yamhill County carried off first prize in the general exhibit competition. It is agreed by all cherry experts that Yamhill had the best exhibit and was entitled to the award. The surprise is due to the fact that Yamhill had never boasted particularly of its cherries. The Polk is famous for its cherry product. The Yamhill exhibit was put up under the supervision of M. O. Lowsdale, of North Yamhill. His boxes of Royal Anne, nine inches wide, contained but eight cherries in a row, each cherry measuring, therefore, 1 1/8 inches. Color, flavor, texture and method of packing were also taken into consideration.

Marion County was barred from competing for the grand prize because it was thought that the county would have an undue advantage by reason of location. The awards were as follows: Grand prize, Yamhill County, first; Lane County, second; Polk County, third; Wasco County, fourth; Linn County, fifth.

Best display of cherries, commercial pack—H. S. Gile & Co., first; Mrs. M. C. Wilson, second; Paul Walker, third. Receipts—J. H. Shepard, first; A. Vercler, second; T. H. Blundell, third. Royal Anne—J. H. Shepard, first; C. A. Muth, second; H. S. Gile, third. Bing, ten pounds—J. H. Shepard, first; L. M. Gilbert, second; C. A. Clark, third. Bing, carton—J. H. Shepard, first; L. M. Gilbert, second; C. A. Clark, third. Black Republican, carton—J. H. Shepard, first; L. M. Gilbert, second; C. A. Clark, third. Water Brothers, third. Warehouse—H. Best, first; J. R. Shepard, second. Deacon—J. Reynolds, first; C. H. Chapman, second. Hoskins—E. Knox Friesell, first; Mrs. M. C. Wilson, second. Centennial—Mrs. C. Wilson, first. Best display on plates—J. D. Jones, first. Single plates, Royal Anne—J. R. Shepard, first; Z. Mills, second. Single plates, Lambert—J. R. Shepard, first; C. A. Muth, second. Single plates, Bing—Z. Mills, first; J. H. Shepard, second. Single plates, Deacon—M. C. Jorgenson, first. Single plates, Hoskins—Z. Mills, first. Single plates, Z. Mills—C. E. Hanna, first; William Zosel, second. General fruit display—D. R. Ruble, first. Logansberries—Carpenter Bros., first; John Minger, second. Phenomenal—Mrs. E. G. White, first; L. M. Gilbert, second. Mammoth Black—D. Parker, first; Frank Marshall, second. Red raspberries—Carpenter Brothers, first. N. C. Jorgenson, first; Z. Mills, second. Gooseberries—Earl Brunk, first; H. S. Gile, second. Best display of Royal Annes grown in Marion County—T. H. Blundell, first; A. T. Beaudry, second; J. R. Shepard, third.

The strong feature of the Salem Cherry Fair is that every known variety of cherries is on exhibition, while at fairs held earlier only a few varieties could be secured. Large crowds visited the cherry pavilion today. This evening an immense throng fills the streets in front of the midway attractions. A successful balloon ascension and parachute jump was conducted this morning and will be repeated tomorrow morning.

ASHLAND ENJOYS OPERA "PINAFORE"

Rendition of Popular Musicale Closes the Chautauque Programme.

ASSEMBLY WELL ATTENDED

Session Just Ended Most Successful of Sixteen Held in Southern Oregon Town—Eminent Men Among Lecturers.

ASHLAND, Or., July 17.—(Special.)—The sixteenth annual assembly of the Southern Oregon Chautauque Assembly closed at Ashland in a blaze of glory tonight with the production by the Chautauque chorus of the old favorite opera of "Pinafore."

Attendance at the assembly this year has averaged better than at any previous year. The audiences at the various platform attractions have been uniformly large, more campers have pitched their tents in Chautauque grove than ever before in the history of the association here, and more people have come from a distance to enjoy the advantages of the assembly's offerings than ever before.

Leading attractions of this week have been John Sharp, Williams, who delivered a lecture before a large audience on Monday afternoon, his subject being "A Talk on Oratory."

