FAILS TO REVOKE MORROW'SLICENSE

State Medical Board Doubtful Also About Status of Dr. Eisen.

COURT ISSUES INJUNCTION

Action Taken After Revocation of Eisen's Certificate - Witnesses Fail to Appear in Morrow Case-Will Try Again.

By an unusually speedy process at law and by the sudden and mysterious dis-appearance of witnesses, Dr. William T. Elsen and Dr. J. W. Morrow have again eluded the efforts of the State Board of Medical Examiners to revoke their li-censes to practice in this state. A meeting of the board yesterday to cause the revocation of their licenses ended disrevocation of their licenses ended dis-astrously, so far as the board was con-cerned. Elsen and Morrow are accused of having performed illegal operations.

As a result of the meeting and sub-sequent events, members of the board will appear before Judge Bronaugh in the Circuit Court this morning to ascer-tain whether or not their acts of yester-day were valid, and detectives are con-ducting a circle search for two witnesses ducting a rigid search for two witnesses who are said to have been spirited away. The board met in the office of Dr. R. C. Coffey, in the Corbett building, at 1:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon. It got down to business at once and took up the Eisen case first and in a very few minutes it had disposed of that case by declaring his license revoked.

But Dr. Elsen had learned of the proposed action and, with legal aid, had caused the issuance by Judge Bronaugh of a temporary injunction. A deputy sheriff, armed with this injunction to prevent the members of the board from taking action against the accused phy-sician, arrived at the place of meeting a short time after the board had declared the license revoked. Consequently mem-bers of the board will appear before the court this morning to ascertain just how the matter stands.

Witnesses Are Absent.

Then, to make matters worse, it was announced that the two principal wit-nesses against Dr. Morrow were absent. They had been served with subpenas-but had disappeared completely. De-tectives who had been employed by the board reported that the two witnesses had escaped from the city and many of the physicians expressed the belief that money had been used in getting them Without these two witnesses there was Without these two witnesses there was no case against Dr. Morrow, so action was indefinitely postponed. However, members of the board declare this temporary victory of Eisen and Morrow will avail them nothing, for an additional force of detectives has been set to work to bring back the missing witnesses.

Dr. Eisen has appealed to the Supreme Court from the conviction and fine of Court from the conviction and fine of 5500 Pending its decision he contends that no action can be taken by the State Board. He also declares that new evidence has come to light since he was convicted which may aid in proving him

The case went to trial upon the alle The case went to trial upon the allegation that Dr. Elsen performed a criminal operation upon 17-year-old Jennie Selphers. She testified at the trial that she was treated at the X-Radium Institute, on Third street. Ernest Haymans, in charge of the institute when the alleged crime was committed, fied and could not be found by the officers.

Eisen Says He Was Locked Out.

"At 11 o'clock this morning we went before the court and secured the in-junction," said Dr. Eisen last night, "and at 1 o'clock I was in the halloutside Dr. Coffey's office. I had been informed that my hearing before the board would be held at that hour. "The door was locked and I couldn't get in. Finally, after a long wait, I did get in and was told that my license was revoked. I have witnesses to the fact that the door was locked. They did not call my name, nor give me any notification whatever that my case was

MUCH IS UP FOR ACTION

MASS OF BUSINESS BEFORE COUNTRY CLUB.

Owing to Absence of President Reed, Meeting of Directors Is Postponed Several Days.

Owing to the absence from the city of President S. G. Reed and other directors, yesterday's meeting of the Country Club and Livestock Association was postponed, matters before the building transportation and concessions committees going over until the next regular meeting, which will be held in a few days. The building committee has to report on the progress made on the 17 structures now going up, eight racing stables and nine livestock barns, as well as the steel and concrete grandstand, the ground for which was broken several days ago. Plans for the open pavillon to seat from 12,000 to 18,000 people will also be laid before the meet-they will be acted on as soon as the direc-ors can get together.

Handling of the crowds is the most serious problem that confronts the association. The foundation work for the grandstand, which will sent close to 4000, will be rushed so that the concrete and will be rushed so that the concrete and steel structure may be erected and com-pleted within the next month or five weeks. Accommodations in addition to this must also be provided, and the stable room so far arranged for will not begin to take care of the race and livestock entries now in the hands of the as-sociation.

