

MRS. TEAL BEHIND BARS FOUR HOURS

Former Portland Woman Held Under $5000 Bail for Conspiracy.

HUSBAND IS PROMINENT

Well-Known New York Theatrical Manager Brother of Portland Lawyer—Girl Involves Her in Gould Scandal.

NEW YORK, July 22.—Mrs. Ben Teal, wife of a prominent theatrical manager and one of the three persons arrested in connection with the alleged plot to manufacture divorce evidence against Frank Jay Gould, the millionaire, was compelled to spend nearly four hours in a cell in the Tombs last evening before bail could be secured.

Great consideration was shown Mrs. Teal in the Central Police Court, where she was arraigned with Mrs. Julia Fleming, a seamstress, and Henry S. Mousley, a private detective, the other two who figured in the alleged conspiracy.

Magistrate Corrigan held the trio in $5000 bail each. Mousley found a bondsman but the two women were not so fortunate. Court was kept open until 4 o'clock to await bondsmen, but none appeared and at that time the magistrate announced that the women would be taken to the Tombs.

Mrs. Teal Is Hysterical.

Mrs. Teal had to be supported on her way to the prison by Mrs. Fleming. She was weeping hysterically. Mrs. Fleming seemed to forget her own trouble in trying to comfort her friend.

It was 8 o'clock before Mrs. Teal succumbed in getting bail for her wife. Mr. Teal did not get a bondsman for Mrs. Fleming and up to a late hour tonight the seamstress was still a prisoner.

The text of the affidavit made by Miss Mable D. McCausland, a young girl residing on St. Paul, accusing Mrs. Teal and her co-defendants was made public today.

Miss McCausland, who says she is 18 years old and describes herself as a milliner in her affidavit, says that she went to the Teal apartments on July 18, Mrs. Fleming was present. While there Mrs. Teal asked her if she wanted to earn some money, and upon her replying that she did, Mrs. Teal, she affirms, said:

Quotes Mrs. Teal's Words.

"Do you know that I sub-let my apartments in the Glenmore to Miss Devoe? Now, Mrs. Gould is suing her husband for a divorce and has been calling on Miss Devoe at the Glenmore. The stronger the evidence is against Mr. Gould the more money Mrs. Gould will get. You have been in my apartment in the Glenmore, while I occupied that apartment and you know the arrangement of the rooms."

Then, the affidavit continues, Mrs. Teal told deponent what would be required of her would be to testify in said divorce suit that while deponent was in the Glenmore she saw Mr. Gould, the defendant in the action, come out of the bedroom of Miss Devoe; that if deponent would make an affidavit to that effect and would give testimony before the referee in the suit to the same effect, the deponent would be given about $500 in money and would be sent to the country and paid an allowance of $1000 a week deponent at least $1000 down upon her signing the affidavit.

Wouldn't Tell a Lie.

Miss McCausland swears she refused to make the affidavit in question or to give any testimony, because she knew it was a lie and that she would not swear to a lie.

The affidavit goes on to declare that both Mrs. Teal and Mrs. Fleming urged her to change her mind. On the following day she returned to the apartment, she says, met Mrs. Teal and Mrs. Fleming and pretended that she had changed her mind in regard to giving the testimony.

Therapeutic.

"Therapeutic," it continues, "defendant Fleming gave to the deponent in the presence of defendant Teal a minute description of the apartment, and said Frank J. Gould, and was arranged by the two defendants, Teal and Fleming, that deponent was to testify that she saw Mr. Gould in the room of Miss Devoe in the morning of some day in the month of March, partly dressed, and that deponent was to give an affidavit to Mr. Stanley, the detective employed by Mrs. Gould."

Her Lawyers Ignore.

Counsel for Mrs. Teal could said this afternoon that he did not know Detective Mousley, had never seen him, and knew nothing about the alleged conspiracy except what he had read in the newspapers. The attorney retorted that it was absurd to think that any one could have been authorized to secure testimony.