Some Excellent Lectures Heard. Bishop McIntyre, who is an enthusiastic Chautauque worker, has lectured three times besides giving a sermon on Chautauque Sunday. His lecture on "Lancet" Tuesday is counted one of the best things of this year's program. Montgomery, the farmer-painter man, won the hearts of his auditors here. He says he is coming back to Oregon to start something, which he intimates will be a great art studio, open to all the world. Montgomery has fallen in love with the country and he marvels at what is keeping 5,000,000 more of people from settling in Oregon. Dr. Ira Landrith has been an inspiration for the Chautauquans here this year and his splendid addresses have been unusually well received. Dr. House has also been well received, the fact he is always well received at the Ashland Chautauque and is much admired here. Dr. Edwin (Cyclope) Southern was the last platform attraction, speaking yesterday afternoon and evening.

The Pasmore girls, who have returned after several years of absence, including two years in Berlin, have won new laurels and renewed popularity here. They have given several preludes on the violin, violoncello and piano. They are to make a tour of Oregon during the present season.

"Pinafore" was rendered under the direction of Professor Martin E. Robinson of Chicago. Following are the roles and the chorus:

Cast of Characters. The Right Honorable Joseph Porter, K. C. B., first lord of the admiralty, Elmer Patrick; Captain Corcoran, commanding H. M. S. Pinafore, C. Morton Hadley; Ralph Rackstraw, able seaman, F. B. Edgington; Dick Deadeye, able seaman, E. J. Engdahl; boatswain, N. J. Reasoner; boatswain's mate, James Beagle; midshipmite, Lloyd Stratton; Josephine, captain's daughter, Mervie H. Hug; Hebe, Mr. Joseph's first cousin, Verda Norris; Lottie Buttercup, Mrs. Studebaker; first lord's sister, his cousins, his aunts, sailors, marines, etc.

James Beagle, Orville Caldwell, Claude Downing, F. B. Edgington, E. F. Engdahl, C. Morton Hadley, C. W. Nims, Glenn Payne, Elmer Patrick, Earle Razor, Frank Razor, N. J. Reasoner, Chester A. Smith, Percy Stratton, R. B. Studebaker, Lloyd Stratton, G. W. Treflen, George Walton.

Ladies of the Opera. Mrs. Mary Ashburn, Lillian Hilky Almutt, Virginia Baker, Mabel Barney, Beulah Caldwell, Mrs. F. H. Chamberlain, Lottie Crews, Florence Frazer, Alice French, Mervie H. Hug, Georganna Jackson, Mabel F. Jacobs, Carrie Mitchell, Nan McCallen, Verda Norris, Jean Powell, Nell Palmer, Ora Patrick, Maude Rippey, Mabel Rifer, Esther M. Sibley, Mrs. Studebaker, Ruth Treflen, Genevieve Wilsey, Letta Vaupel, Jennie Young, Minnie Yeo.

Director, Martin E. Robinson. Accompanied Mrs. Pratt. Scene, quarterdeck of H. M. S. Pinafore, off Portsmouth. Act I, noon; act II, night.

STOCK BUYER IS SWINDLED

J. W. Machen Loses $1000 to Stranger on Bogus Letter of Credit.

PRAIRIE CITY, Or., July 17.—(Special.)—J. W. Machen, of Eugene, a prominent stock dealer, claims to have been swindled by a clever scheme here a few days ago. A man giving his name as H. Lane, from Iowa, succeeded in obtaining $1000 from Machen under false pretenses. Lane's whereabouts is now unknown.

The clever stranger professed to be a cattle-buyer and shipper for an Eastern firm, and presented for his purpose what looked like a letter of credit for $1000 from the First National Bank of Eastern bank, and addressed to the First National Bank of Grant County and the Bank of Burns. Machen believed that he was familiar enough with the Eastern bank to know that the supposed letter of credit was all right, and when Lane offered to take him into partnership, Machen readily handed over $1000.

The two men then separated to buy cattle. After a week's time, during which Machen failed to establish communication with Lane, he became suspicious and did all he could to locate his partner, but to no avail. Machen claims to be out $1000, and the banks know nothing about Lane.

Company Organizes With Capital of $250,000 at Marshfield.

MARSHFIELD, Or., July 17.—(Special.)—Articles of incorporation have been filed in County Clerk Watson's office for the Coos Bay Railway & Terminal Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Washington. The officers are: President, Henry Hewitt, Jr., of Tacoma; vice-president, L. J. Simpson, of North Bend, Or.; secretary, J. J. Hewitt, of Tacoma; assistant secretary, Henry Hewitt III, of Tacoma; treasurer and manager, Seymour Bell, of Marshfield.