Permission to use temporarily certain streets for the O. R. & N. and Portland Railway. Light & Power extensions to the track must also be secured before these companies can lay their spurs and loops.

Inquiries without number have been coming in from those interested in the harness races asking when the track will be ready for "trying out" heats, and at the rate of progress that is now being made with the grading and surfacing, it is highly probable that an additional force of men will have be to be put to work to rush the track work to completion earlier than was first intended. Indications that the different events on

Indications that the different events on the racing programme will be stronger than at first realized and better than the association officials had any reason to believe is shown from the form displayed by quite a number of the performers entered in the "early closing" events on the training tracks, where they have already begun to "warm up" for the North Pacific circuit. Several of the entries already listed have negotiated miles in better time than their established records, and there is every reason to believe that the Portis every reason to believe that the Port-land meet will bang up plenty of new records this year.

Principal interest centers in the unof-Principal interest centers in the unof-ficial marks set by the speeders in their "warming up" heats at both Albany and at Hillsboro, where some high-class trot-ters and pacers are now working out for the meet to be held there the last of this month. Each of the Custer-Erwin string from Laramie, Wyo, has shown record-making form since their arrival here about ten days ago and by the time the Pacific National meet is held here they should all be in elegant racing form.

DISAGREE AS TO PAVEMENT

COUNCILMEN NOT IN ACCORD REGARDING MATERIAL.

Petition for Improvement With Hassam Patent Pavement Precipitates Dispute.

Councilman Kellaher, during the morning session of the City Council yesterday, predicted "the biggest ex-plosion in paving circles ever occurring in Portland" and declared "It is about due." It is due." It was while Hassam pavement was being discussed, a petition for three blocks of this brand of hard-surface improvement being up for action. Residents on Williams Avenue, between Alnsworth and Killingsworth avenues, petitioned Hassam pavement. The Council denied the petition, but it will be considered later when City Forti-petitioned Hassam pavement. The Council denied the petition, but it will be considered later, when City Engineer Taylor is to submit a block of the new pavement for inspection at the new pavement for inspection at the next meeting of the Council.

Hassam is a new pavement in Portland and its merits are not known, or are not fully established with the Councilmen, it is said. Some of the members fear to tie the city up to the Hassam brand until they have a full demonstration of its lasting qualities and, upon motion of Mr. Kellaher, City Engineer Taylor was instructed to cut a chunk of the pavement out and bring it into the Council to to be inspected. The Councilmen expressed a desire to ascertain more on the subject and especially to see the new material.

During the discussion a wordy battle occurred between Councilman Vaughn, chairman of the street committee, and Councilman Concannon, both Democratic members of the minority faction. Mr. Vaughn favored a trial of the new pavement, as asked for by the petitioners, and made an earnest speech for such action.

"I think it's a good pavement to be put in a glass care," said Mr. Concannon.

earnest speech for such action.
"I think it's a good pavement to be put in a glass cage," said Mr. Concannon, when Mr. Vaughn sat down.
"I would like to ask you what you know about it?" said Mr. Vaughn.
"I understand it is a poor pavement, but I never saw any of it," replied Mr. Concannon.

"Then I say that you are a kind of councilman that ought to be put into a glass eage," heatedly retorted Mr. Vaughn, amid laughter.

Councilman Baker expressed himself as opposed to permitting sections of a new pavement to be laid throughout the city without first obtaining absolute assurance that the brand is the city without first obtaining absolute assurance that the brand is a good one. To beautify a city, he declared, there should be a uniform pavement. Councilman Keilaher, who predicted a hig war among paving companies, intimated that some of the Councilmen oppose Hassam because they are tied up to asphalt and bituilthic interests. He said that he is opposed to laying any "patent" pavement whatever, as competition is eliminated, and the charter has to be violated every time a contract is let. His contention is that competition is eliminated, and the char-ter has to be violated every time a contract is let. His contention is that sooner or later the city will be forced by property-owners, through the courts, to pay for all "patent" paving improve-ments, and he sounds a warning every time the matter comes up.