Mrs. Teal went to the District Attorney's office today. Both her husband and her attorney said Mrs. Teal is the victim of unfortunate circumstances.

"There is nothing to it and we are sure it will come out all right," said Ben Teal. "Neither Mrs. Teal nor I know either of the Goulds. You see friendliness could not have been a motive and it certainly was not money. We are both good friends of Miss Devoe. Miss McCausland came from St. Paul, Minn., with a letter of reference to Mrs. Teal from Mrs. Teal's sister. My wife gave her work as a seamstress and later only a week ago, the girl came to me and asked me to place her as a chorus girl."

MRS. BEN TEAL BORN HERE

Principal in Gould Scandal Formerly Miss Eleanor Gilman.

Mrs. Ben Teal, who is the wife of a prominent theatrical man of New York, visited in Portland two years ago, soon after her marriage to Mr. Teal, at the home of J. N. Teal, a prominent attorney who is a brother of her husband.

A reception was given in her honor at J. N. Teal's home, and during the course of her visit here it developed that she was originally a Portland girl, having been born in this city. Prior to her first marriage she was Miss Eleanor Gilman, granddaughter of the proprietor of a hotel of that name. She is remembered by many residents of this city, although she has not resided here since she was a girl.

Mrs. Teal, before her marriage to Teal was the wife of William C. Toomey, a former secretary of James J. Hill. Mr. Toomey resided in St. Paul.

HAS SECOND CONFESSION? Langdon Said to Have Induced Claudianes to Talk.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 22.—According to a story printed in the Bulletin today, John Claudianes made a second confession to District Attorney Langdon on Friday night last in which he is represented as saying that he and his brother Peter were hired by Felix Padeuvarius, a Greek padrone, to destroy Gallagher's home with dynamite and murder Gallagher; that the graft prosecutors were to be murdered, but the plans for putting them out of the way failed.

According to this statement, John Claudianes actually fired the first charge of dynamite, which wrecked the Gallagher premises, and endangered the lives of Gallagher and members of his family and his brother fired the second charge which wrecked two apartment houses in Oakland owned by Gallagher.

Claudianes was brought before Police Judge Shortall today for arraignment. Upon motion of J. W. Scott, his attorney, the arraignment was continued to July 23. It is understood that Claudianes will not be tried upon the charge now resting against him, but will be held as long as possible in order to give the District Attorney time in which to make an effort to apprehend Peter Claudianes, his brother and Felix Padeuvarius and Fred Wilhelm, suspected of being implicated in the affair.

The dismissal of the proceedings in Judge Shortall's court, it is understood John Claudianes will be taken to Oakland and formally charged with a felony upon complaint of Gallagher and tried on that charge.

A dispatch received today from Reno, Nev., says Captain Cook, of the state police, arrested a Greek at midnight who he believed to be Peter Claudianes. The Greek was caught while trying to escape on a train going west. He was traced from the tenderloin district to the station.

MIDGET SHERIFF, PLUCKY

Whips Four Six-Footers Who Start to "Rough House" the Village.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 22.—(Special.)—Matt Starwich, Deputy Sheriff at the coal mining town of Ravensdale, marched four 6-foot men employed on the C. M. & St. P. grade, into the Sheriff's office yesterday morning without handcuffs or shackles. Starwich had a cut on his cheek and his hands were so badly injured that he could not close his fists.

The prisoners started to "rough house" the town of Ravensdale yesterday. Starwich came over from Ravensdale and with his fists alone whipped all four. One of them was armed with a knife.

He guarded them overnight and brought them in this morning. Starwich is about 5 feet 2 inches tall, and weighs about 150 pounds. He has a reputation as a hard-boiled man, and has whipped nine men in a saloon fight with a whiskey bottle as his only weapon.

FOUND DEAD IN HIS OFFICE

Dr. E. W. Best, Cottage Grove Physician, Dies of Heart Disease.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., July 22.—(Special.)—Dr. E. W. Best, of this city, was found dead yesterday in his rooms in the McFarland flat, on Main street.

