

AMERICANS EXCEL FONEST HOPES

Score in Olympic Games Given Boost by Winning Three of Day's Events.

COLLEGE YELL ON STADIUM

Daniels Equals Swimming Record. Every Easy Victor in Broad Jump and Mehnert in Ban- tam Wrestling Match.

LONDON, July 20.—The second week of the Olympic contests at Shepherd's Bush began with the first day devoted principally to field sports, such as Americans are accustomed to witness. The track athletes were the stars and the programme contained many fast and exciting events. The American and British runners and jumpers gathered in the lion's share of the laurels, as usual, but the Americans exceeded even the expectations of their supporters. Several hundred Americans, mostly tourists, with many ladies, who were massed together in the seats next to the royal box, gave an exhibition of cheering which suggested an American college crowd, and immensely amused the foreigners. The attendance at the games was fair, but the spectators in the afternoon were gloomy and threatened rain. The competitors from the United States are deploring the continual absence of sunshine, under which they can do their best work.

Brittain's Star Sprinter Loses.

The spectacular features today were the 100-meter dash, the 100-meter sprint and the eight trial heats of the 800-meters. These furnished several close and stirring finishes. In the sprints America captured eight heats and Great Britain four. J. A. Rector, of the University of Virginia, was the particular star, for he beat quite handsly K. G. McLeod, of Cambridge, the holder of three variety blues, who never before was beaten, and in doing so he beat the Olympic record for the distance of 10.45 seconds.

The names of Shepherd, Halsted and J. C. Bacon, went up on the blackboard as winners of their heats in the 800-meter race. This event proved a disappointment to England, which was counting on more than two heats which it took. The German team, much to the surprise of the Englishmen, outran Holding, who was one of their mainstays. Loughl, of Italy, beat H. L. Coe, of the University of Michigan, in the excellent time of 1:57.15 and he and Just, the Cambridge half-mile champion, who captured the sixth heat in 1:57.45, will give the Americans a hard tussle in the final.

J. C. Bacon, Irish-American A. C., captured his heat of the 600-meter hurdle race in 37 seconds, winning by 25 yards, while Coe distinguished himself by defeating Denmark, the former British champion, although he had just contested a 800-meter race. The American and British won six and the Americans three of the nine heats in the hurdles, but the majority of these were unexciting because they were a walkover.

Few Americans went to the hurdles, as most of them had already run in the 800-meter flat and the others had to reserve themselves for the other heats of the same event, which for a long time has been known to the Athletic Association, came after the 800-meter hurdle. The American committee does not like this arrangement, as it practically nullifies the best of the success in the hurdles, but it was useless to object, as a protest in all probability would have been overruled. Sweden, like America, had a walkover, the way in which the draws were conducted, two of her best men being placed together in the sixth heat.

Flag Hoisted Three Times.

The American colors were raised to the flagpole three times, signifying victory in the trials of the 100 meters swimming, the standing broad jump, and the bantam catch-as-catch-can wrestling, but these triumphs did not inspire such thrills as the track performances, because few spectators in the vast stadium could see them.

C. M. Daniels, of the New York Athletic Club, the American champion, as was expected, won the swimming event in the fast time of 1:35.35, which equals the Olympic record. He was closely followed to the tape by De Halmya, Hungarian, with Julius J. Sheridan, Irish-American Athletic Club, and G. Rich, of Brookline, who was second to Daniels in the semifinals, finished fourth in the final.

The standing broad jump contest was practically an American event, although no notable records were made. Ray Ewry, the American champion, being considerably behind his own record, made at St. Louis. His greatest distance today was 10 feet 11 inches. Tacitiris, the Greek jumper, won second in this event, with 10 feet 7 1/2 inches, 1/4 of an inch better than Martin J. Sheridan, Irish-American Athletic Club; J. A. Biller, Brookline, Central Y. M. C. A.; Platt Adams, New York Athletic Club; F. L. Holmes, of Chicago, and the English champion leader, were only a fraction of an inch behind Sheridan.