The company is a "close corporation" of $250,000 for a period of 50 years, organized to build and operate steam and electric railways around Coos Bay and down the coast south to Sunset Bay. Mr. Hewitt and Mr. Bell are owners of the Coos Bay Gas and Electric Company, which has recently improved and enlarged its plant on the Bay.

Montesano's Population 3100.

MONTESANO, Wash., July 17.—(Special.)—A representative of the R. L. Polk Company, who has been in Montesano securing data for a new Grays Harbor directory, has about completed his labors and says Montesano now has a population of 3100.

BISHOP M'INTYRE SPEAKS

Draws Vivid Word Picture of Great Chicago Fire—Chemawa Students Have Charge of Today's Programme.

CHAUTAUQUA GROUNDS, Gladstone Park, July 17.—(Special.)—A most realistic fire scene description was given tonight on the Chautauque auditorium, when Bishop Robert McIntyre, of Los Angeles, lectured on "Buttressed Up People." He told of the great Chicago fire and gave a vivid word painting of the awful scenes during that holocaust. The Bishop's reputation as an orator was enhanced by his lecture, and he will be heard again tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, when his subject will be "The Evolution of Abraham Lincoln." He will also address a sermon next Sunday afternoon.

The closing days of Chautauque show no diminution of the crowds of people who come from miles around to hear the programmes. After the classes this morning the rally of the State Agricultural College was held. Many of the O. A. C. students were present and President W. J. Kerr delivered the principal address. He talked along educational lines almost wholly and an interested crowd heard him.

Miss Ruth Field, of Salem, and W. F. McKee, of McMinnville College, sang this afternoon before the lecture. The latter is a new singer to Chautauque and was given his share of applause.

Spectacular Ball Game. The Chautauque Round Table was missed this afternoon, and the crowd swarmed to the baseball field, where the Oregon City Grays and the Gresham Giants played the final game of the series to determine which team shall play the Lebanon Cubs tomorrow. For three innings not a man came over the pan, and then Oregon City opened up and chased home five. After that the slaughter was terrific. Houston made a home run. Schultz was on the fring line for Gresham until the sixth, when Townsend went in and did no better. Hanlin was behind the bat, but was withdrawn after a few wild throws and Marshall substituted. The battery for the Grays was Robinson and Ganong. The score: Oregon City.....0 0 5 1 2 0 4 1—17 Gresham.....0 0 0 1 0 2 0 0—3 The championship game will be de-

Supreme Court Denies Rehearing in Effort to Test Validity of Law.

OLYMPIA, Wash., July 17.—(Special.)—Final definite action was taken by the Supreme Court today in the matter of the Sunday closing of theaters when a motion was denied for a rehearing of the habeas corpus case of Frank H. Donnellan, of Seattle. In the Herald case, from Tacoma, months ago, the Supreme Court sustained the validity of the law prohibiting theatrical entertainments on Sunday. Theater owners all over the state became interested at once and the discovery was made that the original law which was passed in territorial days had exempted Snohomish County from its provisions, which it was contended made the act a special law prohibited by the constitution. A test case was, therefore, made by the arrest of Donnellan, a Seattle theater manager, and the institution of habeas corpus proceedings on his behalf. The Supreme Court held that the law, when copied into the code, omitted the Snohomish exception and on its adoption became a new and valid act. As a final move the theater people then asked a rehearing, which the Supreme Court has now denied.

Chasing Bears

through the tall timber gave our forefathers stomachs that could digest anything. The man with his nose on a desk has to "coddle" his stomach. The best "coddler" is the food that combines the life of the wheat with the soothing, invigorating tonic of barley-malt. Try it for breakfast. You will like the sweet, crisp, malty flakes.

"FORCE" is made of the best white wheat, steam-cooked, rolled into thin flakes, combined with the purest barley-malt and baked. Always "crisp" it before serving it by pouring into a pan and warming it in oven. Then serve in large dish with cream, piling the flakes in one side of the dish and pouring the cream in the other side, dipping the flakes as eaten.

Your grocer sells it. No other Flaked Food is "just as good."