Mrs. Best left the city this morning for a day's visit in the country with her friends. The door was open and she was started to see the doctor stretched upon the floor in death.

The alarm was given and Dr. Kime soon arrived. He announced that Dr. Best had been dead several hours.

Death was due, it is believed, to heart disease. Dr. Best came to the Coast from Michigan.

BANKER BIT ASSASSIN

Remy Fought Desperately for Life, Says Court.

PARIS, July 22.—Courtois, the footman who confessed Monday to being implicated in the murder of August Remy, a wealthy retired banker who was stabbed to death in his home in this city early in June, had been examined. It was learned that he had been bitten on the arm by Remy as he was holding the old man while Renard, the other confederate, was attacking him. He tried to obliterate the traces of his wound by burning himself with a red-hot knife-blade.

THROWN FROM THEIR AUTO

Mrs. R. L. Stevenson and Children Have Accident in Mexico.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 22.—A telegram received yesterday by friends of Mrs. Robert Louis Stevenson says that Mrs. Stevenson, her daughter, Mrs. Isabel Strong, and her son, Lloyd Osborne, met with an automobile accident in Mexico a few days ago. None was seriously injured.

NEVADA STAGE IS ROBBED

Masked Highwaymen Operate Between Likely and Alturas.

RENO, Nev., July 22.—A special to the Reno Journal from Likely, Nev., says the Likely and Alturas stage was held up Monday by two masked men who were heavily armed. They compelled the Wells-Fargo messenger to throw down the box containing, it is believed, a large sum in gold for the payroll at Alturas.

FIFTY JAPANESE KILLED

Fight Battle with Korean Insurgents on Russian Frontier.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 22.—The bourse Gazette has published a dispatch from Harbin which recites an engagement with Korean insurgents on the Russo-Korean frontier in which it is reported 50 Japanese soldiers were killed. The insurgent losses are not known.

BRYAN'S CHANCE TO SCORE POINT

Keenly Interested in Contempt Case Against Gompers and Morrison.

TAFT BANNER RESTORED

Democratic Leader Talks Canned Speeches Into Phonographs—Gives Money Received to State and County Campaign Funds.

TAFT BANNER RESTORED

FAIRVIEW, Lincoln, Neb., July 22.—The action of Justice Anderson of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia in citing Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and Frank Morrison to show cause why they should not be punished for contempt for alleged violation of an injunction against the American Federation of Labor and its officers in the Buck Stove & Range Company case has excited considerable gossip here. Mr. Bryan is taking the keenest interest in the matter but will make no comment upon it.

The case is one coming directly within the purview of the plank of the Democratic platform relating to contempt committed outside the presence of the court and, it is believed, he is backed upon by Mr. Bryan as an illustration of the need of a law which will accord to the accused a trial by jury.

Not Going to Vermont.

In spite of statements to the contrary, Mr. Bryan today announced that he did not contemplate going to Vermont on any speech-making tour in the expected course of influencing the election in that state in September.

A delegation headed by C. H. Rudge, president of the State Agricultural Society, called on Mr. Bryan early today and extended a formal invitation to make an address at the State Fair, which begins in Lincoln, August 31.

Mr. Bryan promised to be present if at that time he was in this vicinity.

Making No Promises Yet.

A special dispatch having stated that ex-Senator Pettigrew, of South Dakota, was slated for the office of Secretary of the treasury, in event of the success of the Democratic ticket, Mr. Bryan was asked concerning it. "I will make no appointments or promises in advance," he responded with a smile.

The latest name mentioned for the chairmanship of the Democratic National Committee is ex-Representative Ben T. Cable, of Illinois, but the suggestion does not find much favorable response here.

Taft Banner Waves Again.

High above the electric wires of the traction company the Taft banner, which met such an ignominious fate the night before the nomination of Mr. Bryan, was today again flung to the breeze. Mutilated and begrimed, the banner was stretched across the street in the same location from which it was said the Democrats had torn it from its moorings.

On either side of it an American flag was hung as a mute warning that it would be protected against a repetition of vandalism. Hundreds of people watched the proceedings.