George N. Mehnert, National Turnverein, American, took the final in the bantam wrestling, while George W. Gaidzik, Chicago Athletic Club, won his heat in the high-diving competition. France won the medal for fencing, in which the many bouts were almost monopolized by continentalists.

American Score Improved.

The results today added three wins to the American score and one to France, the other nations not improving their positions. In the field events America added six points, while Greece, the only other nation to increase its score in these contests, picked up three. America is now only eight points behind the United Kingdom, the score reading: United Kingdom, 54; America, 46.

The drawings for the heats in the second round of the 100-meters flat race, which will be held on tomorrow afternoon, are as follows:

"BIRDE'S" BUNCH BITES THE DUST

Unfeeling Brutes From the Wabash Wreak Vengeance.

GIRLS' TEAM LOSES, 12 TO 8

Bloomer Squad From Windy City Entertains 1500 Local Fans With Real Exhibition of Baseball at Vaughn-Street Grounds.

It was really ungentlemanly of the Wabash Independents to come back at their fair rivals in baseball in the manner they did yesterday for the girls tried hard enough and did everything they could to repeat their Saturday performance, but they were outwitted by the Bloomer squad from Windy City. The girls' team, which was composed of the following players: Captain Birdie Carleton, while not quite as agile as the winged species indicated by her handle, nevertheless plays first base nearly as well as Joe Stutz, Archie Parrott or Bobby Burns. Birdie was there when it came to getting ground balls, but she missed several throws, for she was inclined to fight the ball when it came from afar. She furnished considerable entertainment whenever she missed one, for she would have to run to the bleacher fence, and the promptness with which she "flushed" the ball demonstrated that she was playing the game as hard as any leaguer who ever wore a uniform.

OREGON MEN TO HAVE CHANCE THIS WEEK

Local youngsters loped around the paths 13 times, while the best girls could do was to hang up eight runs.

About 1500 curious fans assembled at Vaughn-street grounds for the purpose of satisfying themselves that a woman could really play baseball, and practically every one of them went home satisfied that they had seen at least two women who were artists at the game.

"Mollie" Brewster, at second base, and Blanche Orrie, in center field, played baseball as well as did their opponents of the opposite sex, and in some instances, even excelled them. Blanche takes charge of all the confectionery when it comes to pulling down the high ones in the outer patch, and the accurate manner in which she heaved the ball in from the veldt caused several of the Portland ballsozers occupying seats in the stand to sit up and take notice.

"Count" Bassey wanted to bet that Miss Orrie was a man, but Hal Danzig, who is an authority on matters feminine, informed him that he better keep his money in his pocket for whilst will be quite popular next winter, and the Portland left gardener subsided, and gave himself up to admiring the agility displayed by the feminine ballsozers.

Captain Manager Birdie Carleton, while not quite as agile as the winged species indicated by her handle, nevertheless plays first base nearly as well as Joe Stutz, Archie Parrott or Bobby Burns.

In the first inning the girls started off like easy victors, for they raced two across the pan, while the Wabashers bagged a lonely run. They lost their grip in the second and went halloing, which aerial flight allowed the Wabashers to score five times, and one more in the third, and five more fell in the fourth. After this the girls settled down and played a consistent game, preventing their opponents from scoring during the remaining innings.

In the meantime they crawled up slowly, but when the final chapter was concluded they were four runs shy of the total acquired by their rivals. Several of the facetiously inclined spectators were prone to "kid" the girls, but when their remarks went unheeded they soon desisted.

The Chicago Ladies' Baseball team expects to return to Portland about August 3, and an effort is being made to secure a game for them with the ballsozers numbered among Portland's police department. The preliminary arrangements for this game have been practically agreed upon, and if the girls decide to return to Portland it is quite certain that they will take a fling at the cops.