Most of today was spent by Mr. Bryan in delivering short speeches on the issue of the campaign into a phonograph. Previously he had made similar speeches on the records of the competing camps. The intention is to give the country the wide distribution throughout the country. Of his own volition Mr. Bryan announced that he had received each of the two concerns as compensation for his work.

Likes Democratic Remedy

But Mitchell's Health May Prevent Speaking on Injunctions.

When confronted with the suggestion by a newspaper man that he had accepted money from corporations and thereby had acted contrary to the declared policy of the Democratic party, Mr. Bryan stated that the whole proposition was a commercial one and that he would not accept pay for his labors. The remittances were not retained by him, but he turned them over to the State and County Democratic committees, respectively, as a personal contribution.

Tomorrow Mr. Bryan intends to visit a picnic of the Grocers' and Butchers' Association at Captiol Beach, where it is expected he will deliver an address.

DOUGLAS TO RUN CAMPAIGN

Ex-Governor of Massachusetts Latest Choice for Chairman.

FAIRVIEW, Lincoln, Neb., July 22.—It now seems almost certain that the new chairman of the Democratic committee will be the former Gov. William L. Douglas, of Massachusetts. His appointment, it is stated, would meet the requirements. He is a man of large means and political influence, popular with the labor class and his attitude on the tariff question completely meets the Democratic idea.

Pioneer Dies at Panther.

News of the death at Panther, Or., on July 20 of D. B. Harker, a pioneer settler of that place, was received in Portland yesterday. Mr. Harker was about 90 years of age and came to Oregon in 1850, settling near Lewisville, in Polk County, where he engaged in farming. About 19 years ago he removed to Panther, Or., a small town near Eugene, which had since been his home. His wife and 10 children survive him.

BOURNE AND TAFT AT GOLF

Win Game, but Don't Talk About Residuary Legateeship.

HOT SPRINGS, Va., July 22.—Senator Jonathan Bourne played a game of golf yesterday in a driving rain with Mr. Taft. It was a foursome. Messrs. Bourne and Taft played against Frank B. Kellogg, of Minnesota, and James B. Hoyt, of Cleveland. Mr. Taft and Mr. Bourne won. Their score was the same, each making the eighteen holes in ninety.

Yesterday the Oregon Senator sent Mr. Taft this note, "My Dear Mr. Secretary: I hope you will be able to keep your golf engagements pretty soon, as my game is getting poorer every day. With kind regards, etc."

So the game was played, but owing to the number engaged in it Mr. Bourne and Mr. Taft were unable to play the residuary legatees idea. It is also to be noted that Mr. Taft showed no hostility to Mr. Bourne for what the latter has determined to do, "Bryan being able to beat Mr. Taft. No blood was shed."

TURKEY RIPE FOR REVOLT

Young Turks Determined to Overthrow Sultan's Rule.

PARIS, July 22.—The Temps today prints a dispatch from its special correspondent at Salonik, European Turkey, who represents the situation there as most serious. Macedonia is ripe for revolution, he says, and the Young Turks are determined to overthrow the absolutist regime.

TURNING AGAINST TURKEY

Whole District Said to Have Joined Revolutionary Party.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 22.—It is reported from Monastir that the whole Ochrida district has declared in favor of the revolutionary movement and that Greek bands are committing serious depredations in the villages near Monastir. Twenty-five Bulgarians were killed at Ribarskili and 30 at Bellpica. Both villages were burned.

NAME HOWARD OR HISGEN

Gossip About Candidates of Independence Party Begins.

CHICAGO, July 22.—While the bulk of delegates to the convention of the Independence party, which will be called to order here Monday, are not to arrive until Saturday or Sunday, a small advance guard already on the field has started gossip of Presidential candidate possibilities. Among those now here is D. A. Frazier, member of the National committee from Oklahoma; J. B. Drake and M. W. Howard, National committeeman from Alabama.

Mr. Howard, of Alabama, will be on the scene Saturday, with his speech urging the convention to choose Mr. Howard, who is an ex-Congressman, as the standard-bearer of the new party. Another candidate whose good showing in the gubernatorial race in Massachusetts has made him the favorite of many of the delegates is Thomas L. Hisgen. If Mr. Hisgen is selected, a strong effort will be made to place Mr. Howard's name second on the ticket.

SHOOT UP BOSTON SALOON

One Man Killed, Two Wounded by Daring Trio of Robbers.

BOSTON, July 22.—Three men armed with heavy caliber revolvers, dashed into a crowded Jamaica Plain bar room 19 minutes before closing time last night and yelling "Hands up," began shooting up the place. When they had grabbed the money till and emptied it and had finished shooting and made their escape, one man was dead on the floor, another lay dying and a third was seriously injured.

The dead man is F. J. Drake, aged 52 years. Patrick Doran, aged 40 years, is dying at the City Hospital, with a bullet wound in the abdomen, and Thomas Winterston, one of the proprietors of the saloon, is suffering from bullet wounds in the neck and arm.

The saloon is situated at the corner of Washington and Boylston streets in Jamaica Plain, in a thickly settled part of the city.

OLD WOMAN BREAKS NECK

Tries to Climb Hill, but Slips and Falls.

OAKLAND, Cal., July 22.—Word was received here today in a private telegram from Middlesex Lake county, of an accident in the mountains, which resulted in the death of Mrs. A. C. Gould of this city. Mrs. Gould, who was 78 years of age, attempted to climb to the top of a point of interest near Anderson Springs, when she slipped and fell, breaking her neck. The accident occurred near the hotel where 100 guests were staying, but the body was not found until several hours afterward, when it was run across by two young men who were climbing the hill.

This woman says she was saved from an operation by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lena V. Henry, of Norristown, Pa., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I suffered untold misery from female troubles. My doctor said an operation was the only chance I had, and I dreaded it almost as much as death.

"One day I read how other women who had been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?"

DIES OF BROKEN HEART

Policeman Who Killed Escaping Prisoner Cannot Endure Sneers.

NEW YORK, July 22.—Policeman Alfred Nathaniel Shuttleworth, of Brooklyn, is dead. Although the physician's certificate will give paralysis as the cause of Shuttleworth's death, all who know say Shuttleworth died of remorse and of a broken heart.

Ten months ago he shot and killed a boy who was resisting arrest. It was an accidental killing. Shuttleworth always insisted, but he was indicted by the grand jury, suspended from duty, shunned by his old friends and ostracized by his neighbors. Indictment came last May when District Attorney Elder, after a thorough investigation of the facts, moved for a dismissal of the indictment. Restored to duty, Shuttleworth took fresh heart, but was assigned to the very post on which the tragedy had occurred.

Day after day as he walked his post men and women would point him out as "the cop who killed a boy."

June 12 he reported sick, on stroke of paralysis was followed by another and death. Shuttleworth leaves a widow and six children.

VICTORY IS IN THE BALANCE

Revolutionists Gain One Day and Lose Next at Tabriz.

LONDON, July 22.—A special dispatch dated July 21 to the Times from Tabriz says the anti-royalists carried all before them in Monday's fighting, but today the tables were turned. Racht Khan, the commander of the Shah's troops, brought in late last night to help the royalists in the city, and victory was followed by many hours of fighting.

The anti-royalists are as depressed today, as they were jubilant yesterday. Communications in many places have been cut. The Times correspondent describes Racht Khan as playing the part of the sulking Achilles in his role during the three days ending Monday.

CAN YOU DIGEST STARCH?

Starch that is half-digested ferments and breeds germs—and these cause appendicitis, and other bowel disorders. In the making of "FORCE" the starch in the wheat is converted into dextrine by our scientific malting process thereby partially digesting the food before it enters the stomach. The "sunny" food—the sustaining food.

"FORCE" is made of the best white wheat, steam-cooked, rolled into thin flakes, combined with the purest barley-malt and baked. Always "crisp" if before
